Gloucester City News Obituaries
November 2020

To see the obituaries in context on the newspaper page and to see any photos included, please ask to see the back issues, which may be in paper or microfilm format.

Arlene Nancy Morrell (Nov. 5th)

Arlene Nancy Morrell, 81, of Mount Ephraim, passed away on October 22, 2020, at her home surrounded by her loving family.

Arlene was born December 17, 1938, in Trenton to Nancy and Charles Smith. Arlene was passionately devoted to her loving husband for almost 46 years, her children, her grandchildren, all her beautiful, most precious great-grandchildren from her first, Vinny, to her last, Audrey.

Her door was literally always open and you never left empty handed or empty hearted. She was 'Mom' to all of her children's friends and "Nanny" to all of her grandchildren's friends.

She never cared about religion, race, nationality, poor or rich and anyone she met became additional family. Arlene never had an enemy. She had a strength that was a shining light to people in their saddest and darkest times. She enjoyed traveling, reading and above all being with her family – but even they went down on the list when her first grand and then great-grand were born!

Arlene was dedicated for 25 years to her job at F. W. Woolworth's in the Black Horse Pike Shopping Center and selling her Avon for years after. She made her coworkers and customers into friendships that lasted for the rest of her life. She was a gentle soul but would never let a wrong-doing go by without righting it.

The deep hole left by her passing will gently fill up by everyone remembering her to her great grand-babies so that they will also know how loved she was by all.

Arlene is pre-deceased by her parents, Charles and Nancy Smith; her in-laws, Suzanne and Eugene Morrell, Jr.; her brother Dr. Charles Smith and sister-in-law, Anna Smith; and her incredibly precious grandsons, Michael and Chuckie.

Arlene leaves behind to cherish her memories: her husband Eugene “Gene' Morrell”; her children, John DelVecchio, Jr. (Kathy), Anthony (Barb), Donna Schepacarter (Rich) and Tina DeVita-Messer (John); her grandchildren Johnny, Ryan DelVecchio, Anthony DelVecchio Jr., Tim Casey (Megan), Michelle Casey (Frank), Chelsea Johann (Brett), Bobby Schepacarter (his girlfriend Tiffany), and Chuckie's wife Pam DeVita; and her great-grandchildren, Ethan, Taylor, Reese, Sonny, Frankie, Vinny, Maze and Audrey; her sister-in Donna Synder; and her nieces, Denise Rozzelle and Jennifer Pepe, and many loving friends.

“We all know Mom is finally out of pain, at peace and taking care of her precious Chuckie and Michael again.” Services were private.

Callie Boos (Nov. 5th)

Callie M. "Jay" Boos (nee Smith), 80, of Runnemede, formerly of Fairview, passed away on October 25, 2020.

Beloved wife of the late David "Butch" Boos for 42 years. Devoted mother of David Boos and John Boos (Jeannette). Loving grandmother of Eric Jr. and great grandmother of Maggie Lee. Dear sister of Edward, Amy and Liz. Also survived by nieces and nephews.

Mrs. Boos was a member of Runnemede VFW Post #3324 Ladies Auxiliary.

The Funeral Service was held at the Gardner Funeral Home, 126 S. Black Horse Pike, Runnemede. Interment was at New St. Mary's Cemetery, Bellmawr.

Family requests in lieu of flowers, donations be made in Mrs. Boos' memory to Wounded Warrior Project, P.O. Box 758517, Topeka, KS 66675.

Dolores Schmidt (Nov. 5th)

Dolores H. Schmidt (nee Maiale), 96, of Bellmawr passed away on October 24, 2020.

Beloved wife of the late Lawrence for 57 years. Devoted mother of Elaine Martorano (William) and Gary Schmidt (Sharon). Cherished grandmother of William and Angela Martorano and Melissa and Matthew Schmidt. Loving sister of Jeanette and the late Henry, John, Nicholas, and Rita and dear sister-in-law of Bernice. Also survived by many nieces and nephews.
Dolores loved traveling and going dancing with Lawrence.

Funeral Mass was celebrated at Mary Mother of the Church, Bellmawr. Entombment was in New Saint Mary's Mausoleum, Bellmawr.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in Dolores' memory to the Saint John of God Archbishop Damiano School, 1145 Delsea Drive, Westville Grove, NJ 08093.

Funeral arrangements entrusted to the Gardner Funeral Home, 126 S. Black Horse Pike, Runnemede.

Francis Pallante Sr. (Nov. 5th)

Francis T. “Frank” Pallante Sr., 84, of Westville died peacefully at home in his sleep on October 25, 2020, following a long illness.

Born on October 7, 1936, Frank met his wife Shirley T. Pallante (nee Benjamin) at Gloucester Catholic High School when they were 15 years old. On December 20, 1956, they were married in Honolulu by the Pearl Harbor Navy Chaplain and remained best friends during nearly 64 years of marriage. They returned to Hawaii for their 50th wedding anniversary.

Frank served in the U.S. Navy for four years on the U.S.S. Edmunds DE 406, spending significant time in both East and Southeast Asia. He was a teacher for 27 years at the Westhampton campus of the Burlington County Institute of Technology, where he taught construction skills and building maintenance to special needs students, helping to prepare them for specialized careers and adult independence. He previously had worked for 11 years at E. I. du Pont as a skilled pipefitter and carpenter.

As the father of five children, he earned his bachelor's and master's degrees in education from Glassboro State College (now Rowan University) by attending evening classes after a full day of work. He could design, build, or repair anything.

Frank had a keen mind for history and was a highly regarded numismatic expert. A charter member of the Garden State Coin Club, he was a sought-after appraiser and at various points of his life enjoyed magnificent coin collections from the modern and ancient worlds. A long-time resident of Westville, he was active in a variety of civic events, including small town parades and neighborhood celebrations. Together, he and Shirley restored a beautiful turn-of-the-century home on Timber Creek with views of the Philadelphia skyline, where they raised their family and lived together for 51 years. He loved to garden, and, when his children were young, getting them out of bed during summer vacations to tend to his many flower beds and trees.

Frank was an excellent cook and loved nothing more than to preside over family meals and gatherings. As a child, he grew up with his brothers in a home that was attached to his parents' grocery store, which for decades served as a treasured hub of community conversations. His grandparents and parents helped to build St. Anne's Roman Catholic Church and school in Westville, and he was an active member of the parish until it closed.

He loved the South Jersey shore and fishing and crabbing in the ocean and back bays. He was never so happy when his family was gathered to celebrate Christmas Eve festivities, which included an Italian buffet with more food than anyone could possibly eat. During retirement, he and Shirley traveled to Italy, and, in an unforgettable multi-generational trip, took everyone to England, Scotland, and Ireland, employing more than one designated "Pallante Family Bus."

In addition to his beloved wife, Frank is survived by daughters Debora Hill (Lawrence Hill) of Queensbury, NY; Maria Pallante-Hyun (Christopher Hyun) of Washington, DC; Suzanne Pallante (former spouse Wayne Buckley) of Westville; and Shirley Keegan (Patrick Keegan) of Flanders. He was devoted to his grandchildren: Jennifer Kraft and husband Raymond; Lawrence Hill and wife Samantha, Nina Pallante and partner Lou Gonzalez, Isabella Hyun, Spenser Hyun, Aaron Buckley, Brandon Buckley, Benjamin Keegan and wife Anna, Madison Keegan, and Owen Keegan. He loved his four great-children: Luca Long; Beckett Hill; Zoey Marie Gonzalez; and Milo Burks-Keegan; his brother James J. Pallante, Sr.; and countless nieces, nephews, and cousins.

He is preceded in death by son Francis (Frank) Pallante, Jr.; great-grandson Lorenzo Long; parents, Emma and Thomas C. Pallante, Sr.; and Thomas C. Pallante Jr., his brother.
Funeral Mass was celebrated at Annunciation Church, Bellmawr. Burial and committal services were in New St. Mary's Cemetery.

Memorial contributions in Frank's name may be made to the COPD Foundation at www.copdfoundation.org or American Heart Association at www.heart.org

George Middleton (Nov. 5th)

George H. Middleton passed away in the early evening of October 21, 2020.

George was born to the late George and Helen Middleton (nee Heagey) on August 5, 1932, in Laurel Springs. He worked as a car salesman for Barlow Chevrolet in Delran, and is predeceased by his loving wife Margaret (nee Bower).

George is survived and will be greatly missed by his sons Richard Middleton and his wife Deborah, Scott Middleton and his wife Robin, as well as his sister Gloria Brown. He is also survived by grandchildren Scott, Ryan, Rebecca, and Brian, as well as great grandchildren Braelyn, Quinn, and Cooper and many nieces and nephews.

The Funeral Ceremony was at Creran Celebration Etherington & Creran Funeral Homes, 400 White Horse Pike, Oaklyn. Interment was private.

In lieu of flowers, contributions could be made to Heartland Hospice 1385 Chews Landing Road, Clementon, NJ 08021 https://www.heartlandhospice.com/Woodbury.

Jordan S. Steel (Nov. 5th)

Jordan S. Steel lost his battle with addiction at the age of 37, after being nearly two years sober. He passed away on Friday, October 23, 2020.

Tattoos have a power and a magic all on their own. They decorate the body, but also enhance the soul. Jordan's soul was abundantly filled with talent, humor, and artistic expression. He expressed himself through his tattoos and his many talents, including drawing, singing and playing the guitar.

There are places I remember all my life. These places had their moments with lovers and friends. Jordan's entire life was a wave of green and gold. He was rooted in and loved Audubon. Jordan was a hometown good guy, who was admired for his big heart and generosity. He worked as a crew chief at Little Bob's Landscape Management in Barrington. Jordan loved to spend time fishing and rescuing turtles at Audubon Lake.

Jordan is survived by his wife, Adrienne (nee Melchiore) Steel, and his daughters Delaney Steel and Kyleigh Byrnes. He is the son of Jack and Joy (nee Klingenstein) Steel, sister of Amy and her husband Larry Unger, and brother of Zachary Steel.

Jordan is also survived and will be sadly missed by his paternal grandparents, John and Jane Steel, his Uncle Mark and wife Barbara, his Uncle David and partner Hector, as well as his many nieces and nephews, including Clara, Aidan, Morgan, James, Anya, and Olive.

The life celebration was at the Henry Funeral Home, Audubon.

In a lieu of flowers contributions are requested to be made to the Delaney Steel scholarship fund. Please visit or mail a check to any TD Bank and ask to deposit to the fund.

Lucy DiSalvatore (Nov. 5th)

Lucy DiSalvatore (nee Russo), 91, of Runnemede passed away on October 2, 2020.

Beloved sister of Fred Russo (Rita). Devoted aunt of Salvatore DeLuca (Teresa), Frank Russo, Michelle DeSimone (Ron), and Cynthia Russo (Lawrence Finnegan). Also survived by many great nieces and great nephews and great-great nieces and nephews. Preceded in death by her parents Frank and Mary Russo, twin sister Rose DeLuca, and brother Frank Russo (the late Ruth).

Lucy loved a good laugh. For many years she cared for children in her home. She loved those children very much and would often talk about them both as children and adults. Lucy was brave and feisty. She derived great enjoyment from visiting family members, especially the children.
Lucy leaves a legacy of love. She loved her family and friends with great enthusiasm. Lucy also leaves a legacy of kindness and joy. She was very kind to those she loved and was very appreciative of kindness shown by others.

The graveside service was at St. Joseph's Cemetery, Blackwood.

Funeral arrangements entrusted to the Gardner Funeral Home, 126 S. Black Horse Pike, Runnemede.

Marilyn Jane Larsen (Nov. 5th)

Marilyn Jane Larsen was an Angel. She was loving, generous and cheerful and always had a kind word to say about everyone. Marilyn held her faith dear and filled her soul with the lives of her family. After 84 years, the angels waited long enough and on October 21, 2020

Marilyn passed and was taken to be in the presence of her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

Marilyn was born in Camden and had been a lifelong area resident, living at her Bellmawr home for the past 54 years. She filled her days with family and friends, reading, completing crossword puzzles watching TV and of course her cats. Marilyn enjoyed spending time in the kitchen cooking and baking for the family and was very creative decorating cakes.

Marilyn was a great listener and was always there to give the exact answer to any family member or friends questions. Marilyn grew up watching baseball with her father and became an avid fan and almanac of sports on baseball knowledge. We will always remember Marilyn as a beautiful lady who loved her family.

Marilyn is the daughter of the late William Bernard and Alice Mae (nee Briscoe) Larsen. She is the sister of Gloria Mae Ferrera. the late Patricia Ann Agigian and the late Donald Bernard Larsen. She is survived by her nieces and nephews; Gary Badger (Marge), Dona Agigian Koehler (Ray),Frank C. Ferrara (Sandy)andLisa J. Agigian Hoenes (Marty). Her great nieces and nephews; Gary, Jeffrey, Kristopher, Andrew, Frank, Jr. Ciara, Steven, Alicia, her many great nieces and nephews, many, great, great nieces and nephews and her lifelong friends; Betty St. John, Delores Long Reader, Leona Priest, Mary Costello McWilliams and Howard Reed.
Her Funeral Ceremony was at Creran Celebration Etherington & Creran Funeral Homes, 700 Powell St., Gloucester City, with Pastor Daniel J. Amey celebrating. The Graveside Ceremony was in Bethel Memorial Park, Pennsauken.

As an expression of sympathy contributions in Marilyn's memory can be made to the Camden County Animal Welfare Association 509 Centennial Blvd. Voorhees, NJ 08043.

Mercedes Rivera Otero (Nov. 5th)

Mercedes Rivera Otero, 80, of Moorestown, passed away peacefully on October 24, 2020.

She was the cherished daughter of the late Patricio and Victoria Rivera. She is survived by her loving daughters and their spouses, Linda Goldberg (Scott), Bien Otero-Williamson (Peter) and Venida Tulier (Ernie); her grandchildren Rachel Goldberg (Ryan), Adam Goldberg, Keely Williamson and Remi Williamson.; great-grandchildren, Mia Brown, Sadie Brown and Cameron Brown; and siblings, Gloria Smith, Joe Rivera, Herminia Badillo and twin sister, Gracie Rivera.

At her request, services will be private.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to, Susan G. Komen, 13770 Noel Rd. Suite 801889, Dallas, TX 75380 or online at komen.org. Please memo, in memory of Mercedes Rivera Otero.
Funeral arrangements entrusted to the McCann-Healey Funeral Home, 851 Monmouth St., Gloucester City.

Sean Melunis (Nov. 5th)

Sean Melunis, 33, of Salem City, formerly of Westville, passed away on October 19, 2020.

Born in Stratford, he is the son of Deborah (Scoleri) and the late John Melunis.

Sean is survived by his brothers, Justin Melunis (Brittni) and Mark Viteo; sisters, Melissa Melunis, Tiffany Riley and Megan Riley; and his close friends, Justin and Chelsea Coffin and Tim Fried.

Sean grew up and lived in Westville for the majority of his life. The things Sean loved most was being there for his family and friends. Sean was always there as someone anyone could talk to and loved to tell jokes and make people smile. He enjoyed barbecuing, fishing and watching sports.

A celebration of his life will be November 8 from noon to 3 p.m. at the VFW Post 9563, 52 Essex Ave., Bellmawr. Food and drinks will be served. Face masks are required and there will be COVID-19 protocols in place.

Funeral arrangements entrusted to the McCann-Healey Funeral Home, 851 Monmouth St., Gloucester City.

Donald A. Pratt (Nov. 12th)

Donald A. "Albert" Pratt passed away suddenly on October 29, 2020.

He was born and raised in Camden, and was the son of the late John and Doris (nee Speyerer) Pratt.

Loving brother of Edward (Dolores), Iva DePoder and the late John Pratt, Jr., Dolores Korkowski, Robert Pratt, Valentine "Wally" Pratt and Stephen Pratt. He is also survived by nieces, nephews and cousins.
Funeral Services were private.

Geraldine Mary Davis-Coughlin (Nov. 12th)

Geraldine Mary Davis-Coughlin, 68, of Hollywood, FL, formerly of Gloucester City, passed away on October 22, 2020.

Beloved mother of Tamara "Tammy" Coughlin (Bruce Atkinson Mahar, Jr.). Devoted sister of Cheryl Ann (Dana) Dameron and Judy Davis Phillips. Predeceased by her sister Karen Zerillo. Beloved grandmother of Bruce Atkinson Mahar, III and Bannan Kulley Mahar. Also survived by nieces and nephews.

Geraldine's Catholic Graveside Service was in New Saint Mary's Cemetery, Bellmawr.

Funeral arrangements entrusted to the McCann-Healey Funeral Home: 851 Monmouth St., Gloucester City.

Glenwood Hoover (Nov. 12th)

On Friday, October 30, 2020, Glenwood Hoover passed away at the age of 96.

Glen was born on August 26, 1924, in a second floor bedroom in a small rowhome in Gloucester City – a true Gloucester Boy. He worked as a public utility inspector for the state of New Jersey and was a professional musician. He was the youngest of four sons (all deceased). The oldest was George born in 1910, John born in 1914, and Joe born in 1917. All were musicians. Glen started taking trumpet lessons when he was 10. He was the oldest member of the Philadelphia Musician's Union.

He graduated Gloucester High School in 1942 and played in the school band. Glen enlisted in the Army-Air Corp and played lead trumpet in their band during WWII. He continued his career as a musician by playing for several big bands as well as local talent such as Bobby Rydell. He loved his trumpet and would call friends, family, and even the doctor's office receptionists to play "guess that tune over the phone."

Glen was preceded by his wife Florence "Ginger," his sons Kevin and Keith, his parents George and Ida, and three brothers. He is survived by three children, Dianna, Glenn "Scott," and Karl (Susan) along with seven grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren.

The Memorial Service was at Lakeview Memorial Park 1300 Route 130 North Cinnaminson. Funeral arrangements entrusted to the Creran Celebration Etherington & Creran Funeral Homes 700 Powell St. Gloucester City.

Mary Jane Davy (Nov. 12th)

Mary Jane Davy was born October 6, 1927, and raised in Detroit, Michigan. She was a woman of class, wit and perfect hair.

She met her husband Donald Davy ballroom dancing, a passion she continued in stilettoes through her 80s. They were married almost 50 years prior to Donald's passing in 1998. She worked as an executive secretary for the New York Times, but her life was centered around Donald and their two sons, Kent and Robert.

Mary Jane was an incredible cook, loved to golf scoring a hole-in-one at Medford Village Golf Cub in her late 70s, and bowled for over 50 years – refusing to switch to a lighter ball. Mary Jane and Don did a great deal of traveling around the world, often taking the whole family with them. She was an avid soccer fan watching her granddaughters play. Recently, she enjoyed spending time with her family frequenting new restaurants, yet usually settling on a cheeseburger – her favorite. Mary Jane took her final dance to meet her late husband and sons on October 27, 2020, on the one year anniversary of her youngest Robert William Davy's passing.

Her life continues to be celebrated through her daughter-in-laws, Andrea Davy and Young Davy; granddaughters Rachel Davy, Alisha Davy Unternahrer (husband Neil Unternahrer), and Annabelle Davy; and her great grandsons Hans and Fritz Unternahrer. Mary Jane's life was a reflection of a strong, independent and successful woman who loved her family and life's gifts.

Friends and relatives celebrated Mary Jane Davy Wednesday Creran Celebration Etherington & Creran Funeral Homes, Oaklyn. Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated at St Aloysius Church, Oaklyn.
Interment was private.

In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to the HTAA Bob Davy Fund (PO Box 103 Collingswood NJ, 08018) or the Lewy Body Dementia Association (lbda.org).

Nicholas V. Cerami (Nov. 12th)

Nicholas V. Cerami, 38, of Bellmawr passed away suddenly on November 2, 2020.

Beloved son of Karen (nee Nyzio) and the late Carmen Cerami Sr. Devoted brother of Carmen Jr. Loving uncle of Dominic and Sierra. Godfather of Natalia Ricardi and Bailey Brennen. Dear nephew of Peg Giordano and Jane Kanicki. Loving companion of Sydni. Also survived by many loving cousins and friends.

Nicholas graduated from Triton Regional High School, then attended the Le Cordon Bleu Institute of Culinary Arts in Pittsburgh. He worked for DiBruno Brothers in Philadelphia, then worked as a corporate executive chef for Cinder Bar.

The Funeral Service was at the Gardner Funeral Home, 126 S. Black Horse Pike, Runnemede.

Interment was private at the request of the family.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in Nicholas' memory to the Animal Adoption Center, PO Box 4017, Lindenwold, NJ 08021.

Paul K. Mailley (Nov. 12th)

Paul Kenneth Mailley, 62, of Maple Shade, passed away on November 3, 2020.

Born in Camden, he is the son the late William T. and Charolette (nee Toth) Mailley. Paul is survived by his sister, Carol Lamaina (Robert); brothers, William Mailley (Tracy), Kenneth Mailley (Joan), and Steven Mailley (Colleen); nieces, Kim, Kelly, Lisa, Lauren, Lindsay and, Allison; and nephews, Colin and Ryan.

Paul was a lifelong resident of Gloucester City and was a graduate of Gloucester City High School.

Funeral services will be celebrated at 11 a.m. on Friday, Nov. 13, at the McCann-Healey Funeral Home, 851 Monmouth St., Gloucester City, where family and friends may visit from 10 to 11 a.m.

Burial will follow in the New St. Mary's Cemetery, Bellmawr.

In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made in memory of Paul to the Guidance Center, P.O. Box 808, Millville, NJ 08332.

Ralph J. Pepino Sr. (Nov. 12th)

Ralph J. Pepino Sr., 94, of Runnemede passed away on October 27, 2020.

Beloved husband of the late Giaconda "Connie" Pepino. Devoted father of Christina Mazzotta (Sal), Lisa Pepino and Ralph Pepino (Lori Zaslow). Loving grandfather of Sal, Jr., Sabrina and Saro. Dear brother of Natalie Fala, Alfred Pepino, Richard Pepino and the late Robert Pepino. Also survived by many nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Mr. Pepino proudly served in the U.S. Navy during WWII. He was the owner of World Gym and then became a personal trainer.

The Funeral Mass was celebrated at St. Teresa Church, Runnemede. Interment was in St. Joseph's Cemetery, Chews Landing.

Funeral arrangements entrusted to the Gardner Funeral Home, 126 S. Black Horse Pike, Runnemede.

Susan Kay Boyle (Nov. 12th)

Susan Kay Boyle, 65, of Pennsville, formerly of Brooklawn, passed away on October 30, 2020.

Predeceased by her parents, Emmanuel John Kozanas and Catherine Martha Tice Kozanas. Beloved mother of Melissa Boyle. Loving companion of Paul Wood for over 20 years. Dear sister of the late Barbara Doran. Also survived by her nephew Kevin Doran (Lisa) and niece Kristen Bader (Andrew), as well as many loving great-nieces, great-nephews and cousins.

Susan was a longtime resident of Brooklawn and was a graduate of Gloucester High School Class of 1973. She worked many years as an administrative assistant and an aide at Archbishop Damiano School, and finally as a respite therapist for the Arc of Salem County.

The Funeral Service was celebrated at the McCann-Healey Funeral Home, 851 Monmouth St. Gloucester City. Interment was in the Eglington Cemetery, Clarksboro.

In lieu of flowers, donations in Susan's name can be made to the Animal Welfare Association at AWANJ.org.

Carol A. Woodward (Nov. 19th)

Carol A. Woodward (nee Fox), 79, of Bellmawr, passed away on Nov. 6, 2020.

Beloved wife of Charles S. Woodward. Devoted mother of Charles R. Woodward and Paul M. Woodward. Loving grandmother of Zachary and Benjamin Woodward. Dear sister of Jean Harrold, Joan Gabrylewicz, Theresa Sharp and Robert Fox. She is also survived by nieces and nephews.

Services and interment were private.

Elmer Lynn George (Nov. 19th)

Elmer Lynn George, 96, formerly of Mount Ephraim, passed away on Nov.4, 2020.

Beloved husband of the late Dorothy (nee Warnock). Devoted father of Thomas A. (Linda) of Bellmawr, Bradley L. (Elaina of Fair Play, SC, Cheryl D. Camerieri (Nick) of Millville, Nancy J. den Harder (Jan) of Ventura, CA, and Barbara S. Lynch of Accident, MD. He was the loving brother of Sherlock George of Parkersburg, WV. Cherished grandfather of 13 grandchildren, 18 great-grandchildren, and two great-great-grandchildren.

Mr. George was a driver for Virtua Hospitals in the area, and for the Philadelphia Bulletin. He served in the US Army during World War II. He was a member of the Murray Trout American Legion Post, Audubon. He attended Mt. Ephraim Baptist Church, and in his later years the W. Park Methodist Church, Bridgeton.

The Funeral Service was held at the DuBois Funeral Home, Audubon. Interment was in the Brig. Gen Wm. C. Doyle Veterans Cemetery, Wrightstown.

George A. Side (Nov. 19th)

George Alfred Side, 47, of Gloucester City passed away on November 8, 2020, the day before his 48th birthday.

George is the beloved father of Ciara Lynn Side and Destiny Nichole Side. Loving brother of Vanessa Sibiski. Devoted fiancé of Catherine LaSalle. Cherished grandfather of Robert Allison, III and uncle of Angela Sibiski.

Beloved step-son of Charles Wilson. George was predeceased by his parents, George A. Side, Sr. and Cheryl Jean Geserick (nee Saiia).

Family and friends shared stories and memories of George at the McCann-Healey Funeral Home, 851 Monmouth St., Gloucester City.

Interment was private.

Joan M. Garsh (Nov. 19th)

Joan M. Garsh (nee Gallino), 101, of Glendora passed away on November 8, 2020.

Beloved wife of the late Harold "John" Garsh. Devoted mother of the late Joan Cipriano. Loving grandmother of Michelle Bonamassa (Sal) and Michael Cipriano, and great grandmother of Natalie, Julia, and Jessica.
Dear sister of Angie Nielson, Tom Luce (Marg), and the late Angelina, Carmen, Daniel, Janet, Kay, and Rosemarie. Also survived by many nieces and nephews.

The Memorial Mass was celebrated in St. Teresa Church, Runnemede. Interment of cremated remains was at St. Joseph's Cemetery, Chews Landing.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to The Muscular Dystrophy Association, 161 N. Clark Street, Suite 3550, Chicago, IL 60601.

Funeral arrangements entrusted to the Gardner Funeral Home, 126 S. Black Horse Pike, Runnemede.

Kenneth Miller (Nov. 19th)

Kenneth Miller, 75, of Voorhees passed away on November 4.

Loving son of the late George and Annie Miller. Survived by his loving caregivers at Abigail House Nursing and Rehab and Quality Management Associates.

Catholic Graveside Services will in Land of Canaan Cemetery, Elk Township.

Funeral arrangements entrusted to the McCann-Healey Funeral Home: 851 Monmouth St., Gloucester City.

Marie Rose Fitzpatrick (Nov. 19th)

Marie Rose Fitzpatrick, 83, of Gloucester City passed away on November 10, 2020, as surrounded by her loving family, Marie went home to our Lord.

Born in West Philadelphia, she was the daughter of the late James and Emily (Robinson) Cooper. Loving mother of Karen Fitzpatrick (Sharon), Mary Elliott (Joe), Anne Harter (Gary) and Kathleen Fitzpatrick. Cherished grandmother of Sean Saunders (Kristie), David Saunders (Bianca), Ian Harter, Adele Robinson; great grandmother of Harper, Morgan and Olive; sister of, Catherine Litle, Jeanne Bowersox, Carol Miller; sister-in-law of Anna Cooper. Marie was predeceased by her husband Gerald "Jerry" Fitzpatrick, grandsons, Colin Fitzpatrick and Ryan Harter, her brother, James Cooper and sisters, Patricia Snyder, Dolores Sharpe and Barbara Surdak.

Marie was a graduate of West Catholic High School Misericordia Nursing School in Philadelphia. She worked as an RN for many years at Cooper University Hospital in Camden, and for Dr. Brennan in Gloucester City. Prior to retiring in 2001, Marie worked at Girard/St. Joseph's Hospital in Philadelphia.

Marie was a devoted parishioner of St. Mary's Parish in Gloucester City for over 60 years. She was a woman of strong faith, love of her family and an enormous source of strength for many.

Her sense of adventure lead her to take numerous trips around the United States and Europe – memories she always cherished! Marie was a member of the St. Mary's Saints and Singers, St. Mary's Grammar School PTA and volunteered as a gym teacher at St. Mary's Grammar School. She was also lovingly known as the "neighborhood" nurse.

Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated at St. Mary's Church, Gloucester City. Interment was in New St. Mary's Cemetery, Bellmawr.

In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made in memory of Marie to the Saint Mary's Church Special Fund, 420 Monmouth Street, Gloucester City, NJ 08030. Please write Marie R. Fitzpatrick in memo.

Funeral arrangements entrusted to the McCann-Healey Funeral Home, 851 Monmouth St., Gloucester City.

William F. O'Neill Jr. (Nov. 19th)

William Francis O'Neill Jr., 83, a lifelong Gloucester City resident, aged 83, passed away Nov 5, 2020.

Bill is the son of the late William and Mary O'Neill (nee McCaughern), and brother to Mary Pat MacWilliams. He attended Gloucester Catholic High School graduating in 1954, and graduated from Villanova University in 1958. He was a proud Marine, serving both active duty and in the reserves. He then went on to dedicated work at the Camden County Welfare Board.

As a lifelong community member, he was an ardent supporter of the Gloucester Catholic Lady Rams basketball program, and in 2019 was presented a lifetime award for his more than six decades of support by head coach Lisa Gedaka. He also volunteered for 16 years as a tour guide on the Battleship New Jersey, highlighting his lifelong love of military history. For his dedicated work he received the Jason W. Hall Volunteer of the Year award in 2020.

He enjoyed boating and spent a lot of time with family and friends exploring the waterways of the Chesapeake. He preferred travel by motorcycle, often on backroads in and around New Jersey.

Bill is also survived by nephews Robert MacWilliams and Mark MacWilliams, nieces Nancy O'Reilly, Patricia Bowe, and Maureen Alleman, several great-nieces, a great-nephew and many cousins.

Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated in St. Mary's Church, Gloucester City. Interment with U.S. Military honors was private in New St. Mary's Cemetery, Bellmawr.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Gloucester Catholic High School, http://gchsrams.org/wordpress/?page_id=14138 or the Battleship New Jersey https://www.battleshipnewjersey.org/support/ .

Funeral arrangements entrusted to the McCann-Healey Funeral Home, 851 Monmouth St., Gloucester City.

Albert J. Williams Sr. (Nov. 26th)

Albert J. Williams Sr., 69, of Gloucester City, formerly of Sewell, passed away on November 17, 2020.

Predeceased by his beloved wife, Deborah M. Williams (nee Cristino). Survived by his children, Albert J. Williams, Jr. and Adrienne Turchi (Christopher); his grandchildren, Samantha, Alexis and Jessica; his mother, Patricia Williams; his siblings Patricia, Bruce, MaryJo, Johnny and Jennifer; and his dear friend, Margaret Sorbello. Al worked many years in furniture sales and service and operated his own business, AJ's Furniture Outlet.

Relatives and friends are invited to his graveside service on Saturday, December 5, 2020 at 11 a.m. in Calvary Cemetery, Cherry Hill.

In lieu of flowers, donations are requested to Msgr. Lucitt's Needy Children's Christmas Fund, PO Box 87, Gloucester City, NJ 08030. Please memo, Albert J. Williams, Sr.

Funeral arrangements entrusted to the McCann-Healey Funeral Home, 851 Monmouth St., Gloucester City.

Charles R. 'Bob' Webb (Nov. 26th)

Charles R. "Bob" Webb, 90, of Haddon Township, formerly of Gloucester City, passed away on November 19, 2020.

Born in Gloucester City, he is the son of the late Clarence U. and Mary Ellen (McLaughlan) Webb. Charles is survived by his daughters, Mary Ellen Norkis (Charles), Joan T. Costello and Barbara Miller (Matthew); eight grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

He was also predeceased by his wife of 64 years, Ellen Webb (nee Flynn) on October 9, 2015.

Bob proudly served his country in the US Navy and the Navy Reserves from 1949 to 1955. He retired from ARCO after a long career as a machinist, union officer and as a tax accountant. Bob graduated from Gloucester Catholic High School, where he played on the basketball and baseball teams and later became a volunteer assistant basketball coach. Raised in Gloucester City, he fostered a special fondness for the people and area throughout his life.

A celebration of his life will be deferred until that time which family and friends may gather together safely.

In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made in memory of Bob to the Msgr. Lucitt's Needy Children's Christmas Fund, P.O. Box 87 Gloucester City, NJ 08030. Please write in the memo: Charles Webb.

Funeral arrangements entrusted to the McCann-Healey Funeral Home, 851 Monmouth St., Gloucester City.

Elizabeth Doren (Nov. 26th)

Elizabeth Doren, 81, of Cherry Hill passed away on November 15, 2020.

Catholic Graveside Service and burial were private.

Funeral arrangements entrusted to the McCann-Healey Funeral Home, 851 Monmouth St., Gloucester City.

Florence E. Shimp (Nov. 26th)

Florence E. Shimp (nee Shackelford), 88, of Gibbsboro, formerly of Magnolia, died peacefully and entered her eternal rest on November 18.

She is predeceased by her husband of 66 years, Howard S. Shimp. Florence is survived by daughters Catherine (Mark) Ballard of Rochester, NY, and Carolyn, of Gibbsboro, who cared for her parents for the past five years. Also survivied by three grandchildren, Jessica, Johanna (Joe), and Christopher (Elizabeth) Ballard; four great-grandchildren; two nephews; and health aide Angie Andrews.

Private funeral arrangements were be made at Creran Celebration Etherington & Creran Funeral Homes, Oaklyn.

Mildred M. Stubbs (Nov. 26th)

Mildred M. "Mimi" Stubbs (nee Murray), 79, of Gloucester City passed away on November 14, 2020.

Beloved wife of the late William J. Stubbs, Sr. Loving mother of the late John J. Thom, Jr.
Treasured grandmother of Andrew J. Thom of Voorhees, John J. Thom, III (Lauren) of Deptford, and William A. Thom of Gloucester City. Longtime friend of Cindy Clarke.

Mimi was a stubborn but loving and bubbly woman who adored her grandsons. She enjoyed computer games, animals and Mickey Mouse. Mimi was proud of the work she did with the Gloucester City Police Department as a Parking Enforcement Officer.

The Religious Service was held in the chapel at the Boucher Funeral Home, Deptford.

Interment was in the Cedar Green Cemetery, Clayton.

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made to the Gloucester City Police Department, 313 Monmouth St., Gloucester City, NJ 08030.

Patrick D. McMullen (Nov. 26th)

Patrick D. McMullen, 65, of Gloucester City passed away on Tuesday, November 17, 2020, at his home.

Born in Camden, Patrick grew up in Moorestown and was a maintenance supervisor for Standard Warehouse in Pennsauken. He was also a longtime active member of Sacred Heart Church in Camden.

He is survived by his siblings, Mary Ferguson of South Carolina, Thomas McMullen of Bainbridge, NY, Catherine Pauler of Galloway, and Florence Daugherty of Colorado Springs, CO, and many nieces and nephews, cousins and friends. He is also survived by his former wife Helen Smith of Gloucester City.

A Memorial Mass will be held at a later date. Contributions in his memory may be made to the Heart of Camden at www.heartofcamden.org.

Ralph A. Davis Jr. (Nov. 26th)

There will be a Funeral Service Saturday, Nov. 28, at 11:30 a.m. in the McCann-Healey Funeral Home, 851 Monmouth St., Gloucester City, for Ralph A. Davis Jr., 54, a lifelong resident of Gloucester City, who passed away on November 18, 2020.

The viewing will be at the funeral home from 10 to 11:30 a.m., and interment will follow the service in Cedar Grove Cemetery, Gloucester City.

Cherished son of the late Ralph A. Davis, Sr. and Ruth C. Davis (née Aharon). Predeceased by his fiancée and love of his life, Cecilia Harrop. Survived by his beloved siblings, Ruth Ann Cutuli (Carmen), Claire Ann Davis (Walt), Carl Davis (Patty) and James Patrick Davis (Sandy). Also survived by many loving nieces, nephews, great-nieces and nephews and great-great nieces, and his family at D'Orazio/Seviroli Foods in Bellmawr.

Ralph was a graduate of Gloucester High School and a faithful, devoted 22-year employee at Seviroli Foods in Bellmawr. He was an avid fan of the Phillies, Flyers and NASCAR. Ralph could always be found at Westbrook Lanes in Brooklawn bowling, shooting pool and handing out roses he had handmade to his friends. He cherished the times fishing with his nephew, Davis.

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations are requested to St. Mary's Church, 420 Monmouth St. Gloucester City, NJ 08030. Please memo, Food Program – Ralph A. Davis, Jr.