Alice Bloss (May 6th)

There is a bright light in the heavens as we announce the passing of Alice Bloss of Gloucester City. She passed away on March 21, 2021, in the comfort of her home with her family.

Born July 17, 1939, Alice was the daughter of the late Mary and Edward Gillespie and sister of the late Bernice Grossaint. She grew up in Audubon Park not far from where she shared her home with her husband of 35 years, Fred Bloss. She had three children, Amy, Kathleen and Frank Bottalico, seven stepchildren Jeanette, Dill, Fred Jr, Linda, Julia, Edward, Mindy and their spouses. Alice also had lots of grandchildren and great-grandchildren. She cherished and was devoted to them.

Alice worked at RCA for years and had a successful career as an outside sales representative in the two-way radio industry.

She was a wonderful cook and loved bringing her family together to enjoy the holidays. Christmas Eve was filled with lots of delicious food and holiday traditions. She loved to read, garden and was an avid study of history and politics. Alice and Fred loved their Monday nights out dancing with friends and their happy hour afternoons listening to The Blues. She used to say, "Why limit Happy Hour to just an Hour!"

Alice's will be cremated & services will be announced at a later date due to the pandemic restrictions that have been put in place.

Funeral arrangements entrusted to the Healey Funeral Home, Haddon Heights.

Frank Peter Chiovarou (May 6th)

Frank Peter Chiovarou, 87, of Newtown, PA, passed away peacefully Sunday April 25, 2021 at home surrounded and cared for by his family.

Peter was born in Summit, NJ, and graduated from Our Lady of the Valley Catholic High School in Orange in 1952. He attended Newark College of Engineering in Newark and Rutgers University in New Brunswick, graduating with a Science Degree.

Peter's career started at Bell Telephone Labs in Murray Hill and continued at RCA Solid State Divisions in Somerville, NJ, and Palm Beach Gardens, FL, David Sarnoff Research Center in Princeton, and concluded at Harris Semiconductor Division in Somerville, as a Lead Engineer.

Among various awards, his greatest accomplishment was obtaining a U.S. Patent: Method of Making Phosphorus Glass Passivated Transistor. He also was a co-owner in Martinsville Hardware, Martinsville. After retiring from the semiconductor world, he took a fun job as a golf course starter for the Somerset County Park Commission in New Jersey. Peter was a devout Catholic and longtime parishioner of Saint Andrew's Church in Newtown, PA.

Peter's hobbies were mostly concentrated outdoors. He enjoyed swimming, golfing, tennis, gardening and marathon running. While living in Florida he also enjoyed boating and scuba diving. In his later years he was able to devote time to oil painting.

His greatest hobby of all times was spending time with his family at home, at sporting activities and at the beach. His grandchildren will miss his famous "Grandpa's Chicken," which he always patiently grilled.

Peter is survived by his devoted wife of 48 years, Mary Chiovarou (nee Rafferty). Blessed with five cherished children: Lisa and Chris Martell, Houston, TX, late Lauren Chiovarou, Leslie Westhead, Mt. Laurel, Peter J. and Sarah Chiovarou, Newtown, PA, Colleen R. and Patrick Healey of Gloucester City. Ten beloved grandchildren:

Lauren and Martyn Robertson, Lindsay Martell, Leah Martell all of Houston, TX, Danielle and Kenneth Foster NYC, NY, Shannon Westhead and fiancé Dennis Corpora, NYC, NY, Derek Westhead, Mt. Laurel, Sophia Chiovarou and Leo Chiovarou, Newtown, PA, and Katherine Healey and Gerald Healey, Gloucester City. Dear brother of Maryellen (late Keith) Zaharia of Massapeque, NY, and predeceased by many siblings. Survived by many loving nieces, nephews, great-nieces and great-nephews.

Relatives and friends are kindly invited to attend Peter's viewing on Wednesday, May 5, at 10 a.m. in Saint Andrew's Church, 81 Swamp Road, Newtown, PA 18940. Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated at 11:30 am in the church. Cremation and Inurnment will be private. Social distancing and face masks will be required for the viewing and Mass. There will be no evening viewing and no viewing at the funeral home. Peter's Funeral Mass will be live streamed at http://www.standrewnewtown.com/ and click on live-streaming.

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations in Peter's memory to Chandler Hall Hospice, 99 Barclay St., Newtown, PA 18940. Attn: Patty Bevlock, Director of Hospice and Palliative Care, and write in the memo Frank Chiovarou; or to the Parkinson's Foundation: Attn: Donor Services: 200 SE 1st Street, Suite 800, Miami, Florida 33131 or www.parkinson.org. Please write in the memo: In memory of Frank Peter Chiovarou, Pennsylvania Chapter.

The family is extremely thankful and appreciative for the gentle, loving care given to Peter by the women of Chandler Hall Hospice and Newtown Caregiving Services.

Wayne C. Smith (May 6th)

Never forget where you came from. Your growth is found in your roots and it has made you the person you are today. Wayne C. Smith never forgot where he came from. In fact, he never left his roots of good 'ole Gloucester City. Wayne was friendly, outgoing, "chatty" and hardworking. Although he could be firm yet funny, the blue and gold of GHS were at his core and he had the heart of a lion.

In early spring, on Monday, April 26, 2021, our beloved Wayne C. Smith suddenly died at the age of 76 but blessed us all with faith, community, family and "Wayne's Funnel Cakes." Wayne sprouted up on Ninth Street in Gloucester City in the mid-winter of 1945 along with eight other siblings. He graduated from Gloucester City High School, Class of 1963 and remained forever loyal to his alma mater serving as a longtime president of the Gloucester City High School Alumni Association.

He had also been a lifetime "Mustang" and member of the Memorial Athletic Association. He coached for numerous years for the Carmen Palmyra Basketball League. Wayne held his faith dear and had been a lifetime congregant of the Trinity United Methodist Church on Division Street. He made his career working as a marine machinist in shop #38 at the Philadelphia Naval Shipyard. Following his retirement Wayne became the proprietor of "Wayne's Funnel Cakes" and enjoyed serving at many area events.

At home, he cheered on the Alabama Crimson Tide. He wasn't shy sharing the statistics of each player. He had a green thumb. He adored baking, gardening, working outdoors around his home and in the greenhouse out back. To get away from it all for a little rest and relaxation, he enjoyed his annual vacations to Myrtle Beach, SC.

Wayne is the widower of his late wife of 52 years, Janet (nee Torpey). He is survived by his children Kimberly (Joseph Driscoll), Christie Smith-Hall (fiance Kevin Parry) and Thomas Smith. Wayne was the proud grandfather of Luke, Allison, Liam, Bridget, Riley, Tamlin and Connor. He is also survived by and will be sadly missed by his sister Janet Burrows.

The celebration of his life was held at the Creran Celebration Etherington & Creran Funeral Homes, 700 Powell St. Gloucester City. The Funeral Ceremony was Trinity United Methodist Church, Gloucester City. The family celebrated love's reunion graveside at Woodbury Memorial Park 879 Kings Highway, West Deptford. As an expression of sympathy and in lieu of flowers, contributions can be made to the Gloucester City High School Alumni Association % Tom Smith, 35 Haverford Ave. Gloucester City, NJ 08030.

Carolyn owned and operated Carolyn's Beauty Salon in Gloucester City before her retirement.

Catholic Graveside services were celebrated in the New Saint Mary's Cemetery, Bellmawr, NJ.

Contributions may be made in memory of Carolyn to the American Cancer Society, 1851 Old Cuthbert Road, Cherry Hill, NJ 08034. Please write Carolyn Masey in the memo.

Funeral arrangements entrusted to the McCann-Healey Funeral Home, 851 Monmouth St., Gloucester City.

Dianna Gregg (May 13th)

A visitations and Remembrance Ceremony were held for Dianna Gregg May 8 at Creran Celebration Etherington & Creran Funeral Homes, Oaklyn.

She was predeceased by her parents, Carl and Anna Vanderslice, and her brother Ken Vanderslice. She is survived by her son John Gregg, daughter Karen Ciafullo, her husband Rob, and grandchildren Colton and Allyson Ciafullo. Also survived by her nephew Dennis Vanderslice, his wife Melissa, nephew Ethan Jacob and niece Emily, and loved by so many.

Mom passed on November 9, 2020. She left with the same spirit as she lived, with grit, spunk, fight, faith and love. Some of her last words were "Do you believe this bs." That's the fight and grit. "We loved it," family members said. She fought till the end, and loved her beloved Eagles – "Fly Eagles Fly!"

"We can all learn from her by never giving up. Mom we are never gonna give you up and we are never gonna let you go. We will always love you and miss you."

William Kopec (May 20th)

William Louis "Bill" Kopec, 87, passed away peacefully on May 12, 2021, surrounded by loved ones. Born in Philadelphia, PA, Bill grew up in Camden, NJ and was a long-time resident of Medford Lakes.

Bill graduated from Camden Catholic High and later Lasalle University. After college, he proudly served as a Major in the Marine Corps and spent 18 formative months in Okinawa. Bill worked for many years as one of the top salesmen for the Xerox Corporation and later went on to sell commercial real estate with Jackson and Cross. He also served as an adjunct professor at University of Pennsylvania where he taught marketing at the Wharton School of Business.

On weekends, Bill drove back and forth from Wildwood Crest where he ran Lavender Hall, an assisted living facility in Wildwood Crest started by his late mother, Frances Kopec.

Bill is survived by his daughter, Renee Kopec (David Fernie), son Scott Kopec, grandson Oliver Fernie, his brother Frank Kopec, and many nieces, nephews, great nieces, and great nephews. He is predeceased by his sister Sandra Hebel and his parents Frances and Frank Kopec.

Bill was a very active individual – even late into his life – and was an avid handball player at the Camden YMCA for decades. He served on their board for many years and was awarded Man of the Year in 1974. He later became a member of Cherry Hill Racquet Club where he enjoyed playing racquetball into his early 80's.

Bill had many outside interests, but he especially loved modes of transportation. He was a car and bike enthusiast and dabbled in motorcycles and off-road vehicles. Bill was also quite fond of aquatic vessels. He was a member of the crew team in college, and later in life enjoyed canoeing near his home in Medford Lakes and sailing off the shores of Cape May. He also enjoyed shopping and frequently visited his daughter in NYC in order to spend time with her shopping for new pieces for his (already extensive) wardrobe. He appreciated fine craftsmanship and enjoyed collecting all kinds of beautiful objects.

To know Bill was to love him. He had an indomitable spirit and a wonderful sense of humor. He was a master story-teller who enjoyed socializing with people from all walks of life. His witty phrases and his love of others will live on through his family and friends.

The viewing was in the McCann-Healey Funeral Home, 851 Monmouth St., Gloucester City. An additional viewing and Mass of Christian Burial were celebrated in Assumption Church, Wildwood Crest. Entombment was in St. Mary's Cemetery Mausoleum, Cape May.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to one of Bill's favorite charities: Breastfest at www.tyanna.org/donate/ or to Peggy Spiegler Foundation at www.psmrf.org/howtodonate/ or to Samaritan Hospice at samaritannj.org/giving/donate-now/.
