

Gloucester City News Obituaries January 2022

To see the obituaries in context on the newspaper page and to see any photos included, please ask to see the back issues, which may be in paper or microfilm format.

John F. Brown (Jan. 6th)

John F. Brown, 83, of Bellmawr passed away on December 29, 2021.

Beloved husband of Carol Brown (nee O'Shea) for 57 years. Devoted father of Kevin Brown (Meg) and the late Christopher and Michael. Loving Pop of Colin, Patrick, Liam, Owen, Abigail, Josie, Charlotte, Grady, and Georgia. Also survived by many nephews.

John worked for the Steelworkers Pension Trust.

Services and interment were private at the request of the family.

Funeral arrangements entrusted to the Gardner Funeral Home, 126 S. Black Horse Pike, Runnemede.

Robert S. Pierce (Jan. 6th)

Robert S. Pierce, 41, of Westville passed away on December 16, 2021.

Relatives and friends celebrated his life during services at the KROC Center, Camden. Interment was private.

Alfonso Jay Williams (Jan. 13th)

Alfonso Jay Williams, 56, of Runnemede, passed away on Dec. 23, 2021.

Services were private.

In his honor, please make a donation to My Friend Needs A Kidney Foundation at <http://mfnak.com/alfonso-williams-scholarship/>.

Charles James Boos Sr. (Jan. 13th)

Charles James "Cha" "Pop" Boos Sr., 76, of Zephyrhills, FL, formerly of Gloucester City and Wildwood, passed away on December 23, 2021.

Loving husband of the late Margaret Ann Boos (nee Johnson). Devoted father of Dawn (Jay) Larkin, Stacy Pace and Charlie (Tara) Boos, Jr. Beloved grandfather of Alyssa, Amanda, Erin Larkin, Alexis Boos, Gavin and Eva Boos, Michael and Braydon Larkin. Predeceased by his siblings, David "Butchy" Boos and Carol Alley. Survived by many nieces and nephews.

Charles was born and raised in Gloucester City. He proudly served our country in the U.S. Army from 1965 to 1967. Charles was a longtime resident of the Fairview section of Camden City. He later worked as a laborer for the Cape May County Zoo and resided in Wildwood before moving to Zephyrhills, FL.

Relatives and friends celebrated his life during the viewing and Catholic Service at the McCann-Healey Funeral Home, 851 Monmouth St., Gloucester City. Interment with his late wife, Margaret, was in New Saint Mary's Cemetery, Bellmawr.

Family requests memorial donations in Charles' name to the Cape May County Zoo, 707 North Route 9, Cape May Court House, NJ 08210. Please write in memo: In memory of Charles James Boos, Sr.

Deena Lucas (Jan. 13th)

Deena Lucas, 39, passed away suddenly on January 3, 2022.

She was born on June 18, 1982, and lived in Gloucester City. Deena loved to dance, listen to music, watch parades, and hair accessories were her passion. She was always up for a workout session with Richard Simmons "Sweating To The Oldies," or a trip to McDonald's.

Deena was a beloved daughter to Ed Jr. and Donna Cowgill (Witt), daughter of Andrew Lucas, sister to Edward and wife Nicole Cowgill, granddaughter to Jack and Louise Rutter, Ed Sr. and Elsie Cowgill, the late Bob Witt, and the late Zelma Lucas.

She was an adoring aunt to Rylee Cowgill, goddaughter to Dolores Rossi, and is survived by many other uncles, aunts, and cousins.

She was loved by all who knew her, touching hearts and leaving lasting impressions with each person.

Relatives and friends gathered and celebrated her life at the Etherington & Creran Funeral Homes, Gloucester City.

Francis A. Latorre (Jan. 13th)

Francis A. "Frank" Latorre, 99, of Bellmawr passed away on January 5, 2022.

Beloved husband of the late Margaret "Peggy" (nee Murray) Latorre. Devoted father of Catherine Kanauss and Carol Nilsen (Tom). Loving Pop of Billy Kanauss (Johanne), Frank Nilsen (Heather), Keith Kanauss, Coleen Nilsen (George Karpinski), Kevin Kanauss (Heather), and Chris Kanauss (Jen), and great grandpop of 15. Dear brother of the late Sam Latorre and Dominic Latorre. Also survived by many nieces and nephews.

Frank proudly served in the U.S. Army during World War II. He participated in the D-Day Invasion, the Battle of the Bulge, and the German Occupation. He was a member and past commander of VFW Post 9563.

There viewing was in the Gardner Funeral Home, 126 S. Black Horse Pike, Runnemede. The Funeral Mass was celebrated in Annunciation BVM Church, Bellmawr. Interment was private at the request of the family.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in Frank's memory to Wounded Warrior Project, PO Box 758517, Topeka, KS 66675 or by visiting www.woundedwarriorproject.org.

William J. Mayer (Jan. 13th)

William Joseph Mayer Sr., 64, of the Turnersville section of Washington Township and formerly of Pennsauken, passed away on January 5, 2022.

Cherished and loving husband of 45 years to Virginia A. “Ginny” Mayer (nee Joseph). Devoted father of William J. Mayer Jr., (Jennifer L.), Jennifer M. Mayer and Malinda A. Williamson (Matthew B.) Beloved grandfather of Kirsten M. Randolph, William J. Mayer, III, Kaitlyn A. Randolph, Addison G. Mayer, Joshua D. Williamson, Sophie A. Williamson and Makenna L. Mayer. Devoted son of Mary Ellen Mayer (nee Parker) and the late Harry Mayer, Sr. Dear brother of Joan Mayer, Patricia Pizzutillo, James Mayer, Anne Becker, Kathleen Albino, Marie Mayer, John Mayer, Harry Mayer, Mary Ellen Cuneo, Jacqueline Puleo and many loving in-laws.

Bill was born in Camden City and raised in Pennsauken. He was a proud graduate of Drexel University in Philadelphia, with a Bachelor’s Degree in Engineering. Bill worked as a Professional Electrical Engineer for Onboard Engineering in New Castle, Delaware.

He absolutely cherished his grandchildren and vacationing in Disney World with his family. Bill took great pride in restoring a ’55 Chevy that was passed down from his grandfather. Bill was always full of life; always with a smile on his face; anything with him was an adventure. He instantly made you laugh and touched the lives of all who met him. Bill was an all-around “Good Guy.”

Relatives and friends attended his visitation in Saints Peter and Paul Church, Turnersville, where the Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated 12:15 pm in the church. Interment was private.

Family requests in lieu of flowers, memorial donations in Bill’s name to the Drexel University Alumni Scholarship: P.O. Box 8215, Philadelphia, PA 19101-9684 Please write in memo: In Memory of William Mayer, Sr. Alumni Impact. Memorial Donations may also be sent <https://giving.drexel.edu/Mayer>

Funeral arrangements entrusted to the McCann-Healey Funeral Home, 851 Monmouth St., Gloucester City.

William A. Roccia (Jan. 13th)

William A. "Bill" Roccia, 67, of Mount Ephraim passed away on January 5, 2022.

Beloved husband of Donna. Devoted father of John D. Roccia II and Kate (Aaron) Lyle. Loving grandfather of Lila, Emma, and William A. Roccia II and Ellie Lyle. Dear brother of Karen (Michael) Popelak and Gayle Roccia. Also survived by many nieces, nephews, godchildren and NetScum.

Bill was a beloved neighbor, savvy mentor, eager problem-solver, joyful musician, and mythic figure to the vast number of people who had the honor to know him. His many vocations and adventures gave him ample wisdom and many super heroic qualities, both of which he happily employed in the service of everyone he met.

There were none like him, and his kind will not come again; we are poorer for his passing but infinitely richer for having walked with him while he was here.

Relatives and friends are invited to celebrate his life at the Gardner Funeral Home, 126 S. Black Horse Pike, Runnemede, on Saturday, Jan. 15. The viewing will be from 10 a.m. to 12 noon, followed by the Funeral Service. Interment will be in the Harleigh Cemetery, Camden.

Cecelia A. Peters (Jan. 20th)

Cecelia A. Peters (nee Sutton), 72, of Bellmawr, formerly of the Cramer Hill section of Camden, passed peacefully on January 12, 2022.

Loving wife of 33 years to the late William K. Peters Jr. Loving mother of Brian W. Peters and his wife Jackie, and Timothy S. Peters. Cherished grandmother of Alexander, Gabriella, Anthony and Aries, and mom mom Mikki to Bentley and Michael Paul. Predeceased by her grandchildren, Christa and Timothy Jr., and her siblings, Patricia and Edwin. Cecelia is also survived by many loving nieces and nephews.

Cecelia attended Holy Cross High School and graduated from Camden Catholic High School. She worked many years in the deli at ShopRite of Brooklawn.

Relatives and friends celebrated her life during the viewing and Funeral Service in the McCann-Healey Funeral Home, 851 Monmouth St., Gloucester City. Interment was in Arlington Cemetery, Pennsauken.

Christopher J. Holmes (Jan. 20th)

Christopher J. Holmes, 42, of Westville, formerly of Gloucester City, passed away on December 28, 2021.

Survived by his wife, Tina M. Holmes; children, Natalie N. Holmes and Shane M. Holmes; and his siblings, Thomas J. Holmes, Jr. (Kim), Leonard Brown (Fran), Jamie Holmes, Michelle Holmes, Michael Asplint, David Asplint, Debbie Sheppard and Ginny Mitchell.

Predeceased by his parents, Thomas and Joanne Holmes and Margaret and Arthur Asplint, as well as his brother, Joseph Holmes (surviving Deborah). Also survived by his beloved nieces and nephews, Skylar, Desiree, Kristin, Ireland, JoAnna, Alex, Joey, Malaki, Isaac, Scott, Myranda and Bobbi, as well as many loving aunts, uncles and cousins.

Relatives and friends attended his visitation and Funeral Service in St. Peter's Episcopal Church, Clarksboro.

Funeral arrangements entrusted to the McCann-Healey Funeral Home, 851 Monmouth St., Gloucester City.

Eugena Berk George (Jan. 20th)

Eugena "Jeanie" Berk George, 69, of Bellmawr passed away on January 9, 2022.

She was survived by her siblings, Mark Berk (Helen), Steven Berk, and Jan Dagenais (Ron); and her children Stacie (Ryan), Monica (Stephen), and Philip (Julia).

Jeanie was also the best "Memom" to six grandchildren, Rosie, Felix, Kai, Riley, Ezra and Jonah. Daughter of Shirley Cohen (Berenbaum) and Stanley Berk, aunt to eight nieces and nephews, and wife of the late "Phil the Barber" for 45 years. The two lived the perfect, happy, family-first life.

Due to Jeanie's request, there will be no services but family will be notified for a celebration of life. Condolences can be sent to Philip @ 1236 South 8th Street, Philadelphia PA 19147.

Lillian Lyons (Jan. 20th)

Lillian Lyons (nee Boyko), of Bellmawr passed away quietly at home on January 9, 2022.

Born in Moorestown and raised in Gloucester Heights, Lillian has been a resident of Bellmawr for over 60 years. She worked as a secretary for Joseph Asbell, Esq., in Camden for over 10 years and for Dr. Jerome Flicker for over 30 years.

Creative and artistic, Lillian was a gifted pianist, had a talent for gardening and developed a successful small business for her stunning floral designs. An Olympian shopper, she never declined a trip to the stores, and even during her illness, with discount coupons in hand, she made a recent trip to Boscov's.

Lillian adored her friends and lasting, life-long relationships. She was fortunate to be comforted by so many friends, family and loved ones in her final months and obstinately fought her illness to celebrate Christmas, her favorite time of the year, which brought her great joy.

Lillian was predeceased by her devoted husband of 64 years, Robert F. Lyons; her brother, John; and her sister, Olga. She is lovingly survived by her daughter, Dianna Sebastian (husband, James Litzinger); her son, Robert J. Lyons (wife, Sheila); and her beloved granddaughter, Andrea Sebastian.

Relatives and friends attended her viewing in the Healey Funeral Home, Haddon Heights. Her Funeral Mass was celebrated in St. Vincent Pallotti Church, Haddon Township.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Voorhees Animal Orphanage, 419 Cooper Road, Voorhees Twp., NJ 08043.

Marie J. Spingler (Jan. 20th)

Marie J. Spingler (nee Evans), 91, formerly of Brooklawn, passed peacefully on January 12, 2022, surrounded by her loving family.

Loving wife to late George Spingler Jr. Loving mother of George (Lynda) Spingler III, Joan Carrero and Gwen (Raymond) McKenney. Cherished grandmother of Monica (Tom) Ferry, Travis (Stephanie) Carrero, Tiffany (Blaise) Spingler, Raymond (Gwen) McKenney Jr., Justen Carrero, George (Sarah) Spingler IV, and Madison (Vincent) McKenney. Great-grandmother of Peyton, Collins, Raegan, Tommy, Riley, Luke, Sloane and Grayson. Predeceased by her parents, Charles and Marie Evans; sisters Margaret (Margie) Thompson and Joan (Bunny) O'Malley; and brother Charles Evans.

Marie, known for her love of fashion, enjoyed working for many years in bridal and women's retail. She enjoyed helping others look beautiful and was known by her family and friends as the best-dressed woman around!

She was very proud of her family and her greatest accomplishment was having eight beautiful great-grandchildren. As she would want, Marie went to heaven wearing her leopard, hair styled just right, and high heels ready for her! Her beauty will continue to shine in "her little ones" as she watches them all grow from the best seat there is.

Relatives and friends celebrated her life during the visitation in St. Mary's Church, Gloucester City, followed by her Mass of Christian Burial. Interment will be private in Brig. Gen. William C. Doyle Veterans Cemetery, Arnetown.

Funeral arrangements entrusted to the McCann-Healey Funeral Home, 851 Monmouth St., Gloucester City.

Michelle M. Hess (Jan. 20th)

Michelle (Azzante) Hess, 55, of Runnemede, passed away unexpectedly on January 10, 2022, after complications associated with COVID-19.

Michelle is survived by her mother Mary; husband Brian; son Justin; daughter Erinn; and daughter-in-law Samantha. She leaves behind four grandchildren, Jaxson, 9, Rori, 7, Keira, 2, and Levi, 10 months, all of whom she adored greatly. She is predeceased by her loving brother, Philip A Azzante.

Michelle was born on July 29, 1966, and was raised in Mantua, where she graduated from Clearview High School in 1985. On Feb. 16, 1985, she married Brian, a U.S. Navy sailor and her high school sweetheart.

She would later go on to work as a multi skills technician for West Jersey hospital Camden for a number of years before an early retirement. Michelle was a devoted wife, loving mother and caring Nonna, who enjoyed sharing her passion of Flyers hockey with everyone. She loved to travel when possible, and just last year completed a road-trip across America where she saw her bucket list sites Sedona and the Grand Canyon. She will be deeply missed by her family and friends and all who knew her.

Friends and relatives celebrated her life during the visitation and Memorial Service at the Gardner Funeral Home, 126 S. Black Horse Pike, Runnemede.

In lieu of flowers donations may be made to Lupus Foundation of America, 2000 L. Street NW, Suite 410, Washington, DC 20036 (www.lupus.org)

Peter P. Braun Jr. (Jan. 20th)

Peter P. Bruan Jr., 31, passed away on January 9, 2022, from injuries sustained from a tragic automobile accident on September 23, 2003.

Born in Elizabeth, he was the son of the late Peter P. Braun, Sr. and Mary Anne E. Jackowsky. Peter is survived by his loving mother, Mary Anne Jackowsky, his brother, Brandon Braun, and his niece, Karina Braun.

Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated at St. Mary's Church, Salem. The visitation was in the Adams Funeral Home, Woodstown. Interment was private.

Funeral arrangements entrusted to the McCann-Healey Funeral Home, 851 Monmouth St., Gloucester City.

Sarah E. Buete (Jan. 20th)

Sarah E. Buete, 87, of Mount Ephraim, passed away peacefully on January 8, 2022, surrounded by her loving family.

She was born to the late Salvatore and Marie (nee DeChristy) Beebe in Camden. A devout Catholic, Sarah was a faithful member of Sacred Heart Church until its closing, and then was a member of St. Joachim Parish.

She always took care of others and was loved by many. Sarah was a great mother and grandmother. She was often referred to as "the sweetest lady," Sarah will be deeply missed.

Sarah is predeceased by her beloved husband, Leslie D. Buete; son, Steven Buete; and sister, Mary Eisenberg. She is survived by her son, Les Buete; grandchildren, Bridget Buete, Les Buete (Savannah), Alysha Simpkins (Cody), and Christopher Buete (Christina); nine great grandchildren; brother, Thomas Beebe (Barbara); and many loving nieces and nephews.

Relatives and friends attended her visitation and Mass of Christian Burial in Annunciation Church, Bellmawr. Interment was at New St. Mary's Cemetery in Bellmawr.

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations can be made to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital by visiting stjude.org.

Vernon J. Coultas Jr. (Jan. 20th)

Vernon J. "Big Vern" Coultas Jr., 44, of Gloucester City passed away on January 8, 2022.

Loving father of Lacey Coultas (Maddie DelRossi), Colin Coultas (Trinity Booth), and Wesley Coultas (Amber Strike); beloved son of Charles and Robin (Dilks) Harris. He is also survived by his grandson, Joshua Coultas; grandmother, Betty Dilks and the late Robert Dilks; brother, Charles Harris III (Jessica Ferry); sister, Deeanna Harris-Romeo and many nieces and nephews.

Relatives and friends celebrated his life during Vernon's visitation and Funeral Service at the McCann-Healey Funeral Home, 851 Monmouth St., Gloucester City. Interment will be held at a later date.

Family requests memorial donations in Vernon's name to: Mission Teens, 102 Eppinger & Gershal Avenue, Norma, NJ 08347. Please write in memo: In memory of Vernon J. Coultas Jr.

Florence R. Greeley (Jan. 27th)

Florence R. Greeley (nee Barrett), 102, formerly of Westville, passed away on January 17, 2022.

Beloved wife of the late John P. Greeley. Devoted mother of Walter Bednarczyk (the late Doris), Adam Bednarczyk (the late Virginia), April DiRocco (Joe), and Denise Goss (Jim) and stepmother of Patricia Greely and the late Howard Greeley. Loving grandmother of Tracy Bilski, John P. Bednarczyk, Heather McIntyre, Angela Panaro, Denise Perkins, the late Steven Bednarczyk and Michael Gibbons, and great grandmother of Sofia, Nicholas, Vincent, Hank, Jocelyn, Eric, Makayla, and Jayden. Dear sister of the late Mary Cowdrick, Ruth Kurtz, Frank Barrett and Herb Barrett. Also survived by many nieces and nephews.

Florence enjoyed dancing and traveling with her friends. During WWII, Florence was a Civil Defense Air Raid Warden to make sure everyone was safe in the neighborhood. She was also the former President of DRIVE for Teamsters Local 676.

Friends and relatives celebrated her life during the viewing and Funeral Service in the Gardner Funeral Home, 126 S. Black Horse Pike, Runnemede. Interment was private at the request of the family.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in Florence's memory to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital 501 St. Jude Place, Memphis, TN 38105 (www.stjude.org).

Frank L. Caratola (Jan. 27th)

Frank L. Caratola, 96, of Bellmawr, formerly of Camden, passed away on January 13, 2022.

Beloved husband of the late Jeannette (nee Salvatore). Devoted father of Dean (Judy) and Denise (Tim). Loving grandfather of Salvatore (Christina), Jennifer (James), Mariessa (Evan), and Tim Jr. Dear uncle of Jim Spinelli (Eleanor) and Ginger Catarina.

Frank was an avid photographer and won a few awards for his photos. He was a carpenter by trade, and loved helping his kids with projects around their homes. Frank proudly served in the US Navy during World War II on D-Day, and would share harrowing stories about his service.

Friends and relatives attended his viewing in Annunciation BVM Church, Bellmawr, followed by the celebration of his Funeral Mass. Interment was in New St. Mary's Cemetery, Bellmawr.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in Frank's memory to the Corporal Michael J. Crescenz, VA Medical Center, 3900 Woodland Avenue, Voluntary Service, Sixth Floor, Room A637, Philadelphia, PA 19104.

Funeral arrangements entrusted to the Gardner Funeral Home, 126 S. Black Horse Pike, Runnemede.

Helena Cirullo (Jan. 27th)

Helena Cirullo (nee Stolarz), 100, of Runnemede passed away peacefully on January 16, 2022.

Born in Poland, she was the daughter of Jan Stolarz and Bronisława (nee Hotys). Beloved wife of the late Dominick Cirullo.

Loving mother of Jadwiga Dawidowicz and her husband Mitrofan, Danuta Michalczyk and Elżbieta Zdunek both of Poland. Proud Babci of 12 grandchildren and many great grandchildren. She was predeceased by her son, Wiesław Zdunek.

Relatives and friends attended her Life Celebration and Funeral Service at the Ciechanowski Funeral Home.

Interment was in St. Joseph's Cemetery, Blackwood.

Margaret F. Donahue (Jan. 27th)

Margaret F. “Maggie” Donahue, 56, of Gloucester City passed away on January 14, 2022.

Born in Camden, she was the daughter of the late Raymond C. Hagan and Myrtle J. (Marks) Donahue. Maggie is survived by her beloved partner of 30 years, Alton Baker; loving children, Marie, Ray, Paul, Brittany, Justin, Holly and Cheryl; five step-children, Robert, Alton L., Michael, Kelly and Laura; 28 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. She was also predeceased by her son, John.

Relatives and friends celebrated Maggie’s life during the visitation and Funeral Service at the McCann-Healey Funeral Home, 851 Monmouth St., Gloucester City. Interment will be held at a later date.

Condolences and Memories may be shared at www.mccannhealey.com under the obituary of Margaret F. Donahue.

Rose A. Wileczek (Jan. 27th)

Surrounded by her loving family, Rose Anna Wileczek (nee Barnes), 84, passed away peacefully on January 18, 2022.

Born in the Fairmount section of Philadelphia, she was the daughter of the late Margaret and James Barnes. The youngest of four children, Rose was predeceased by her siblings Ellen, James, and Catherine Barnes.

Loving wife of 61 years to Leonard J. Wileczek. Loving mother to her daughters Kathleen (Dan), Teresa (Joseph), Diane (Jerry), and Arlene (Tony), and her late sons, Percival and Donald Hassinger. Cherished grandmother of 15 and great-grandmother of nine.

Rose was a caring woman with a wonderful sense of humor. She was known for her smile, infectious laugh and one-liners. When she wasn’t enjoying Twizzlers, she loved spending time with all her children and grandchildren. She was an avid Mummens fan and loved her Irish heritage.

Relatives and friends attended her visitation at St. Mary’s Church, Gloucester City, where the Funeral Liturgy was celebrated. Interment was private.

In lieu of flowers, contributions can be made to the Alzheimer’s Association online at alz.org in memory of Rose A. Wileczek.

Condolences and memories may be shared at www.mccannhealey.com under the obituary of Rose A. Wileczek. Funeral arrangements entrusted to the McCann-Healey Funeral Home, 851 Monmouth St., Gloucester City.

Sarah Ann Martino (Jan. 27th)

Gloucester City News longtime reporter

Sarah Ann “Sally” Martino (nee Corsey), 83, of Westville, passed away on January 19, 2022. Sally was born in Philadelphia and has resided in Westville since 1967. She worked for the Gloucester County WIC for many years, and she was a reporter for the Gloucester City News for more than 40 years, covering Gloucester City, Westville and Brooklawn.

She started covering the towns under the late publisher, George Cleary, and then for his son, Bill Cleary. Sarah was an excellent writer and reporter, and never missed a deadline. She will be missed by everyone who has worked at the newspaper.

Sally was a member of the Gloucester County Federation of Republican Women, Gloucester County GOP, Gloucester County Executive Committee for Westville, Westville Republican Club, and the Westville Independent Fire Company Ladies Auxiliary.

Sarah was predeceased by her parents William & Elizabeth Kelly Corsey; husbands Earnest Louis Martino Sr. and Andre Armbruster; her brothers Robert and William Corsey and her sons-in-law Jack Dechen and Chris Donoflio. She is survived by her children Ernest L. (Karen) Martino Jr. of Mantua, Theresa “Terry” (Ron) Kane of Medford Lakes, Daniel (Mendi) Martino of South Texas, Rachael Dechen of West Deptford and Kathleen (Steve) Donoflio-Davis of South Delaware; stepdaughter Marcella (Frank) Albero; grandchildren Shannon, Shawn, Gina, Kinsey, Kaitlin, Will, Marco, Tommy, Vincent & Giovanna; step-grandchildren Michael and Marc; great grandchildren Thomas, Talan, Zaylee, Zaryah, Kellan, Stanley, Jaxson and McCrae; step-great grandchildren Mikey, Jeanine, Chris and Adam, and many cousins, nieces, nephews, and extended family.

Friends and relatives celebrated her life during the visitation and Funeral Service at the Davis & Wagner Funeral Home, Woodbury. Interment was in Woodbury Memorial Park.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to St. Jude Children’s Hospital at stjude.org or Eagles Autism Challenge, Team A-Bomb for Adam, at eaglesautismchallenge.org.

Sharon L. Sylvester (Jan. 27th)

Sharon L. Sylvester, 60, of Mt Ephraim, passed away on Tuesday, January 18, 2022, at her home.

She was born in Camden, NJ in 1961 to Rita (Crawley) and the late James Sylvester. Sharon was a seamstress for Beltor Manufacturing in Berlin, and was one, to always live life to the fullest.

Sharon is predeceased by her father, James, and her brother, Jim Sylvester, a firefighter who gave his life trying to save three young girls. Sharon leaves behind to cherish her memory her son, Jesse Sylvester; mother, Rita Sylvester; brother, Mike Sylvester (Kathi Helvitson); sisters, Karen Sylvester, and Cheryl (Larry Buckingham); sister in law, Marilyn Sylvester; grandchildren, Natalie and Addison Sylvester; and many loving nieces and nephews.

Friends and relatives celebrated her life during a visitation and Memorial Service Jan. 26 at the Mahaffey-Milano Funeral Home, 11 E. Kings Highway, Mount Ephraim.

The family requests that to honor Sharon, a simple act of planting a flower or blowing some bubbles would go a long way to please her.