

Gloucester City News Obituaries

November 2024

To see the obituaries in context on the newspaper page and to see any photos included, please ask to see the back issues, which may be in paper or microfilm format.

Donald Allison (Nov. 7th)

Donald Henry Allison, 83, of Gloucester City passed away on October 27, 2024 at Samaritan Inpatient Hospice, Voorhees.

Born in Camden, he was a longtime resident of Gloucester City and relished his walks around town, wearing his wool cap and padded denim jacket when it was cold. He was generous and always had a few dollars for locals in need.

Don proudly served in the U.S. Army and made his career working for the Camden County Surrogates Office in Camden City.

He is survived by his children Kelly Callaway (Richard), Tracy Weldon (Jerry) and Donald Allison III; his partner, Tina; and his mother, Irene. Don is the proud grandfather of Kayla, Tyler, Brittany, Justin, Peyton, Don, Colby and the late Jersey. He is the brother of and predeceased by the late William Allison, Francis Allison and Donna Allison.

He will be sadly missed by his niece, Dana Allison, and many friends, neighbors and extended family.

James Lannon Sr. (Nov. 7th)

James R. Lannon Sr., 75, of Gloucester City passed away peacefully at home on October 23, 2024.

Jim was a hard-working man with a huge a large heart. He was the life of the party, a friend to all and a master of conversation. Born in Camden and raised in Pennsauken, he was a longtime resident of Gloucester City. Self-employed, he was the proud owner of Eagle Oil, later renamed Eagle Services, for nearly 40 years.

Jim had a deep appreciation for travel, history and science fiction, and was a member of the C4 Corvette Club. He is survived by his loving and doting wife, Anna May Lannon (nee Beck); his children, Heather Lannon, Amber Lannon, Damie Jay Conner (Brian), Harrum Battaloni (Brett), and James Lannon Jr. (Jessica Cobb); his stepchildren, Joanna Silvestro (nee Murphy) and David Murphy (Helena Suazo); his grandchildren, Shane, Alanna, Sara Lena, Kevin, Michael, Christian, Nicholas, Lily, Autumn, Summer and Jenna; and his great-grandchildren, Preston Jr. Angel Baby Gabriel, Sevanna Sue and Semara Rose.

He was predeceased by his son, Damon Ray Lannon; his parents, Raymond and Bertha Lannon; his siblings, Raymond Lannon, Joyce Warwick, Robert Lannon and Mary Gleeson; and his mother-in-law, Anna May Beck (nee Riley).

Friends and relatives celebrated his life during his Remembrance Ceremony at the Etherington & Creran Funeral Home, Gloucester City.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations to the St. Jude's Children's Research Hospital.

Mary Ann Dunbar (Nov. 7th)

Mary Ann Dunbar, 89, of West Deptford, formerly of Fort Myers Beach, FL, went to be with God on October 25, 2024.

She is now reunited with her soulmate and husband whom she has dearly missed since his passing in 2016, William Dunbar, and her loving son, Arthur Dunbar, who departed this earthly realm in 2018. Left to cherish her memory are her beloved daughter, Margie and endearing son, Billy (June); and treasured grandchildren Molly Stager, Diana Urbani, Caitlin (Eric) Dunbar, and Tommy (Erica) Stager, and great-grandson, Thomas Stager III. Also surviving Mary Ann are her dear sisters Margaret Shanosky (Don), Johanna Seybold, Geraldine Bushby (Skip) and Sharon Connolly (Jack); along with her bonus sister, Joanie Buenzle, her bonus grandchildren Colleen Rafferty (Kevin) and Jack Connolly (Lisa) and many more precious nieces/nephews, grand and great nieces/nephews, cousins and longstanding friends.

Mary Ann was born in 1935 in Mount Ephraim, NJ to her revered parents, Arthur and Margaret Poponi. Graduating Haddonfield Memorial High School in 1953, she attended Rutgers University and Camden County College, later working at Owens-Corning Fiberglass as a personal secretary. Mary Ann started, owned and operated PDQ Dial and Dictate for 23 years.

She and her husband moved to Fort Myers Beach in 2002 from their residence in Hilltop, where she and Bill raised their children. Mary Ann was active in Girl Scouts of America and Gloucester Township Midget Football Association. Both Mary Ann and Bill were active members at St. Agnes Church in Blackwood, NJ and Church of Ascension in Fort Myers Beach, FL.

For most of adult life, she was an avid collector of antique Christmas treasures, especially figural ornaments, traveling to estate sales, auctions and attending many Golden Glow of Christmas Past conventions throughout the country.

Relatives and friends attended her viewing in the Gardner Funeral Home, 126 S. Black Horse Pike, Runnemede, where her Funeral Service was celebrated. Interment was at St. Joseph's Cemetery, 240 Lower Landing Rd., Blackwood.

Paula Ruggieri (Nov. 7th)

Paula Corso-Ruggieri, 88, originally from South Philadelphia and spent the greater part of her life in Glendora, passed away on October 9, 2024.

She is survived by her four loving children, Louise Root, Judy Ruggieri (Fred), Laura Fiorentino (Jeffrey) and Vince Ruggieri (Candy); her grandchildren, Daniel, Anthony (Kate), Sydney (Nick), Nicholas (Hollie) and Eric (Elizabeth); her great-grandchildren, Kayla, Skylar, James, Emma, Ellie and Ean; and her great-great grandchildren, Marlana, Maci, Alisha and Naomi.

Paula was an active member of the Glendora Fire Hall Ladies Auxiliary for many years, and also worked as an expert seamstress and Bridal consultant. Her talents were many, our favorite being the creation of the fun and outstanding Halloween costumes she made for her grandchildren.

She loved gardening, cooking and sharing all her food with family and friends, but her love and devotion to her children and grandchildren was her biggest love of all. Paula was smart, kind, generous and an amazing woman who will be deeply missed.

Relatives and friends attended her Graveside Service at St. Joseph's Cemetery, Blackwood. Donations may be made in Paula's memory to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital, 501 St. Jude Place, Memphis, TN 38105 www.stjude.org.

Funeral arrangements entrusted to the Gardner Funeral Home, 126 S. Black Horse Pike, Runnemede.

Beverly Jean Muratore (Nov. 14th)

In the loving care of her son and daughter, Beverly Jean Muratore (nee Sooy), 78, passed peacefully at home on November 1, 2024.

Jean was predeceased by her loving and devoted husband of 49 years, Frank J. Muratore Jr. She is survived by her son, Frank J. Muratore III, and her daughter, Veronica Muratore; grandchildren Ashley Salvatori, Dennis T. Brinn (Danielle) and Mark Simmons (Emily Crane); great grandsons, Mark Simmons Jr., Anthony Simmons, Torian Hart, Jaxson Simmons and Miles Brinn.

One of six children to late Norman and Marie Sooy, Jean is survived by her brother, Norman F. Sooy Jr., and her sister, Elaine Sooy Goodman. She is predeceased by her sister, Patricia Sooy Anthony, and brothers, David Sooy and Ronald Sooy.

Jean was born and raised in the Cramer Hill section of Camden, and was a longtime resident of Williamstown. Along with her husband Frank and their family, they spent nearly 20 years caring for, training and racing thoroughbreds out of their farm on Herbert Blvd. in Monroe Twp, while Jean enrolled in college as a young mom of two.

After receiving her bachelor's degree in nursing, Jean had a long and rewarding career as a registered nurse for Kennedy Hospital in Stratford. Jean loved spending time with her family more than anything. Holidays were always important to her. She was an amazing cook, inspired most by her "favorite mother-in-law" Edith Muratore.

Traveling with Frank to Florida, Bermuda, the Caribbean Islands and multiple trips to Italy were amongst the best times of her life. Times spent with her two sisters and three brothers were also treasured moments in Jean's life. Family always came first with Jean and all of the grandchildren and great grandchildren were her most special gifts that brought her joy. She always saw the best in everyone and loved unconditionally.

At Jean's request, burial will be private in St. Mary's Cemetery, Williamstown. Her family and friends will gather to celebrate her life at a private memorial.

Please remember Jean with a donation in her memory to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital online at www.stjude.org/donate/. Please memo, Beverly Jean Muratore.

Condolences and memories may be shared at www.mccannhealey.com. Funeral arrangements entrusted to the McCann-Healey Funeral Home, 851 Monmouth St., Gloucester City.

Daniel Kiley (Nov. 14th)

Daniel W. Kiley, 56, of Gloucester City, formerly of the Fairview section of Camden City, passed away.

Loving son of the late Joseph Kiley Sr. and Katherine Kiley (nee Redman). Cherished brother of Joseph Kiley Jr. and Donna Roth (nee Kiley). Devoted uncle of Edward, Robert and Jacob. Beloved nephew of Helene Danenhower. Dear cousin of Daniel Kim Kiley, Bobby Danenhower and Mary Danenhower. Also survived by his brother-in-law Bryan, brother-in-law Eddie, sister-in-law Dottie and mother-in-law Dorothy.

Daniel was born in Philadelphia and was a graduate of Camden County Vocational Technical School in Gloucester Township. He was a longtime resident of Gloucester City. Daniel enjoyed fishing, playing video games and collecting NASCAR memorabilia.

At the request of Daniel's family, cremation was private and there are no services.

Condolences and memories may be shared at www.mccannhealey.com. Funeral arrangements entrusted to the McCann-Healey Funeral Home, 851 Monmouth St., Gloucester City.

Deniece Outin (Nov. 14th)

Deniece M. Outin, 84, of Voorhees, formerly of Marlton, passed peacefully on October 31, 2024.

She was predeceased by her husband, Carl Outin; her parents, Dennis and Adain McCowan; as well as her siblings, Joseph McCowan, Lewis McCowan and Burnestein Frazier. She is survived by her children, Sharon Smith and Carl Talib Outin; her grandson, Kevin Anthony James, Jr; her great-grandchildren, Khyasia, Kamari, Keyon, Kaliyah and Kariyah; and her nephews, Marlow, Derrick, Arnold and Alan.

Deniece was born in Philadelphia to Dennis and Adain McCowan. She received her bachelor's degree in business administration from Rutgers University, New Brunswick. Deniece had a successful career as a real estate agent for ReMax in Mt. Laurel and was member of the Million Dollars Sellers Club.

Relatives and friends attended Graveside Service at 11 a.m. in Locustwood Memorial Park, Cherry Hill. Condolences and memories may be shared at www.mccannhealey.com. Funeral arrangements entrusted to the McCann-Healey Funeral Home, 851 Monmouth St., Gloucester City.

Dorothy C. MacLennan (Jacob) (Nov. 14th)

It is with great sadness that we convey the passing of Dorothy C. MacLennan (Jacob) on November 3, 2024, at the age of 91.

Dorothy was the daughter and the “baby of the family” of the late Frank and Anna Pryzwara. Beloved wife of the late John H. MacLennan Sr. and the late George A. Jacob. Loving and devoted mother of George J. Jacob and Kathryn of Stone Harbor and the late Joseph Jacob. Devoted stepmother of the late John H. MacLennan Jr. and his wife Bonnie of Atlanta, GA, and Jane R. Schwartz and her husband Michael of Fenwick Island, DE. She will forever be the loving grandmother of George A. Jacob II (her caretaker) of Gloucester Heights, Anna Weaver (Frank) of Horsham, PA, Kari MacLennan Gorski (David) of Chula Vista, CA, Jaclyn Rash (John) of Rising Sun, MD and Rachel Code (Douglas) of Kalamazoo, MI. Dorothy is also survived by six great-grandchildren; Shawn Weaver, Lillian and Hunter Gorski, Brody and Carlee Rash and Adrian Code. She will forever love and cherish all of her nieces, nephews and their families along with many friends and without question, before all else, God.

Dorothy was predeceased by her siblings, Adolph (Cecelia) Pryzwara, Jessie (Al) Gryniewicz, Edward (AnnaRose) Pryzwara, Joseph (Patricia) Pryzwara and Lillian (Emilio John) Villanova, who was also her best friend.

Dorothy was a lifelong resident of Gloucester Heights and a 1951 graduate of Gloucester High School. She was a member of the Reunion and Sunshine Committee for the class. She was also a parishioner of Saint Mary’s Church in Gloucester City.

For 38 years, she worked for RCA in Camden and Cherry Hil as a Senior Accountant. After retiring from RCA, she worked part-time at Macy’s in Cherry Hill, NJ. Dorothy loved gardening, spending time with her family and summers at the shore with her son and family. She will be dearly missed by many.

Relatives and friends are invited to her viewing Wednesday morning, Nov. 13 in the McCann-Healey Funeral Home, 851 Monmouth St., Gloucester City. Mass of Christian Burial 11:30 AM at St. Mary’s Church, 426 Monmouth Street, Gloucester City. Interment will follow in New St. Mary’s Cemetery, Bellmawr.

In lieu of flowers, please remember Dorothy with a donation to Msgr. Lucitt’s Needy Children’s Fund, PO Box 87, Gloucester City, NJ 08030 or a donation to a charity of one’s choice. Please memo, Dorothy C. MacLennan.

Condolences and memories may be shared at www.mccannhealey.com.

James Schaeffer Sr. (Nov. 14th)

James E. Schaeffer Sr., 91, passed away on November 1, 2024.

Born in Gloucester City, he was the son of the late George W. Schaeffer, Sr. and Mary (nee Hunt) Schaeffer. He was predeceased by his second wife, Philomena A., and is survived by his first wife, Barbara Joan. James is survived by his children, James E. Schaeffer Jr., Barbara A. Wilson and Joseph Schaeffer.

James proudly served his country in the U.S. Army during the Korean War. He later worked as a die cutter with Magnetic Metals in Camden. James was a longtime member of the American Legion Post 135 in Gloucester City, where he had served as Senior Vice Commander.

Honoring his wishes there will be no services at this time.

Condolences and memories may be shared at www.mccannhealey.com. Funeral arrangements entrusted to the McCann-Healey Funeral Home, 851 Monmouth St., Gloucester City.

Patricia Malinowski (Nov. 14th)

Patricia L. Malinowski (nee Glover), 78, of Gloucester Township, formerly of West Collingwood, passed away on November 1, 2024.

Cherished wife of 46 years to the late Mitchell F. Malinowski. Devoted mother of Mitchell S. (Robbin) Malinowski and the late Michael F. Malinowski. Adored grandmother of Olivia and Matthew. Beloved sister of Lynda Kamman, John (Patti) Glover, Edward Glover, Bonnie Keizer, Mary (late Fred) Pierson and Theresa (John) Hutchinson. She is predeceased by her father, George W. (Kate) Glover, her mother, Annamae Boyle (nee Watson) and her brother, George (Violet) Glover. Survived by many nieces, nephews and cousins.

Patricia was known to all as “Aunt Pat” and was born in Woodbury, raised in National Park and later moved to Camden. She was a longtime bookkeeper for her husband, Mitchell’s business, Delaware Valley Body Works in West Collingswood.

Family was most important to Aunt Pat and she was a loving and generous caregiver to many families and friends for many years. She was also the number one fan for her grandchildren, Olivia and Matthew, at sporting events.

Relatives and friends attended her viewing in the McCann-Healey Funeral Home, 851 Monmouth St., Gloucester City, where her Catholic Service was celebrated. Interment was with her late husband in Eglington Cemetery, Clarksboro.

Family requests memorial donations in Pat’s name to Children’s Hospital of Philadelphia: www.give2.chop.edu or P.O. Box 781352, Philadelphia, PA 19178 – 1352. Please write in memo: Patricia L. Malinowski.

Condolences and memories may be shared at www.mccannhealey.com.

Patricia Piccone (Nov. 14th)

Patricia M. Piccone (nee Unger), 94, passed peacefully at Elmwood Hills in Gloucester Township on October 25, 2024.

Loving mother of Donna P. Marthins (Randy), Joel F. Piccone (Kelly) and Mark E. Piccone (Kimberly). Cherished grandmother of Ryan Piccone (Bridget), Kira McDonald (Donovan), Zach Piccone, Mariel Marthins, Evan Piccone and Sophia Piccone. Pat was predeceased by her parents, Joseph and Patricia Unger, and her brother, Vincent Unger (late Margaret).

Patricia was born in New York, New York and lived in Southern California for 20 years. She was a parishioner of St. Simon Stock Parish in Berlin, NJ. Patricia had an appetite for adventure as we would witness in her witty and never-ending storytelling. Patricia was always happy to use her voice to paint fascinating details of her life with equally interesting anecdotes. Patricia spent much of her free time in charge of Chula Vista's Writers panel, where she met her cherished friend, Victoria Holley who shared her love of writing as well.

When we think of Patricia, we picture a one-of-a-kind woman with a huge smile ready to fondly greet her friends and family. She loved to sing, and chose to sing only the songs which would embarrass her kids forever. She loved Broadway musicals, and her favorite was West Side Story where her city of New York was its own character. Her legacy lives on through her kaleidoscope of characters, and cavalcade of wonderful tales which only she could curate.

We will miss her chats, her pastiches of wisdom, but most of all we will miss seeing her and experiencing her contagious zest for life, and exceptional sense of humor.

Relatives and friends are invited to her visitation on Saturday, Nov. 16, from 10 to 11 a.m. at St. Simon Stock Parish, 178, W White Horse Pike, Berlin, NJ 08009, where her Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated at 11 AM. Interment will be private.

Condolences and memories may be shared at www.mccannhealey.com. Funeral arrangements entrusted to the McCann-Healey Funeral Home, 851 Monmouth St., Gloucester City.

Robert Moser (Nov. 14th)

Robert Moser, 62, of West Collingswood passed away on November 1, 2024.

Raised in Collingswood, Bob graduated from Collingswood High School where he was a member of the Athletic Hall of Fame. Bob worked as a superintendent for C&C Construction Management, Inc. in addition to owning R&T Management Services, LLC with his wife. Bob was a family man and a big Eagles fan and season ticket holder.

Bob is predeceased by his mother, Eleanor Melfi, and his brother, Chuck Moser. He is lovingly survived by his wife of 33 years, Theresa (nee Trout); his three children, Brian (Colleen), Jodi and Mark; his granddaughter, Camille; his brother, John Melfi (Kylene) as well as loving in-laws, nieces, nephews and a host of longtime friends.

Relatives and friends attended his Visitation in the Healey Funeral Home, Haddon Heights, where his Funeral Service was celebrated. Interment was at New St. Mary's Cemetery, Bellmawr.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in his name to Penn Medicine Abramson Cancer Center, 3535 Market St., Suite 750, Philadelphia, PA 19104. Make checks payable to "Trustees of the University of Pennsylvania."

John Rutan (Nov. 28th)

John Allan Rutan, 76, of Gloucester City passed away on November 12, 2024.

Born in Baltimore, MD, he was the son of the late Frank Richard and Margaret Ann (Styne) Rutan.

John is survived by his beloved wife of 53 years, Genevieve (Sooy) Rutan; loving children, Nicole Rutan and John H. Rutan (Catherine); cherished grandchildren, Marissa, Nathan, Tonya, Kayla and Amanda and four great grandchildren.

John worked as an electrician for many years before finding his passion selling antiques and yard sale items at the Berlin and Columbus Farmers Markets. He loved playing pool and played in leagues at the I.C.A.C. Club in Gloucester City and the Hideaway Bar in Brooklawn.

Honoring John's wishes, cremation was private and there will be no services at this time.

Condolences and memories may be shared at www.mccannhealey.com. Funeral arrangements entrusted to the McCann-Healey Funeral Home, 851 Monmouth St., Gloucester City.

Michael DePoder (Nov. 28th)

Michael DePoder, 67, of Gloucester City, formerly of South Camden, passed away on November 11, 2024.

Born in Camden, he was the son of the late Carlos and Dora (nee Campenese) DePoder. He was also predeceased by his brother, Carlos DePoder. Michael is survived by his loving brother, Rocco DePoder; devoted nephews, Rocco (Jen), Carl (Jill), Michael (Martine) and Giovanni; his beloved nieces, Carla (Tony) and Mona, many cousins and a dear friend, Janet.

Honoring Michael's wishes, cremation and services are private.

Condolences and memories may be shared at www.mccannhealey.com under the obituary of Michael DePoder. Funeral arrangements entrusted to the McCann-Healey Funeral Home, 851 Monmouth St., Gloucester City.

Michael Nolan (Nov. 28th)

Michael Joseph Nolan, 61, of Tacoma, Washington, formerly of Gloucester City, passed away on November 17, 2024.

Loving father of Justin M. Nolan (Donna – Mother). Devoted step-father of Rebecca Alvord. Beloved son of the late John F. Nolan Sr. and Kathryn Mary Nolan (nee Bennett). In the loving care of his devoted siblings: Jo Ann (Bill) Lenover, Pat (Larry) Eggert, John (Leslie) Nolan Jr., Kate (Jimmy) Rusk, Joseph (Kim) Nolan and the late Bernice Nolan.

He was the cherished uncle to four nieces, five nephews, seven great-nieces, nine great-nephews and many cousins. Dear nephew of Theresa (late Thomas) Nolan and Ruth (late Mike) Nolan.

Michael was born in Woodbury and raised in Gloucester City. He attended St. Mary's Grammar School in Gloucester City from 1st grade to 8th grade and graduated in 1977.

Michael received his Baptism, First Holy Communion and Confirmation in St. Mary's Church in Gloucester City. He was a graduate of Gloucester Catholic High School in 1981. Upon graduation from Glassboro State (Rowan) in 1985, Michael started working in his dad's fundraising business. This led to opportunities to continue in the fundraising business in Maryland and eventually in Tacoma.

Michael was a loving and devoted father. He was a friend of everyone and his closest friends to this day started with him at St. Mary's Grammar School and continued to Gloucester Catholic High School. Michael had a strong bond with his family especially the Bennett's, Nolan's, Sampson's and Rafferty's aunts, uncles and cousins.

Relatives and friends attended his visitation in Saint Mary's Church, where his Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated 11 am in church. Interment with his late parents and sister, Bernice, was in New Saint Mary's Cemetery, Bellmawr.

Family requests memorial donations in Michael's name to Gloucester Catholic High School: 333 Ridgeway Street, Gloucester City, NJ 08030. Please write in memo: Michael Joseph Nolan or the American Cancer Society: P.O. Box 6704, Hagerstown, MD 21741. Please write in memo: Michael Joseph Nolan.

Condolences and memories may be shared at www.mccannhealey.com. Funeral arrangements entrusted to the McCann-Healey Funeral Home, 851 Monmouth St., Gloucester City.

Theresa Ann Hutchinson (Nov. 28th)

Surrounded by her loving family, Theresa Ann Hutchinson (nee Clark), 72, passed peacefully at Virtua-Our Lady of Lourdes Hospital on November 17, 2024.

She was a lifelong resident of Gloucester City and the loving and devoted wife of John D. Hutchinson. Loving mother of Theresa Ritchie and her husband Robert, Richard Dolson Jr. and his wife Cindy, and was like a second mother to Deana Gallagher and her husband William. Theresa is the beloved and cherished grandmother of Tiffany and Michael Becker, Courtney and Chris Brake, Brittney and Ron Canning, Gabrielle and Katrina Ritchie, Natalie Ritchie, Melissa Ritchie, Christopher Dolson, Bernard Dolson and Justice Dolson. Great-grandmother of Bryce Becker, Cole Becker, Ronny Canning, Emma Canning, Jaxson Canning and Baby Brake on the way! Loving sister of Mary Pierson, Lynda Kamman, David Glover and Edward Glover Predeceased by her parents, Catherine and George Glover, her grandparents, Catherine and Grover Virden, her brother George Glover Jr. and her sister, Patricia Malinowski.

Theresa was a graduate of Gloucester High School Class of 1970. Over the years, she worked many jobs, but was most proud of being a medical assistant instructor for Cooper Hospital as well as a travel agent consultant for All Destinations Travel.

She was a longtime member of the Sportsmen AC Ladies Auxiliary, the Townsend C. Young VFW Post 3620 Ladies Auxiliary, Gloucester City Democrat Club and the Gloucester City Lakes Association, where she was part of team that brought back the fishing derby. She loved trips to the shore and to the casinos, was an avid fan of the Phillies and Eagles but most importantly, she loved being surrounded by her family, especially all her “Behearts.” Theresa will be forever remembered for her love to her family and the compassion she showed toward others.

Relatives and friends attended her viewings at the McCann-Healey on Nov. 20 at the McCann-Healey Funeral Home, 851 Monmouth St., Gloucester City, and on Nov. 21 in St. Mary’s Church, Gloucester City, where her Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated. Interment was in the Eglington Cemetery, Clarksboro.

In lieu of flowers, please remember Theresa with a donation to Msgr. Lucitt’s Needy Children’s Fund, PO Box 87, Gloucester City, NJ 08030 Please memo, Theresa Ann Hutchinson.

Condolences and memories may be shared at www.mccannhealey.com.