Catherine C. Loux (Dec. 1st)

Catherine C. Loux (nee Giambrone), 88, of Bellmawr passed away on November 19, 2022.

Beloved wife of the late Al Loux. Devoted mother to Linda Broadbent (Randy), Charles “Tommy” Ryan (Sharelle), and Maria Radke (the late Scott). Loving grandmother of Danielle (JR), Charles (Stephanie), Tracy (Kenny), Lisa, Cory, Tyler, and Tiffani “Belle” (Marquise). Cherished great-grandmother of Joseph, Rocco, Haleigh, Zoeigh, Reagan, A-lexeigh, Oakleigh, Marlei, and Carter.

Catherine is also survived by her cat Chloe and many nieces and nephews. Catherine loved cooking and her dishes will be missed.

Interment was private at the request of the family.

Charles M. Keenan Jr. (Dec. 1st)

Charles Maurice Keenan Jr., 85, passed peacefully on November 19, 2022.

He was born on February 9, 1937 in Philadelphia to Charles M. Keenan, Sr. and Mary Keenan (nee Humble). He grew up in Fairmont Park, Philadelphia, and later lived in Gloucester City.

Charles was predeceased by his wife, Elizabeth Keenan (nee Friedel); granddaughter Charmaine C. Seiverd; son-in-law, Richard W. Seiverd, Sr.; daughter -in-law Audrey Keenan (nee Laxton); brothers, Jack, Ed, Leo, James, Joe, John, Billy, Charles and Franny; sisters, Helen Gismonde, Mary Griffith and Catherine Wilke; and his parents, Charles and Mary Keenan.

Charles is survived by his son, Charles Keenan and his wife, Cynthia; daughters, Janice Seiverd and Stephanie Hevey; grandchildren, Richard W. Seiverd, Jr, Shana and Lee Barnes, Chaz and Rikki Keenan, Meghan and Katelyn Hevey; and great-grandchildren, Giavonna, Joshua, Devin, Kyle, Layla, Mariah, Ashton, Braeden and Jaeden.

Charles worked for the railroad, Railway Express and Cornell in Westville, and was dedicated to his faith and the Church of St Mary's in Gloucester City. Charles was a kind, gentle and giving man who spent most of his time surrounded with family. He loved being around his children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

His favorite hobby was sports and his absolute favorite was football. His favorite teams were Notre Dame and the Philadelphia Eagles. Charles was obsessed with Notre Dame and would later journey to the university with his son and grandson. He fortunate enough to fulfill that dream twice.

He spent most of his later years with his sister Catherine Wilke in Gloucester City, New Jersey – whom he adored. Charles loved to dance in his younger years and spent a lot of time sneaking into bandstand. He also loved the holidays, fishing, crabbing, boating, NASCAR and coffee. His smile and laughter will sadly be missed by all who knew him!

Relatives and friends attended his visitation in the McCann-Healey Funeral Home, 851 Monmouth St., Gloucester City. His Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated in St. Mary's Gloucester City. Interment was in New St. Mary's Cemetery, Bellmawr.

Donations may be made to St. Mary's Church, 420 Monmouth Street, Gloucester City, NJ 08030.

AnnaMarie Smith (Dec. 8th)

AnnaMarie Smith (nee Powell), 95, of Gloucester City passed away on November 22, 2022.

She was loved and surrounded in her home with her family and went to be with her dearly departed husband, Verl R. Smith. AnnaMarie is survived by her daughter, Maryann (Bob) Tomlin; her devoted granddaughter Velann Tomlin; and her great-grandchildren, Luke, Mersadie and Memphis (whom she loved dearly). AnnaMarie considered all of Velann's friends her grandchildren – you know who you are and she loved you all!

AnnaMarie is also survived by her daughter Diane of Starr, SC. Predeceased by her son, John, of Dorothy, and dear friend Robert Miller of Mantua. She will be greatly missed by her best buddy, Bowie Johnson, and confidant, Roseann Michel.

AnnaMarie was born in Camden and was raised in Haddonfield. She moved back to Camden in 1949 and finally made Gloucester City her permanent home in 1964 until her passing. She worked as a special deputy clerk in the registrar of deeds and mortgages for the Camden County Clerk Office in Camden City for 10 years, retiring in 2009. AnnaMarie was a longtime and devoted member Gloucester City Democrat Club and served as vice president.

AnnaMarie was secretary and longtime member of the Gloucester City Board of Health, Camden County Democrat Committee, Gloucester City Democrat Executive Board (1st Ward), Gloucester City Celebrations Committee, Camden County Division for Women, and the New Jersey Federation of Lady Lions. She was one of the founding members of the Heroes to Hero Run and staunch friend and volunteer of Larc School in Bellmawr. Anna Marie was a key communicator for the Gloucester City Public School District, and was a devoted parishioner of Saint Mary's Church in Gloucester City.

Relatives, friends and members of all the organizations that AnnaMarie was so dedicated in serving attended her visitation in Saint Mary's Church, where her Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated. Interment with her late husband, Verl, was in Hillcrest Memorial Park, Hurffville.

Family requests memorial donations in lieu of flowers to the Needy Children's Christmas Fund: P.O. Box 87, Gloucester City, NJ 08030. Please write in memo: AnnaMarie Smith.

Joseph Bramble III (Dec. 8th)

Joseph E. Bramble III naturally manifested an entrepreneurial spirit. He was a tenacious business leader, “gritty” and “matter of fact.” He may have been stubborn, but his generosity exemplified his character. Joe was deeply rooted in his community and humbly committed himself, by rolling up his sleeves and doing whatever he need to do to, “make it work” in Gloucester City.

Firefighters never die, they burn forever in the hearts of those whose lives they have saved. On November 29, 2022, after 87 years, Joe answered his final alarm. “Rest easy Chief, we’ll take it from here.”

Some men see things as they are and say why. Joe had seen things as they were and said why not? Born in Camden and had spent his formative and family years in Gloucester City before retiring to Sicklerville then West Deptford. Joe left school early and made a career working at Food Fair, Pantry Pride and then Thriftway in Brooklawn. He was self-made. Alongside his wife, Joe was the owner and operated Brambles Cold Cuts for over 50 years, on the corner of Somerset and Burlington streets. He was very proud of being one of the oldest, first-generation businesses in Gloucester. Joe had a strong work ethic and work was his hobby. “Poppa Skins” was firm about keeping his corner clear.

A big part of Gloucester Little League, Joe coached and sponsored baseball teams for over 25 years. Mr. Bramble was a longtime member and firefighter with Pine Grove Fire Company for more than 25 years, serving as president and as chief. Under Joe, Pine Grove grew with two additions and Sunday Bingo. He was a wonderful dad who enjoyed playing softball, spending time on his boat and traveling. Work only comes after success in the dictionary. Joe was able to enjoy the fruits of his labors.

Mr. Bramble is the widower of his late wife, Shirley (nee Calhoun), and is the father of Shirley and her late husband Jerry Murphy, Joseph IV and his late wife Patricia, and Anthony and his wife Mary. He is the proud “Pop Pop” of Adam (Candice) Baker, Amanda (Anthony) Cardone, Tiffany (Bob) Glassman, Jerry Murphy (Melissa) Anthony Bramble II (Janicqua), Kimberly (Pat) Plumley, Kaitlyn Virgen (Sal), Brianna Murphy (Andrew), Leanna Bramble, Bethany (Cal) Groome, Julie Bramble (Gio) and Joseph Bramble V; and great grandfather of Brenden, Kyla, Lucas, Arianna, Cameron, Rylie, Caden, Ethan, Bobby, Kylie, Kendra, Ryan, Roman, Julian, and Camila.

Mr. Bramble was predeceased by his sisters, the late, Charlotte Augustino and the late Mary "Aunt Jule" Capasso. He is survived and will be sadly missed by his companion and friend, Elda, as well as his faithful furry friends, Abbey & Daisy.

Relatives, friends, neighbors and firefighters gathered with the Bramble family to share photos and stories in the Etherington & Creran Funeral Homes, 700 Powell St., Gloucester City, followed by a Remembrance Ceremony celebrated by the Rev. Joe Marlin. The graveside tribute and the witness of love's reunion was at Eglington Cemetery, Clarksboro.

George F. Holcomb (Dec. 15th)

George F. Holcomb, 79, of Mantua, formerly of Gloucester City and Philadelphia, passed away on Tuesday, December 6, 2022.

Born and raised in Philadelphia, George settled in Gloucester City where he and his family remained for more than 30 years. While there, George and his wife founded Holcomb Bus Service, which has flourished and grown over the past 40 years.

George proudly served in the U.S. Army during the Vietnam War in Korea. Away from work, George's greatest joy was the time spent with his grandchildren creating memories that will be cherished as his legacy. George will be dearly missed by all who knew and loved him.

George is the beloved husband of Evelyn "Lyn" Holcomb; devoted father of Jackie, George (Cindy) and AJ (Megan) Holcomb; cherished grandfather of Becca, Tyler, Georgia, Reese, Jamison, Logan, Greyson and Kinsley; and dear brother of Mary Ann McDonald, Tom Holcomb, John Holcomb and the late Terry Owens.

Relatives and friends are invited to attend George's viewing on Saturday, December 17, in St. St. Michael's Church, 313 Memorial Ave., Gibbstown, 9 from to 10:45 a.m., where his Funeral Mass will be celebrated at 11 a.m. Interment will be at St. Joseph Cemetery, Chews Landing.

Mother-in-law of Harold Kennedy. Loving grandmom of Krista, Michael, Caitlin, Sadie, Matthew, Leah, Daniel and the late Jonathan, and great grandmom of Sophia. Sister "Bette" to Kenneth Besso (Joan). She was predeceased by her sisters Kass, Pearl, and Sis, and brothers Bud, Bussy and Ed. Also survived by many nieces and nephews.

Betty was a member of the Bellmawr Fire Company #1 Ladies Auxiliary and was very active with both Annunciation BVM Church and the Annunciation School. She was involved with and supportive of her children's and grandchildren's schooling and extracurricular activities.

Betty enjoyed many, many hours at the casinos. Her bus rides with friends to Atlantic City were numerous. She loved being on the go! Not a day went by that Betty did not mention her one true love, Bill.

Relatives and friends attended her viewing in Annunciation BVM Church, Bellmawr, where her Funeral Mass was celebrated. Interment at New St. Mary's Cemetery, Bellmawr.
