

Gloucester City News Obituaries

March 2022

To see the obituaries in context on the newspaper page and to see any photos included, please ask to see the back issues, which may be in paper or microfilm format.

Barbara M. Conway (March 3rd)

Barbara M. Conway (nee Jakubowski), 78, of Collingswood passed away on February 6, 2022.

Barbara was predeceased by her beloved husband, Nicholas Conway in 1997. She is survived by her loving children, Nicholas Conway, Lawrence Conway and Lynn Brophy (Jerome); cherished grandchildren, Nick, Aileen, Katherine, James, Mikayla, Gianna, Chase, Brody and Natalia; and her great grandson, Ronnie Rowat.

Barbara retired from the Delaware River Port Authority in Camden, where she had worked as a secretary. She loved animals and traveling with her many friends.

Friends and family attended the viewing in St. Mary's Church, Gloucester City, where the Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated. Burial was in New St. Mary's Cemetery, Bellmawr.

In lieu of flowers, donations are requested in memory of Barbara to: Street Tail Animal Rescue, 1030 N. 2nd Street, Ste. 401, Philadelphia, PA 19123 or online at www.streettails.org Please write: Barbara M. Conway in the memo.

Condolences and Memories may be shared at www.mccannhealey.com. Funeral arrangements entrusted to the McCann-Healey Funeral Home, 851 Monmouth St., Gloucester City.

David W. Pascal Jr. (March 3rd)

David W. Pascal Jr., 56, of North Wildwood, formerly of Brooklawn, passed away on February 19, 2022.

Beloved son of David W. Pascal Sr. and Barbara Heyne Middleton (Ronald). Loving brother of Beth Pascal (John Barski) and Michael Pascal (Sarah). Cherished uncle of Makenzie, Olivia, Jane, Alana and Mikayla, and great-uncle of Lillian and Sophia. Nephew of James Pascal, Patricia Newdeck (Bill) and Paul B. Heyne (Karen). Lifelong best friend of Pat Danaher. Predeceased by his step-father, Robert F. Berry.

David was a graduate of Gloucester Catholic High School Class of 1984, and went on to receive his bachelor's degree from Rutgers-Camden in 1989, where he was a member of Tau Epsilon Phi fraternity. David was an IT systems developer, and his talents always had him working on many complex projects.

Relatives and friends attended visitation at St. Mary's Church, Gloucester City, where the Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated. Interment will be private in New St. Mary's Cemetery, Bellmawr at a later date.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Msgr. Lucitt's Needy Children's Fund, PO Box 87, Gloucester City, NJ 08030.

Condolences and memories may be shared at www.mccannhealey.com. Funeral arrangements entrusted to the McCann-Healey Funeral Home, Gloucester City.

E. David Pinolini Jr. (March 3rd)

E. David Pinolini Jr. 63, of Gloucester City passed away on February 11, 2022.

Best friend and loving husband of 40 years to Marie T. Pinolini (nee Levins). Loving father of Nicholas, Melissa, Kevin and Joseph. Also survived by many loving family members of the Pinolini and Levins families.

David was born in Philadelphia to the late Ernest D. Pinolini Sr. and the late Gloria M. Pinolini (nee DiBenedetto). He worked many years in the auto industry for Ford Motor Company as the head of safety and inspection. David was a talented artist and musician. He played drums in a band for many years, doing both original and cover songs. Also, he was a trained barber, and had a passion for fishing in his free time.

In lieu of flowers please contact son Kevin Pinolini to arrange donations to the family to assist in this difficult time. Relatives and friends share memories of his life at St. Mary's Church, Gloucester City, where the Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated.

Condolences and memories may be shared at www.mccannhealey.com. Funeral arrangements entrusted to the McCann-Healey Funeral Home, 851 Monmouth St., Gloucester City.

Dawn L. Viveiros (March 3rd)

Dawn Lynn Viveiros, 50, of Elko, NV, formerly of Gloucester City, passed away on February 15, 2022.

Born in Camden, she was the daughter of James L. and Linda L. (Baldus) Rauchut. Dawn is also survived by her companion, John Wrigley; her loving children, Daniel Viveiros, Ashley Lisanti (Shane); brother, James L. Rauchut Jr. (Tammy); sister, Crissy Rauchut; niece, Mya; and nephews, Michael and Madden.

Dawn loved spending time with her family, animals, cooking and music.

Relatives and friends celebrated her life during the viewing at the McCann-Healey Funeral Home, 851 Monmouth St., Gloucester City, followed by the Funeral Services. Interment will be in Calvary Cemetery, Cherry Hill, at a date and time to be announced later.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to 4 Paws Dog Rescue of NJ, 4pawsnj.org. Condolences and memories may be shared at www.mccannhealey.com.

Edward Allen III (March 3rd)

Edward McNeil Allen III, 51, of Hi-Nella, formerly of Gloucester City, passed away on February 11, 2022.

He is survived by his children, Eric Allen and his mother Michele Wrisley, and Brianna Allen and Kay Allen, and their mother, Angela. Also survived by his mother, Patricia Anne Allen (nee Choate); siblings, Denise P. Allen, Dawn M. Allen and Thomas E. Allen; and his nieces and nephews, Anthony J. DeCaro Jr., Jack R. Markiewicz Jr, MacKenzie D. Markiewicz, Kyle E. Markiewicz, Ashleigh P. Markiewicz, Kamryn E. Markiewicz and Damian McNeil Allen. Predeceased by his father, Edward Mc Neil Allen, Jr. Also survived by his special friend, Lisa Barrett, aunts, uncles, cousins and beloved friends.

Ed was a graduate of Gloucester City High School Class of 1989. He worked many years as a CAD Drafter for Mercer Gasket & Shim in Bellmawr. Ed was a lover of music, especially Van Halen, and playing his electric guitars. Over the years, he played in many bands and met many great friends doing so. He was an avid sports fan, and especially loved the Philadelphia Eagles.

Relatives and friends celebrated his life during the viewing at the McCann-Healey Funeral Home, 851 Monmouth St, Gloucester City, followed by the Funeral Service. Interment was in Locustwood Memorial Park, Cherry Hill.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to American Heart Association, 1 Union St, Suite 301, Robbinsville, NJ 08691 or online at www.heart.org. Condolences and memories may be shared at www.mccannehealey.com.

Marc C. Russell (March 3rd)

Marc Christopher Russell, 50, born August 27, 1971 in Salem, entered into the arms of His loving Savior Jesus, on December 22, 2021.

Marc is survived by his beloved wife of 11 years, Christina (Ward) Russell; father, John Faughnan Russell; mother, Gaye Diane (Nocon) Ishuin; brothers, John II, Jason, Jeremy, and Jesse Russell; sisters, Julianne Russell and Tifanie Ishuin; uncle, Gary Nocon; aunt, Lori Nocon; cousins, Rachael Handrinos, Lisa Spitale, Kathleen Griffith, Gary Nocon Jr., and Jennifer Nocon; and nephews, Dominik, Cristian, Jakob and Carson Russell.

Marc resided in Paulsboro, and was a graduate of Pennsville High School, Class of 1990. He was a U.S. Navy veteran and served in the Persian Gulf War. Music was his passion and he spent many years with his band, Allegiance, as a singer, songwriter, and keyboard player. He regularly attended Calvary Chapel South Jersey, formerly in Bellmawr, where he also was part of the worship team, either leading on guitar, or as the keyboard player. Marc had a passion for outreach to others, and enjoyed mission trips with his church, especially the trip to India with Pastor Harry. Marc also went on many mission trips to Mexico where he was such an instrument in God's hand.

Marc loved vacationing in Florida, especially Disney World, and also Lancaster, PA. He was a Miami Dolphins fan, as is his wife, and they would be sure to watch the games together any time they were televised. They also enjoyed time outdoors together, especially for birdwatching. Marc was devoted to his family: his wife, their two cats, Summer and Autumn, and their canary, Coco. He will be deeply missed by all of them.

Funeral services will be celebrated on Saturday, March 5, at 2 p.m. in Calvary Chapel of South Jersey, 1210 Hessian Ave., West Deptford, NJ. Burial will be held at a later date.

Funeral arrangements entrusted to the McCann-Healey Funeral Home, 851 Monmouth St., Gloucester City.

MaryAnn Rouh (March 3rd)

MaryAnn Rouh (nee Ellenbark), 77, has passed away.

Survived by her husband of 58 years, William E. Rouh; her children, Annmarie (Dennis) Reilly, William E Jr (Dena), Marcie Kaufmann, and Christopher (Carla); seven grandchildren, Taylor, Kyle, Patrick, Raymond, Caitlin, Carleigh, and Gianna; her brothers, George and Harry (Kimberly), and many family members.

She had a lifelong friendship with Walli McKinney and a special relationship with her niece, Marcie Jenkinson. She is predeceased by her parents, George R. and Myrtle Ellenbark, and a daughter, MaryAnn.

MaryAnn was a longtime Gloucester City resident and went to Gloucester City High School. She was baptized Methodist, but choose to raise her family in the Catholic religion following all of the rituals. She is a past trustee of the Ladies of Auxiliary for Pine Grove Fire Association and a member of the Ladies Auxiliary of the 4 Fire Associations in Gloucester City.

MaryAnn loved her family. Holidays were always a special time for her, and she insisted that we celebrate as a family. She was very proud of her four children and seven grandchildren.

Relatives and friends gathered to share heartfelt stories at Etherington & Creran Funeral Homes, Gloucester City, followed by a remembrance ceremony officiated by Father Walter Norris. The graveside tribute was at the Camden County Veterans Cemetery, Camden.

As an expression of sympathy and In lieu of flowers donations in her name can be made to St. Jude's Children's Hospital, www.stjude.org, 501 St. Jude Place Memphis, TN 38105.

Paul J. Carver (March 3rd)

Paul J. Carver, 81, of Woodbury, formerly of Philadelphia and San Francisco, passed away on February 19, 2022.

Born in Groveton, NH, he was the son of the late Edwin J. and Helen (McCormack) Carver. Paul is survived by his son, James G. Carver; partner, Joseph Kiley; brothers, Robert Carver and Lynwood Carver; and his former wife, Nora Carver. He was also predeceased by his sister, Beverly Brown, and brother, Peter Carver.

Paul proudly served his country in the U.S. Navy and was a graduate of the Culinary Institute of America in New Haven, CT, in 1966. He retired as a cook with the Underwood Memorial Hospital, Woodbury. Paul also worked for many years as a stocker for Kohl's in Mantua. He was a member of St. Joachim Parish.

Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated at 10 a.m. on Friday, March 4, at St. Joachim Parish, 601 Browning Road, Bellmawr, where family and friends may visit from 9 to 10 a.m. His urn will be buried in the Northumberland Cemetery in Groveton, NH, at a later date.

Condolences and memories may be shared at www.mccannhealey.com. Funeral arrangements entrusted to the McCann-Healey Funeral Home, 851 Monmouth St., Gloucester City.

Robert J. Hartman (March 3rd)

Robert Joseph Hartman passed away on February 19, 2022, at the age of 60.

Bob lived in West Deptford for more than 30 years. He was raised in Gloucester City, and graduated from Gloucester City High School, Class of 1980.

Beloved husband of Karen (Keebler) Hartman, devoted father of Frankie Willerton and Joseph Hartman, beloved brother of Bet (Gary) Shrader, Pat (Joe Rubino) Schmidt-Rubino, Anne (Mike) Murtagh, Mary (Chuck) Parvis and Mike (Lynn) Hartman, and also survived by many loving nieces and nephews.

Bob worked for West Deptford Township, Ambrogi, Rastelli, and had been a printer for 30 years. He was a natural athlete, sports fan and an avid outdoorsman. He was a talented storyteller, songwriter and musician, entertaining children of all ages.

Friends and family attended a Celebration of Bob's Life, followed by Interment in Eglington Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made in Memory of Robert Hartman to West Deptford High School, 1600 Crown Point Rd, West Deptford, NJ 08093 for the Athletic/Music Programs or to the Moorestown Visiting Nurse Association at www.moorestownvna.org.

Sabia J. Buchanan (March 3rd)

Sabia J. Buchanan, 83, of Gloucester City, passed away suddenly on February 2, 2022.

Born in Philadelphia, Sabia is survived by her dear friends Patricia Sontagh and Barbara Wambold.

Sabia retired as a supervisor for the Institute of Scientific Information in Philadelphia.

Relatives and friends celebrated her life during the visitation at the McCann-Healey Funeral Home, 851 Monmouth Street, Gloucester City, where Funeral Services followed. Interment was in New Saint Mary's Cemetery, Bellmawr. Condolences and memories may be shared at www.mccannhealey.com.

Tracy L. Evans (March 3rd)

Tracy L. Tavener-Evans, 60, of Gloucester City passed away on February 7, 2022.

Tracy was a beloved daughter, mother, mom mom, wife, sister and aunt. She was born in Wynnewood, PA and was the daughter of Virginia (Sarlo) Tavener and the late Warren Tavener. Tracy is survived by her loving children, Tara Stone (Jason), Jamie Pagan (Jonathan), Kimberly Belcher and Jonathan R. Beres; grandchildren, Tyler, Nicholas, Madison, Victoria, Gabriella, Giovanni, Jordan, Aliviah, Jonathan, Gabby, Lillyana, Jayce and Angel; great grandchildren, Landon, Bryson and Jaxson; brother, Thomas Tavener; sisters, Tammy Tavener and Stephanie Tavener; companion, William Evan; former spouse, Richard Beres; and nieces and nephews.

Tracy loved and cherished and lived for her children, grandchildren and great grandchildren. Through them her legacy and love for life lives on. Tracy was strong and stubborn, with a heart of gold that was always willing to lend a helping hand to anyone who needed it.

Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated in St. Mary's Church, 426 Monmouth St., Gloucester City, where family and friends also attended the visitation. Entombment was in Calvary Cemetery, Cherry Hill, NJ.

Funeral arrangements entrusted to the McCann-Healey Funeral Home, 851 Monmouth St., Gloucester City.

William F. Ludwig Jr. (March 3rd)

William F. Ludwig Jr., 84, of Gloucester City passed away on February 21, 2022.

Loving and devoted husband of 38 years to Patricia A. Ludwig (nee Bernard). Beloved father of Billy Ludwig (Monica), Matthew Ludwig (Emily) and Mary Jo Ludwig, and step-father of Peter Houseknecht, Patti Heiser (Tom) and Mike DiCamillo (Larae). Cherished grandfather of eight and great-grandfather of nine. Beloved brother of Irene Sanelli (Angelo).

Bill received his bachelor's degree in business from Villanova University. He spent his career in sales, and was owner of Etco, Inc., in Riverside.

Relatives and friends attended his viewing on in St. Mary's Church, Gloucester City, where the Mass of Christian was celebrated. Interment was private.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to St. Vincent DePaul Society, 420 Monmouth Street, Gloucester City, NJ 08030.

Condolences and memories may be shared at www.mccannhealey.com. Funeral arrangements entrusted to the McCann-Healey Funeral Home, 851 Monmouth St., Gloucester City.

Alford Edmond Dercqu (March 10th)

Alford Edmond Dercqu, 78, of Gloucester City passed away on February 20, 2022, surrounded by his loved one. He was born on May 16, 1943.

He was preceded in death by his parents Andre A. Dercqu and Aline E. Dercqu; brother, Richard H. Dercqu; and his beloved wife, Margaret Mary Dercqu. Alford is survived by his sister, Katherine Latief and her husband Hasan Latief; children, Courtney Dercqu and her husband John Clements, Cynthia Ferdinand, and Alan Dercqu, Sr.; grandchildren, Gage, Damien, and Alan; and nieces and nephews.

The Funeral Service was private. In lieu of flowers, memorial donations can be made to The Esophageal Cancer Action Network by visiting ecan.org.

Dorothea Duggan (March 10th)

Dorothea Duggan, 89, of Gloucester City passed away on February 15, 2022.

Born in Camden, she was the daughter of the late Francis and Alma (nee Liesinger) Davis. Dorothea is survived by her sons, Andrew Duggan and Allen Duggan; and her sisters, Frances Stief and Constance Lupus. She was predeceased by her husband, Joseph G. Duggan, in 1994.

Dorothea was an Insurance Underwriter for Ohio Casualty and Life Insurance in Voorhees.

Honoring her wishes, there will be no visitation or services. Burial will be held privately at a later date. Condolences and memories may be shared at www.mccannhealey.com. Funeral arrangements entrusted to the McCann-Healey Funeral Home, 851 Monmouth St., Gloucester City.

Frances M. Banicky (March 10th)

Frances M. Banicky, 72, of Gloucester City passed away on February 28, 2022.

Born in Camden, she was the daughter of the late Steven and Stella (nee Okreglicke) Banicky. Frances is survived by her sister, Martha L. Banicky; her partner, Anna Ballingall; her nieces, Martha Ann Scharle and Theresa Garber; her nephews, Steven Gallagher, Tim Gallagher and Nicholas Garber; great-niece Kirby Scharle; and great-nephews, Tyler and Shaun Scharle.

Frances retired after many years as a dental assistant with John Jones, DDS, and Alden Kim, DMD, in Gloucester City, NJ. She also worked for 18 years at CVS in Pitman.

Honoring her wishes, there will be no visitation or services. Burial will be held privately at a later date.

Condolences and memories may be shared at www.mccannhealey.com. Funeral arrangements entrusted to the McCann-Healey Funeral Home, 851 Monmouth St., Gloucester City.

William K. Klausner (March 10th)

William K. "Bill" Klausner, 79, of Gloucester City, NJ, passed away on February 27, 2022.

He was born in Camden to the late William and Gladys (Fisher) Klausner.

Bill was a dedicated member of First Baptist Church in Gloucester City, where he also sang in the choir since 1960. He enjoyed going to the casinos in Atlantic City and he always had treats ready to give to the neighborhood dogs. Bill will be deeply missed.

William is predeceased his parents, William and Gladys (Fisher) Klausner and sister, Eleanor J. Hatton.

He is survived by his cousins, Cheryle Miller (Terry), Jo-Anne Marshall, Charles Countryman, Edward Countryman, Darlene Countryman-Farley (Dan), Edward Miller, William Fisher, Robert Fisher and Joseph Fisher; and nephew, Michael Hatton (Joyce).

Family and friends celebrated his life during his visitation at the Mahaffey Milano Funeral Home, Mt. Ephraim, followed by the Funeral Service. Interment was at Woodbury Memorial Park.

Catherine R. Guzik (March 17th)

Catherine R. Guzik (nee Riddagh), 76, of Bellmawr, formerly of Camden, passed away on March 2, 2022.

Beloved wife of Robert R. Guzik for 55 years. Loving mother of Diane Ferry and her husband Todd of Bellmawr. Caring sister of Annamae Damerau and her husband Richard Sr. of Marlton. Proud grandmother of Todd Jr. and Justin Ferry. Aunt of Robert J. Ott and Richard E. Damerau Jr. Great aunt of Savannah and Bobby Ott.

Mrs. Guzik was retired from the Assignments Department, where she worked for 43 years employed by Amtrak of Philadelphia.

The Private Life Celebration for immediate family was in the Ciechanowski Funeral Home, Runnemede. Interment was in St. Joseph's Cemetery, Blackwood.

Memorial contributions in Catherine's memory can be made to Disabled Veterans National Foundation, dvnf.org, 4601 Forbes Blvd., Suite #130, Lanham, MD 20706.

Charles L. Miller (March 17th)

Charles L. Miller, 88, of Mt. Ephraim passed away on March 3, 2022.

Beloved husband of 65 years to the late Raffaelina "Rae" Miller. Loving father of Donna (Robert) Arcinese, Lee (Christine) Miller, and Patty (Nick) Ferrara. Devoted grandfather of six and great grandfather of six. He is also survived by his brother, Bill Miller, his sister, Joan (Carroll) Young, two nieces and many cousins.

Charles was a 41-year employee of RCA, Cherry Hill, and an avid Philadelphia Eagles fan.

Relatives and friends attended his Committal Graveside Prayers at New St. Mary's Cemetery, Bellmawr.

Memorial contributions may be made in his memory to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital, 262 Danny Thomas Place, Memphis, TN 38105 (www.stjude.org).

David W. Pascal Jr. (March 17th)

David W. Pascal Jr., 56, of North Wildwood, formerly of Brooklawn, passed away on February 19, 2022.

Beloved son of David W. Pascal, Sr. and Barbara Heyne Middleton (Ronald). Loving brother of Beth Pascal (John Barski) and Michael Pascal (Sarah). Cherished uncle of Makenzie, Olivia, Jane, Alana and Mikayla, and great-uncle of Lillian and Sophia. Nephew of James Pascal, Patricia Newdeck (Bill) and Paul B. Heyne (Karen). Lifelong best friend of Pat Danaher. Predeceased by his step-father, Robert F. Berry.

David was a graduate of Gloucester Catholic High School Class of 1984, and went on to receive his bachelor's degree from Rutgers Camden in 1989 – where he was a member of Tau Epsilon Phi fraternity. David was an IT systems developer and his talents always had him working on many complex projects.

Relatives and friends shared memories of David during his visitation in St. Mary's Church, Gloucester City, where the Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated. Interment was private in New St. Mary's Cemetery, Bellmawr.

Donations can be made to the Msgr. Lucitt's Needy Children's Fund, P.O. Box 87, Gloucester City, NJ 08030. Funeral arrangements entrusted to the McCann-Healey Funeral Home, 851 Monmouth St., Gloucester City.

John V. Scheurich (March 17th)

John V. "Jack" Scheurich, 88, of Sewell, formerly of Mullica Hill and Gloucester City, passed away on March 6, 2022.

Loving husband of 70 years to Claire M. Scheurich. Beloved father of Claire M. Sciarra (late Jon) and John V. Scheurich, III (Sue Rathbone). Cherished grandfather of Melanie Sciarra Thomas (Stephen), Melissa Epstein (late Michael), Bria Dougherty (Dennis) and John V. Scheurich, IV (Mariza). Cherished great-grandfather of Taylor, Keira, Gabriel, Jake, Mason and John 5th.

Relatives and friends are invited to his viewing in the Church of the Incarnation, 210 Main St., Mantua, NJ, 08051, where his Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated by Rev. Raymond Gormley, Pastor. Entombment was in New Saint Mary's Cemetery Mausoleum, Bellmawr.

In lieu of flowers, donations are requested to the Church of The Incarnation, at the above church address or Mass Offerings in John's name.

Condolences and memories may be shared at www.mccannhealey.com. Funeral arrangements entrusted to the McCann-Healey Funeral Home, 851 Monmouth St., Gloucester City.

Ronald Wunder (March 17th)

Ronald Wunder, 58, of Gloucester City and Brooksville, FL, passed away on March 4, 2022 due to a battle with cancer.

He was predeceased by his father Joseph Wunder, mother Elizabeth Wunder, and his oldest brother Joseph Wunder. He is survived by his brother Francis (Nancy) Wunder, his sisters Elizabeth Joyner and Theresa Sturgis, as well as many nieces and nephews.

He worked in masonry and was very passionate about tile design. He enjoyed oldies music, NASCAR, Phillies, Eagles and the Kansas City Chiefs. Ron was a funny guy who made people laugh, loved to travel and spend time with family and friends.

“Bro, RIP. You are loved and will be sadly missed.”

Timothy Gallagher (March 17th)

Timothy Gallaher, 63, of Bellmawr passed away on March 4, 2022.

Beloved husband of Ann (nee Skaziak). Devoted father of David Gallagher. Loving grandfather of Daniel. Dear brother of John Gallagher (Kathy), Maureen Gallagher, Patricia Gallagher, Kathy Gallagher, and Jim Gallagher (Diane). Cherished uncle of Brian Gallagher and Selena Gallagher.

Family and friends attended his viewing in Parish Annunciation Church, Bellmawr, where the Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated.

In lieu of flowers, donations in Timothy's memory may be made to Mayo Clinic, Department of Development, 200 First Street SW, Rochester, MN 55905.

William G. Crothers (March 17th)

William G. Crothers, 68, of Deptford, formerly of Gloucester City, passed away on March 5, 2022.

Loving husband of Donna M. (nee Gogolin) Crothers of 47 years. Proud and devoted father of Jeffrey Crothers (Alicia) and Dana Like (Brandon); cherished grandchildren, Alex, Austin, Gabriel, Ava, Amelia, Auroraa and Aurelia; sister-in-law, Dot Gogolin; nephews Scott (Sandy) Gogolin and Shawn Gogolin; niece, Dawn Yushchak (Mark); former wife of Billy, Kim Crothers; his dogs, Cody and Abby; his two sisters and many friends and family. William was predeceased by his son, William (Billy) Crothers; father and mother-in law, John and Lillie Gogolin; brother-in-law, Jack Gogolin; father, Harry E.; and mother, Margaret (nee Sieger) Crothers.

William was a resident and dedicated police officer of Gloucester City for 29 years. During his tenure, he was a D.A.R.E. Officer, Detective, Sergeant, Lieutenant and ultimately Chief of Police.

In previous years he had worked with the Woodbury and Oaklyn Police departments.

William was a true family man to his wife, children and grandchildren whom he loved spending time with always. William enjoyed exercising, watching Law and Order, eating a great Italian meal, and drinking black coffee.

Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated in St. Mary's Church, Gloucester City, where family and friends gathered and shared stories during the viewing before the Mass. Cremation was held privately.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in memory of William to Donate Life, American Cancer Society, or a local animal shelter.

Condolences and memories may be shared at www.mccannhealey.com. Funeral arrangements entrusted to the McCann-Healey Funeral Home, 851 Monmouth St., Gloucester City

Cathleen Polczynski (March 24th)

Cathleen Polczynski (nee Avallone), 95, of Cherry Hill, formerly of Washington Township, passed away on October 3, 2021.

Loving mother of Eve (Howard) Carney, Mary Polczynski and Thomas (Edie) Polczynski. Devoted grandmother of Shawn Carney, Timmy Polczynski and Tommy Polczynski.

Cathleen was born on Christmas Day, Dec. 25, 1925, in Queens, New York. She loved her Roman Catholic faith and her family.

Relatives and friends are kindly invited to attend Cathleen's visitation on Saturday, March 26, from 10 to 10:45 a.m. at Saint Mary's Church, 426 Monmouth St., Gloucester City. Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated 11 a.m. in church. Interment private.

Condolences and Memories may be shared at www.mccannhealey.com. Funeral arrangements entrusted to the McCann-Healey Funeral Home, 851 Monmouth St., Gloucester City.

Patricia Williams (March 24th)

Patricia Williams (nee Waters), 90, of Audubon Park passed away on March 14, 2022.

Born and raised in Camden, Patricia was a longtime resident of Audubon Park. Mrs. Williams worked for over 20 years at the Cherry Hill Mall at Woolworth's Cherry Hill Grill, and then retiring from the housekeeping department there.

Patricia was predeceased by her beloved husband, Frank Jr.; her three sons, Frank, Albert Sr. and Bruce, along with seven sisters and five brothers. She is lovingly survived by her three daughters, Patricia, MaryJo and Jennifer; her son, Johnny; 20 grandchildren; numerous great grandchildren and many nieces and nephews.

Relatives and friends attended her viewing at the Healey Funeral Home, Haddon Heights, followed by her Funeral Service. Interment was in New St. Mary's Cemetery, Bellmawr.

Susan D. Hagerty (March 24th)

Susan D. "Sue" Hagerty passed away on March 9, 2022, and heaven welcomed some excitement and toughness.

Susan, a loving daughter, mother, and grandmother, passed peacefully at the age of 63. Waiting to welcome Sue to heaven were her sister; Debbie Beecher, her brother; John Dill, and her beloved dog, Tia.

Sue is survived and will be greatly missed by her beloved mother, Shirley Dill; children, Malisa Cooney and George (Butch) Hagerty; brother, Joseph Dill; sister, Sharon Schofield; grandsons, Jarrod and Derron Cooney; as well as her nieces, nephews, and extended family.

Sue was born on February 28, 1959, in Camden and spent her happiest years raising her family in Mount Ephraim. Sue enjoyed spending time down the Jersey shore, whether that be hanging on the beach, crabbing in the back bay, or trying her luck in Atlantic City.

However, there is nothing that Sue enjoyed more than spending time with her family, which she worked so hard to protect. Her unconditional love, boisterous and contagious laugh will forever be remembered, and her stories about the good ole days will certainly be missed.

Family and friends celebrated her life at the Mahaffey-Milano Funeral Home, Mount Ephraim. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions, in Sue's name can be made to the St. Jude Children's Research Hospital at www.stjude.org.

Beatrice M. Cunningham (March 31st)

Beatrice M. Cunningham, 60, of Williamstown passed away on Monday, March 21, 2022.

Beatrice was born in Camden and had been a longtime Gloucester City neighbor before moving to Williamstown. She was a beloved mother, daughter, sister and friend who loved live music at concerts, especially Rod Stewart, working on her 67 Camaro and reading.

Beatrice is the daughter of the late Walter and Anna Mae Marie Cunningham, and is survived by her only son, Joseph Cunningham.

The Cunningham family has chosen to share their heartfelt stories privately.

Joan P. Jaggard (March 31st)

Joan P. Jaggard (nee Kunicki), 85, passed away peacefully on March 20, 2022, at Brandywine Assisted Living in Haddonfield.

Born in Camden and raised in Gloucester City, Joan was a longtime resident of Laurel Springs.

Joan was predeceased by her husband, Russell Jaggard; her son, Steven Jaggard; and her sister, Constance Forner. She is lovingly survived by her two daughters, Diane (Charlie) Simperts and Vicky (David) Kelly; her five grandchildren, Kevin Simperts, Steven Simperts, Emily (Michael) Minnis, Daniel Kelly and Patrick Kelly; her brother, Frank Kunicki, as well as several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services and interment will be held privately at the convenience of the family. Funeral arrangements were entrusted to the Healey Funeral Home, Haddon Heights.

Mary C. Banford (March 31st)

Mary C. Banford, 93, of Gloucester City passed away on March 17, 2022.

She was born to Edward R. and Anna E. Singer in Philadelphia. Mary will be deeply missed.

Mary is predeceased by her husband, Joseph F. Banford; son, Stephen M. Banford; and parents, Edward R. Singer and Anna E. Singer (nee Raab). She is survived by her children, David Banford and Joan Boyle (the late John J.); and grandchildren, Shannon Wrigley (Harry), Johnny Boyle, and Patrick Boyle (Ellen).

Funeral Services will be held privately at the convenience of the family.