Anna Boyce (August 1st)

On July 11, 2024, at the age of 84, Anna Licata Boyce passed peacefully at Riverfront Rehab in Pennsauken.

Born in Camden on April 29, 1940 Anna spent her early years in Camden with her family and attended Sacred Heart Church and was a graduate of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel School. After school, Aunt Anna lived her life to the fullest like the free bird she was. She explored New York and Florida and worked many years at the Playboy Club as well as the Latin Casino in Cherry Hill. She returned to NJ in the 1980s, settling in Mt. Ephraim. By 1990, Anna owned and operated the family restaurant, Lucia's Restaurant, Haddonfield, named after grandmom, as well as a consignment shop.

Life with Aunt Anna was never boring. She absolutely loved taking care of her "children" Aldo, Melissa and Nicholas and helped care for and raise them. Melissa and Nicholas Salamone were adored by Aunt Anna as if they were her own grandchildren.

Some say that Gina Marie reminds them of Aunt Anna as they are both rebellious and very outspoken and always the life of the party! Anna will be remembered for her delicious cooking, love for animals and being a loving, nurturing care giver to many.

Anna was predeceased by her parents, Lucille DiCarlantonio DiCampi and Albert DiCampi Sr., and brothers Gaetano Martin Licata and Albert DiCampi Jr.

She is survived by her niece, Gina Marie Licata, nephews Gaetano Michael Licata Jr., Albert Baldino and Josh Baldino; great niece Victoria Licata and great-nephew Gabriel Licata Stauss; her great-great niece, Peyton Ashley Licata Huth, as well as Melissa and Nicolas Salamone and Aldo Rossi, whom she loved and treated like family. Relatives and friends attended her visitation in St. Rose of Lima Church, Haddon Heights, where her Mass of Christina Burial was celebrated. Interment was private.

Condolences and memories may be shared at www.mccannhealey.com. Funeral arrangements entrusted to the McCann-Healey Funeral Home, 851 Monmouth St., Gloucester City.

David Bonomo (August 1st)

David Bonomo, 68, of Maple Shade passed away on July 22, 2024.

David is survived by his sister, Regina and sister-in-law, Michelle McNeill.

David's graveside services will be celebrated on Thursday, Aug. 1, at 10 a.m. in Waterford Memorial Park Cemetery, 629 Pestletown Road, Waterford.

Condolences and memories may be shared at www.mccannhealey.com. Funeral arrangements entrusted to the McCann-Healey Funeral Home, 851 Monmouth St., Gloucester City.

John Reed III (August 1st)

John Edward Reed III, 33, of Bellmawr, formerly of Gloucester City, passed away on July 14, 2024.

Born in Camden, he was the son of John E. Reed Jr. and Barbara (nee Wunder) Reed. He is also survived by his cherished daughter, McKenzie Reed; loving sisters Racheal Reed, Jessica Reed, Brittany Reed and Stephanie Reed and his brother, Jeremy Reed; his paternal grandparents, John and Karen Reed, and several aunts, uncles, nieces and nephews.

John was a resident of Gloucester City for most of his life. He was a graduate of Gloucester City High School Class of 2009. John loved the movie "Harry Potter." He enjoyed making his friends and family laugh. John was always there to help anyone in need.

Relatives and friends can attend his viewing on Sunday, Aug. 4, from 2 to 4 p.m. at the McCann-Healey Funeral Home, 851 Monmouth St., Gloucester City, where his Funeral Service will be celebrated at 4 p.m. Interment will be private.

Condolences and Memories may be shared at www.mccannhealey.com.

Mary Brown (August 1st)

Mary M. Brown (nee Righter), 99, of Springfield, PA, formerly of Darby, PA, passed away peacefully on July 19, 2024.

Loving wife of the late Robert J. Brown. Beloved mother of Christine (the late Keith) Halford, Barbara Ann (Brian) Kain, and the late Robert T. Brown. Also survived by seven loving grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her siblings Samuel Righter, Helen Snyder White and Harry Righter.

Mary was born in South Philadelphia and attended St. Monica's Elementary School before moving to Southwest Philadelphia where she attended West Catholic High School. She worked in various positions including the Defense Department during WW2. She was a longtime resident of Darby, where she and her husband raised their family and were devoted members of Blessed Virgin Mary Catholic Church. She relocated to Springfield Township where she spent many tranquil years surrounded by her loving family.

Relatives and friends attended her viewing and celebrated Mary's Mass of Christian Burial at St. Kevin Church, Springfield, PA. Burial was in Sts. Peter and Paul Cemetery.

Family requests memorial donations in Mary's name to: Children's Hospital of Philadelphia Foundation: P.O. Box 781352, Philadelphia, PA, 19178 – 1352 or online at:

Maxine Alexander (August 1st)

Ms. Maxine Alexander gained her eternal independence on July 4, 2024, at the age of 80 years old. She was born on February 12, 1944 in Portsmouth, VA. to parents Dorothy Louise Harrell Alexander (nee Docey), and James Pittman Alexander (JP).

Ms. Alexander was a trailblazer, graduating as one of the first Black students from the High School of Fashion Industry in New York. She continued her education at City College, NY, and beloved HBCU Shaw University and became an accomplished anthropologist and writer.

Ms. Alexander worked as an editor for the progressive magazine “Southern Exposure” and created the book “Speaking for Ourselves.” Maxine, during a union with NEA Jazz Master, Saxophonist Gary Bartz, birthed her one and only child, Taifa Harmony Bartz.

Maxine was a truly one-of-a-kind spirit who will be remembered for her focused passion, intelligence, unique insight, and dedication to amplifying the voices of others. She will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved her. Maxine Alexander was preceded in death by her parents and three brothers, Jerome “Jeru” Alexander, Tony Alexander and Chris Jackson. She is survived by her daughter, Taifa Harmony Bartz and three grandchildren, Omar Danté Smith, Ayana Smith and Hakim Bartz. She is also survived by her nephews Chris Alexander and Billy Alexander, niece Julie Alexander, grandnieces Ellen Hodge, Emily Hodge, Elizabeth Hodge and Ebhlainn Hodge, and great grandnephew Ethan Rodriguez, along with many other loving friends and family members.

Maxine’s Homegoing Ceremony was held in Canaan Baptist Church, 132 W 116th St, New York, NY 10026. The service can be viewed at <https://www.youtube.com/live/u9QIPwjNtFg>.

Arlene Hagerty (August 8th)

Arlene J. Hagerty (nee Printz), 84, of Bellmawr passed peacefully surrounded by her loving family on July 29, 2024.

Beloved wife of William L. Hagerty Sr. for 65 years. Devoted mother of William L. Hagerty Jr. (Kimberly), David S. Hagerty, Arlene E. Lamon (Brian), Steven B. Hagerty and the late John M. Hagerty. Loving grandmother of Gil, Billy, Kristina, Nicole, Courtney, Carley and Caitlyn. Cherished great grandmother of Ryleigh.

Dear sister of the late Skip Printz, Barbara La Vecchio, Dorothy Hershman and Joanne Simon. Arlene was well-known around the town of Bellmawr, dedicating most of her time to both the Bellmawr Tigers and The Bellmawr Purple Eagles earning her the title of “Mrs. Hag.” You would often find her running the concession stand on a Friday night, passing out one of her classic game day specials to the many friends and players she's made along the way. The concession stand was later dedicated to her and all of her hard work becoming “Mama Hags” Kitchen.

Above all, Arlene loved spending time with her family and getting together during the holidays, Christmas being her favorite time of year. Arlene was a friend to many, and loved by all. Her kindness has touched the hearts of many and she will be missed dearly.

Relatives and friends attended Arlene's viewing at the Gardner Funeral Home, 126 S. Black Horse Pike, Runnemede, where her Funeral Service was celebrated. Interment was at New St. Mary's Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in Arlene's memory to the Bellmawr Purple Eagles: PO Box 58, Mount Ephraim NJ 08059.

Diane Nafis (August 22nd)

Diane Zlogar Nafis (nee Zlogar), 76, passed away on August 6, 2024, in Gloucester Township, where she lived with her husband of 47 years, Donald L. Nafis.

Diane was born in Newburg, NY, to Joseph and Frances (nee Nachtigal) Zlogar and was raised in Buzzards Bay, MA. She lived half a block from Buttermilk Bay, her childhood playground. She loved Cape Cod beaches in the winter and exploring tide pools for unusual sea creatures in the summer.

She graduated from Sacred Heart High School in Kingston, MA and attended classes at Boston College. She had a summer internship at the Woods Hole Oceanographic Institution. Diane was unable to pursue a career in Oceanography, but her indomitable spirit led her to joy and success in different pursuits. She started a software consulting business with her husband in 1977, serving as president. The company supported them until they retired. Diane's first project in 1978 was to integrate microcomputers into Goldman Sachs' after-hours bond trading network.

She became the second newsletter editor of "The Data Bus" when the founder of the Philadelphia Area Computer Society asked for help. PACS was one of the first computer clubs in the US after the birth of the microprocessor. She was an avid skier who became a ski instructor for a season. Her favorite job was to conduct Ski Wee classes. She earned the top license in amateur (ham) radio, "Amateur Extra" and became a volunteer examiner giving FCC licensing exams. She volunteered her radio skills to emergency management during flooding in Atlantic City and Brigantine, and was part of a ham radio team that provided communications support for the Miss America boardwalk parades for several years.

Over a period of 16 years, she owned three horses. Diane trained daily in the dressage style, winning many competitions. She was a riding companion who was kind, inspirational and honest. She helped others with their horse care without expecting anything in return. She taught herself to quilt and created beautiful quilts, many of her own design. She was an excellent cook and held cooking classes at a local department store.

At the age of 52, she shot a handgun for the first time, becoming an excellent marksman and contributed to a team victory in a 10-week pistol league competition. She honed her skills by attending three week-long, shooting courses held by the best professional female shooters in the country. She received an award for the top women's score in a shotgun trap shooting competition. Diane was a Patron Life member of the National Rifle Association.

Diane leaves behind her husband, Donald; a sister, Regina Z. Souza; two brothers, Joseph V. Zlogar and Michael V. Zlogar; two stepdaughters, Lisa Nafis and Sandra Bergeson and many grandchildren. She is predeceased by her children, Dawn Enright, Michael Enright and Thomas Enright.

The family is honoring her wishes to have no funeral service. Those wishing to acknowledge her passing are urged to make a donation to her favorite charity:

ReRun Inc. 236A Waters Road, East Greenbush, NY 12061, (859) 595-6660, rerunottb.com/support.
ReRun Inc. is a non- profit organization saving retired thoroughbred racehorses via rehabilitation, retraining and adoption.

Funeral arrangements entrusted to the Gardner Funeral Home, 126 S. Black Horse Pike, Runnemede.

Doris M. Senft (August 22nd)

Doris M. Senft (nee White), 96, of Bellmawr passed away on August 10, 2024.

Beloved wife of the late Alex Senft. Devoted mother of Terry Knapp (the late John), the late Alex Senft (Carol) and the late Frank Senft (the late Heather). Loving grandmother of Christine, Jacqueline, Aaron, Sarah, the late Jason and the late Tara. Cherished great grandmother to Adam, Trevor, Shane, Olivia, Emery, Hannah, and Kinsley. Dear sister of the late Frederick White and Thelma Dacey. Also survived by many nieces and nephews.

Doris served as President and in many other positions during her 40 plus years of dedicated service to Bellmawr VFW Post 9563 Ladies Auxiliary.

She enjoyed spending time with family and friends traveling, and playing bingo. She was on the sidelines for all of her grandchildren's sporting events.

Relatives and friends attended her viewing at the Gardner Funeral Home, 126 S. Black Horse Pike, Runnemede. Interment was in New St. Mary's Cemetery, Bellmawr.

Msgr. William P. Brennan (August 29th)

Monsignor William Patrick Brennan entered eternal rest on August 15, 2024, the feast of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin, surrounded by his loving family.

He was born on July 8, 1936 in Staten Island and at the age of six moved to the Bronx. He attended Cathedral High School, NYC before entering St. Mary College in St. Mary, KY. He then studied at Immaculate Conception Seminary in Darlington NJ. He was ordained a priest in Camden on May 25, 1963.

Monsignor Brennan served in the field of Catholic education for several decades. He taught both history and religion at Gloucester Catholic High School and Camden Catholic High School in Cherry Hill. He eventually went on to become principal of both schools.

He served as priest at St. Lawrence Parish in Lindenwold from 1963 to 1964; Annunciation Parish in Bellmawr from 1964 to 1965; Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Parish in Berlin from 1967 to 1973; Most Holy Redeemer Parish in Westville Grove from 1973 to 1976; Our Lady of Mercy Parish in Cherry Hill from 1976 to 1984; Holy Rosary

Parish in 1984 in Cherry Hill. He then went on to serve as pastor at the following parishes: Church of the Incarnation Parish, Mantua, St Pius X Parish in Cherry Hill and Christ the King Parish in Haddonfield, from where he retired in 2012.

He was actively involved beyond his parish assignments with the Camden Diocese over the years. He served as a member of the Priest Personnel Board, the Presbyteral Council and the College of Consultors. Monsignor Brennan spent his retirement years living in the Sacred Heart Residence in Cherry Hill. He enjoyed the time spent there with his fellow priests and good friends. He also pursued further his life-long passion of wood working. He would tediously construct miniature doll houses and when completed, donate them to a charitable organization. He was dearly loved by all his extended family. He baptized and married almost all his 11 nieces and nephews. In recent years and when able, he did the same for his 36 Grand nieces and nephews. His family treasures the memories of him being an active part of all of their lives.

He was predeceased by his father, Hubert S. Brennan Sr.; his mother, Elizabeth McDermott Brennan; his sisters, Theresa Van Galen and Phyllis Gerneglia; and his brother-in-law Joseph Gerneglia. He is survived by his brother Hubert S. Brennan Jr. and his wife Grace Brennan.

Family and friends attended his viewing in Holy Eucharist Church, Cherry Hill, where his Mass of Jesus Christ the High Priest was celebrated. Interment was private at the request of the family.

In lieu of flowers, contributions in Msgr. Brennan's memory may be made to either Gloucester Catholic High School or Camden Catholic High School. Please visit schetterfh.com to share condolences with the family.

Teri Trasser (August 29th)

Teri L. Trasser (nee Felmeý), 62, of Gloucester Township, formerly of Bellmawr, passed away on August 19, 2024.

Beloved wife of 38 years to Franz Trasser. Devoted mother of Ashley and Eric (Iwona Stachelek). Cherished daughter of the late Herschel and Gerri (nee Aker) Felmeý. Dear sister of Michael Felmeý and Steven Felmeý (Mandi). Adored sister-in-law of Louis Trasser (Bernadette), John Trasser (Trudy) and James Trasser (Jackie). Also survived by many loving nieces, nephews, cousins, friends and coworkers.

Teri worked for Southern New Jersey Early Intervention and local orthodontist Dr. Lalwani before retiring recently with her husband, Franz. Teri and Franz loved to travel together and have visited Hawaii, Punta Cana, Mexico, Jamaica, Ireland, Germany, Austria, Sweden, Denmark and Netherlands, but Teri's favorite destination was always Aruba. Teri loved the beach, spending time with her family, going to wineries and enjoying live music.

She was always in search of the next best Espresso Martini. Her bubbly personality lit up any room she walked into. She was so loved by those around her and was always there for them.

Everyone was always welcomed to the many gatherings hosted by Teri and Franz, including holidays, barbecues and Super Bowl parties. Teri truly loved to be surrounded by her family and friends.

Relatives and friends attended her visitation in the Gardner Funeral Home, 126 S. Black Horse Pike, Runnemede, where her Memorial Service was celebrated. Interment was private at the request of the family.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in Teri's memory to Breakthrough T1D, 555 Croton Road Suite 111, King of Prussia, PA 19406, <https://www2.breakthrough1d.org/site/Donation>
