Funeral arrangements entrusted to the McCann-Healey Funeral Home, 851 Monmouth St., Gloucester City.

Bruce DiClemente (Dec. 23rd)

Bruce DiClemente, 64, of Mount Ephraim passed away on December 9, 2021.

He was born in Camden to the late Rudolph "Rudy" and Teresa "Jerry" (nee Clark) DiClemente. Bruce is predeceased by the love of his life, Jeannie Simmons. He is survived by his sisters, Michelle DiClemente (Jose) and Colleen Dyer (Tom); nieces, Teresa Anderson and Shelby Dyer; and his nephew, Max Dyer.

Bruce especially enjoyed his twice yearly vacations with Jeannie to Cape May. Prior to retiring, he worked at All Brand in Mt. Ephraim. Bruce loved to cook, studied culinary arts in high school, and worked as a chef apprentice in the late 1970s at the Tavistock Country Club.

He very much enjoyed playing cards and the lottery. Frequently over the years, a great past time was taking his mother to Atlantic City for a day of playing slots. He had a deep appreciation for music and instruments. As a young boy in Sacred Heart Grammar School, Camden, he sang in the boys choir singing solo during the yearly Christmas Eve Mass. Throughout his adult life, he enjoyed playing his Casio organ.

He will be remembered as a genuine, friendly, easy going person who went out of his way to help his family, friends and neighbors. Bruce will be deeply missed.

Relatives and friends attended his Visitation and Funeral Service at the Mahaffey Milano Funeral Home, Mt. Ephraim. Interment was private.

Elizabeth Rodgers (Dec. 23rd)

Sometimes, during this life, we move lightly and as I lay me down to slumber, all I need is one more number. When, to the next game I go, I pray the Lord I yell... Bingo! Elizabeth A. Rodgers (nee Clifford) walked by faith, not by sight, and filled her days with game shows, puzzle books and soap operas. She was a strong mother and wife who was happy to help anyone.

On Friday, December 10, 2021, after 85 years, Elizabeth moved to the border of heaven and earth. You know that place between awake and asleep, but where you can still remember? That's where we'll continue to love and miss you.

Mrs. Rodgers was born in Camden and had been a longtime Holy City neighbor. More recently, she shared her home with her daughter in Westville. She had worked as a crossing guard for Gloucester City, was a congregant of The Episcopal Church of the Ascension, a member of the Gloucester City VFW Post 3620, and enjoyed spending time in her garden at home.

Elizabeth is the widow of her late husband William and is survived by her children: Cynthia and her husband "Big Jim" Farrell, Carl and his wife Barbara Baker, and Diana and her husband Kenneth Markiewicz. She is the proud grandmother of Keith, Nicole, Jason, James, Steven, Robert, Brian, Adam, and great grandmother of 20. The Rodgers family have chosen to share their heartfelt stories privately.

As an expression of sympathy and in lieu of flowers, contributions can be made to the American Cancer Society (www.cancer.org), 1851 Old Cuthbert Rd. Cherry Hill, NJ 08034.

Joni D. Sayres (Dec. 23rd)

Joni D. Sayres (nee Rojo), 51, of Mount Ephraim passed away on December 11, 2021.

Born and raised in the Fairview section of Camden, she was the daughter of the late Jack and Joan (Downs) Rojo. Loving wife of 31 years to Steven Sayres. Loving mother of sons Steven Sayres Jr. (Alina Jackson), Colin Sayres and Andrew Sayres, and daughter, Peyton Sayres. Cherished grandmom of Quinton and Malcolm Sayres. Beloved sister of John (Niki), Carol (John) and Lana (Paul), and Godmother of Christin. She is also survived by many nieces and nephews. Joni was predeceased by her brother, Michael Costello.

Joni worked for many years as a cook in the cafeteria at Mary Bray Elementary School in Mt. Ephraim. She loved her job there and referring to all the students as her kids. Joni enjoyed the simple things in life. Her family meant more to her than anything. She also enjoyed her beach days with her sisters.

Relatives and friends celebrated Joni's life at her viewing and Funeral Service in the McCann-Healey Funeral Home, 851 Monmouth St., Gloucester City. Interment was in New St. Mary's Cemetery, Bellmawr.

Contributions may be made in memory of Joni to: Compassionate Care Hospice, 261 Connecticut Drive, Burlington, NJ 08016. Please write: Joni Sayres in the memo.

Judith A. Pfannenschlag (Dec. 23rd)

Judith A. Pfannenschlag, 74, of Egg Harbor City, formerly of Runnemede, passed away on December 15, 2021.

Beloved daughter of the late Joseph and Irene Pfannenschlag. Loving sister of Gerry Allen (George) and Nancy Weston (The late John J. Jr.). Dear aunt of Patricia Krzyk, George Allen, Jr., Dawn Ewing and Jack Weston, III. Adored niece of Mary Kennedy. Also survived by many great nieces and nephews and her cousin Joan Smith (Ron). Judith worked for PNC Bank for over 40 years and loved spending time with her family.

Relatives and friends attended her viewing at Annunciation BVM Church, Bellmawr, where the Funeral Mass was celebrated. Interment was in New St. Mary's Cemetery, Bellmawr.

In lieu of flowers donations may be made to American Diabetes Association, PO Box 7023, Merrifield, VA 22116-7023.

Funeral arrangements entrusted to the Gardner Funeral Home, 126 S. Black Horse Pike, Runnemede.

Lisa Hagan (Dec. 23rd)

Lisa Hagan, 52, of Mantua, formerly of Gloucester City, passed away suddenly on December 12, 2021.

Loving daughter of the late Joseph Hagan and Edith Hagan (nee Merrill). Devoted sister of the late Joseph Hagan, Jr. and Shawn Hagan. Cherished mother of the late Philip (Angel) Torres. Philip Torres Sr. was the father of Philip (Angel) and Lisa's long-term boyfriend.

Lisa was born in Camden City. She graduated from Woodrow Wilson High School in Camden where she loved to play basketball. Lisa was a huge Philadelphia Eagles fan and Philadelphia Phillies fan. Lisa also enjoyed going to the casino on occasion.

Lisa also liked to be around her family and have fun at family picnics. Lisa was mommy to her two cats Marty and Maxie. Lisa thought the world of her Aunt Joan Gundle. Lisa is survived by many devoted cousins, including Jamie (Jason) Allen.

At the request of the family, cremation and services were private.

Funeral arrangements entrusted to the McCann-Healey Funeral Home, 851 Monmouth St., Gloucester City.

Marie E. Baird (Dec. 23rd)

Marie Edith Baird (nee Hoffman), 97, of St. Cloud, FL, formerly of the Fairview section of Camden, surrounded by her loving family at home, passed peacefully on December 11, 2021.

Cherished grandmother of Rebecca, Daniel (Cindy), Kristyn, Byron (Rebecca) and Molly and great-grandmother of Liam, Mila, Kendall, Katlynn, Kyra, Keenan, Michael and Ariana. Beloved sister of Albert Hoffman and Trudy Hoffman. Predeceased by her parents, Daniel Hoffman and Loretta Lynch and her sister, Stella Gardner.

Marie worked many years as a banquet server at the Marriott Hotel in Orlando, FL. Known by her family as Dolly, she had a passion for travel, shopping, gardening and time with her beloved fur babies, Teddy and Tessa.

Relatives and friends attended her viewing at the McCann-Healey Funeral Home, 851 Monmouth St., Gloucester City. Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated in St. Mary's Church, Gloucester City. Interment was in New St. Mary's Cemetery, Bellmawr.

In lieu of flowers donations are requested to St. Jude's Children's Research Hospital www.stjude.org/donate or Pet Alliance of Greater Orlando www.petallianceorlando.org. Please memo, Marie E. Baird.

Robert T. Healey Sr. (Dec. 23rd)

Robert T. Healey Sr., 92, passed away on Thursday, December 9, 2021.

Beloved husband of Ellen J. (nee Baldino); loving father to his seven children, Lizanne H. Jenkins (Thomas), Christine L. Healey, Caroline H. Adillon, L. Toland Sherriff (Robert), Robert T. Healey, Jr. (Bobbi), M. Alexis Iaccarino (Jonathan) and Leigh H. Hughes (Gabriel); and adored grandfather of his 16 grandchildren. He was predeceased by his first wife, Louise L. (nee Lucas), and his two brothers, Patrick J. Healey and Edward J. Healey. He is survived by his brother William J. Healey, and many nieces and nephews.

Born on St. Patrick's Day in Atlantic City to Patrick J. and Loretta Mabel Healey, Bob attended Camden Catholic High School, St. Joseph's University, and the University of Pennsylvania, where he obtained his law degree. After 25 years of a successful South Jersey trial and business law practice, Bob turned his focus to the Viking Yacht Company, which he owned with his brother Bill. Together they grew Viking into the #1 sport-fishing yacht manufacturer in the U.S. As Viking's Chairman of the Board for 57 years, Bob diversified their financial interests into multi-family, industrial and commercial real estate, oil and gas exploration and development, and the financial management of the Healey family assets.

Bob received many awards for his achievements, including induction into the NJ Marine Trade Association Hall of Fame; the Rowan University Milestone Award; and nomination for the Ernst & Young Entrepreneur of the Year Award. Most notably, Bob channeled his financial success into philanthropic interests, which included building schools in impoverished areas of Mexico, and providing housing, medical assistance, education, food and clean water to the people of war-torn Sierra Leone through the Healey International Relief Foundation.

A devout Catholic and product of Catholic school education, Bob brought his business skills to the challenges facing Catholic schools in the U.S. and formed the Healey Education Foundation and the Catholic Partnership Schools in Camden.

Finally, with his wife Ellen, Bob founded the Gleneayre Equestrian Program for at-risk youth. The program uses the powerful connection between horses and people to support learning, growth, and healing.

For his philanthropic efforts, Bob received the Lewis Katz Excellence in Education Award, the Beacon of Light Award, the Catholic Charities Bishop Nicholas DiMarzio Award for Leadership, an Honorary Doctorate Degree from Scranton University, and the Shield of Loyola Award from St. Joseph's University.

Relatives and friends attended his viewing in the Healey Funeral Home, Haddon Heights, and also at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, Camden, where his Funeral Mass was celebrated.

In lieu of flowers, Bob requested donations to charities supported by The Robert T Healey Sr Charitable Trust, which include the Healey International Relief Foundation (<https://hirf.net/>), the Healey Education Foundation (healeyeducation.org), and the Gleneayre Equestrian Program (gepnj.org).

Terrilee Brennan (Dec. 23rd)

Terrilee Brennan, 56, formerly Wilson Miloshevsky, of Gloucester City passed away peacefully on December 10, 2021, at Cooper Hospital.

Born on May 3, 1965, to the late Frank and Henrietta (nee Gulkis), Wilson and was a resident of both Bellmawr and Gloucester City in her adult years. Terri loved helping those around her so much so that she often worked in jobs where she was able to interact with clients. This eventually led to her starting her own cleaning business giving her the opportunity to provide a service and establish friendships at the same time.

Terrilee loved being a mom, and she was a second mom to her children's friends. As her children and their friends grew up, they always could count on her to be there when they were in need. Her home had an open-door policy, and all were invited to visit. Holidays were so special to Terrilee, especially New Year's Day. She enjoyed watching the mummings, in person or on television. In her younger years she marched with Landi Comics Club.

Throughout the year, she never ceased to amaze those around her with decorations and costumes for the various holidays. She loved to create and show off her creations, and let's not forget to mention the "bling." Terri enjoyed listening to all types of music, from Country to AC/DC. In her spare time, she loved attending festivals and concerts. She also loved to take trips to the shore, watching Horse Races, and loved to entertain family and friends. Though she was not a sports fanatic, she did enjoy watching the Eagles and the Phillies.

Described by her father and husband, Terrilee was a "whirlwind" – as she had more energy than anyone they ever knew. Some adjectives that best describe her are, funny, witty, helping, loving, warm, caring, and comforting. She truly was a one-of-a-kind lady.

Beloved wife and best friend to Robert Brennan, who she lovingly nicknamed "tubby." Loving mother of Michael Miloshevsky, Anthony Miloshevsky and Melissa Miloshevsky and mother-in-law to Lisa (Michael) Miloshevsky. Sister to Cheryl (Wilson) Murray, Rose (Wilson) MacFarland, Brian Wilson, and the late Steven Wilson. Sister-in-Law to Laura (Brennan) and Mike Sherker.

Also, she will be sadly missed by her nieces, nephews, cousins, and many extended family members as well as friends.

Relatives and friends gathered to celebrate her life in the Murphy Ruffenach Brian W Donnelly Funeral Home of Gloucester City, 523-25 Cumberland St., where her Memorial Services were held. Burial was private.

Family would prefer donations in lieu of flowers to assist with final expenses. Additional donations to the American Cancer Society in honor of Terrilee can also be made.

At the request of his family, services will be private.

Funeral arrangements entrusted to the McCann-Healey Funeral Home, 851 Monmouth St., Gloucester City.

Joan S. Brennan (Dec. 30th)

Joan S. Brennan (nee Green), 85, of Runnemede passed away on December 16, 2021.

Beloved wife of the late Francis L. Brennan Jr. Devoted mother of Margaret M. Vance (Ralph Jr.), Anna M. Chain (the late Scott), Theresa G. Vartebedian (Tim Jenkinson), Francis "Pete" L. Brennan III, and the late Joan F. Clark. Mother-in-law of John R. Vartebedian and James E. Clark. Loving Gram of Chris, Samantha, Sabrina, Ralph, Joan, Jessica, Scott Jr, Taylor, Madison, Jennie, Johnnie, Timmy, Francis L. "Petey" IV, Julie, and the late Joey and Jim. Great grandmother of 15 and one on the way. Preceded in death by her nine siblings. She is also survived by many nieces and nephews.

Joan was a beautiful, selfless woman who was first and foremost a dedicated mother, grandmother, and GG. She loved taking care of all her children and took pride in being the "Matriarch" of the family. She taught us how to love which is a testament of the love we all have for our own families.

As part owner of Family Five Homes and Bren-Boy Appraisal Services, she assisted her children in any way she could to help them succeed in life. Her daily presence in the family businesses will be sorely missed.

She loved going to the casinos, basket demonstrations, Curves, and shopping. Everyone who knew her saw her inner and outer beauty and always thought she was one of the sisters. She went to be with her one and only true love in life, her husband Pete.

The viewing was in the Gardner Funeral Home, 126 S. Black Horse Pike, Runnemede. The Funeral Mass was celebrated in St. Teresa Church, Runnemede. Interment was in St. Joseph's Cemetery, Chews Landing.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in Joan's name to the charity of your choice.
