Patricia Thomas (August 27th)

Patricia "Tricksy" Thomas (nee Beel), 61, of Bellmawr, passed away peacefully at home surrounded by her husband and children on August 14, 2020.

Patricia was born on July 31, 1959 in Camden and was raised in Gloucester City by her parents, Patricia and Joseph Fanelli, with her three siblings. Soon after graduating from Gloucester City High School in 1977, Tricksy met her beloved Paul. Their love story unfolded and Paul and Patricia were married on October 25, 1980, at Trinity Lutheran Church in Runnemede.

Patricia and Paul started a family in 1982 and since then she has starred in her favorite role as mother to Paul and Devon. In addition to her devotion to being a mom, Patricia cherished her role as Mom Mom to her five adoring grandchildren. Tricksy was a selfless and caring wife, mother, sister, grandmother, aunt and friend.

She loved spending time at the beach, especially Wildwood, and in the Poconos, going tubing and walking through nature. She loved amusement parks and laughing with her children on the rides. She was a free spirit who loved sitting by a fire and listening to music while enjoying a glass of red wine. Some of her favorite memories include attending many concerts in her lifetime with family and friends.

Patricia worked in the mortgage industry for over 25 years where she made many lifelong friends on whom she left a lasting impression. Tricksy loved and supported her family and friends unconditionally. Her loved ones describe her as kind, caring, patient, sweet, sincere, selfless, funny, and above all, beautiful. She loved to laugh and make people laugh and we all loved her sense of humor. She would stop what she was doing at the drop of a hat to help a family member or friend in need.

Tricksy will be eternally missed, but her memory will stay alive through her children and grandchildren. Beloved wife of 40 years to Paul. Devoted mother of Paul (Diane) and Devon Doughty (Michael). Loving grandmother of Jayson, Kyle, Michael, Lily, and Luke. Cherished daughter of the late Patricia and Joseph Fanelli. Dear sister of Deborah (Butch), Joseph, and the late Shawn (the late George). Stepsister of Sandi and Joseph, sister-in-law of Margie (Roy), Barb, Debbie, and Joey (Deanne). Also survived by countless nieces, nephews, and beloved friends. The Funeral Service was held at the Gardner Funeral Home, 126 S. Black Horse Pike, Runnemede. Interment was private at the request of the family.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in Patricia's memory to the Cholangiocarcinoma Foundation, 5526 W 13400 S, #510, Herriman, UT 84096 or by visiting <https://cholangiocarcinoma.org/donate/>.

Phyllis A. Wild (August 27th)

Life is not made up of great sacrifices or duties, but of little things in which smiles and kindness are what show heart and grace. It's those little things that make life big. Phyllis A. Wild was intent, resolute and candid. Her world might have been small, but her life was big. It was family, tennis, the beach, a cozy book and, of course, a good cup of decaf coffee. Enjoy those little things. One day you'll look back and realize they were big things.

After 73 years, and an 8-year battle with cancer, that one day came on Wednesday, August 12, 2020. Phyllis passed away peacefully at home in Clayton. To the world, she was just a mother and grandmother, but to our family she was our world.

Phyllis was born in Putnam, CT and had spent many years in Maryland, Virginia and most recently South Jersey. Over the years she had worked as a hairdresser and bookkeeper, but her true passion was her grandchildren. She was her grandchildren's #1 fan!

Phyllis was the daughter of the late Earl Wild and Mary (nee Marszalek) Wild. She is survived by her daughters Kristen and her husband Dean Peterson and Kimberly Grover. Phyllis is the proud grandmother of Victoria Ruff and Roy and Jack Peterson. She is also survived and will be sadly missed by her siblings: Sandra Roth, Earl Wild, Jr. and Patti Couture; as well as her fur babies Bean, Fred, Sophie, Charlie & Millie.

Relatives, friends and neighbors are invited to gather with the family to remember and pay tribute to Phyllis on Saturday, August 29, between 11 a.m. and 1 p.m. at Creran Celebration Etherington & Creran Funeral Homes, 400 White Horse Pike, Oaklyn. The reuniting of those we love with nature will be held privately. As an expression of sympathy and in lieu of flowers, contributions can be made to Angelic Hospice, 1050 Mantua Pike, first floor, Wenonah, NJ 08090, or www.angelichospice.net.
