Gloucester City News Obituaries
August 2025

To see the obituaries in context on the newspaper page and to see any photos included, please ask to see the back issues, which may be in paper or microfilm format.

Frank N. Cipolone (Aug. 7th)

Frank N. Cipolone, 87, a lifelong resident of Brooklawn, passed away on July 24, 2025.

Loving and devoted husband of 61 years to Genevieve Cipolone (nee Stinsman). Loving father of Tracy Cipolone Farrow, Gina Cipolone and Dominick Cipolone (Lisa). Beloved grandfather of John (Chelsea), Ashley (Kyle), Frankie, Taylor (Jeff), Dominick, Nicole and Michael, and great-grandfather of Mya, Zeppelin (Sarah & Angelo), Genevieve and Jackson. Dear brother of Michael Cipolone, AnnaMarie Striewski (late Jack) and the late Joseph Cipolone.

He is also survived by many loving nieces, nephews, cousins and his beloved Kawama Family in Key Largo, Florida, where he and Genevieve enjoyed their annual three months each year.

Frank was a graduate of Gloucester High School and proudly served our country in the U.S. Army. Frank was the oldest original resident of Brooklawn and proud 2nd Street neighbor, a street that was renamed after his family. He served for many years on the Brooklawn Board of Education and was a Eucharistic Minister for St. Maurice Church. Frank will be missed by his "family" at the Planet Fitness in Brooklawn.
Relatives and friends attended Frank's viewing at the McCann-Healey Funeral Home, 851 Monmouth St., Gloucester City. The next day was another viewing in St. Vincent Pallotti Church, Haddon Township, where his Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated. Interment with U.S. military honors was in New St. Mary's Cemetery, Bellmawr.

In lieu of flowers, please remember Frank with a donation to Paralyzed Veterans of America online at www.pva.org Please memo, Frank N. Cipolone.
Condolences and memories may be shared at www.mccannhealey.com.

William Donley Jr. (Aug. 7th)

William Bowen Donley Jr., 85, of Gloucester City passed away on July 21, 2025.

Born in Norristown, PA, he was the son of the late William B. Donley Sr. and Dorothy (nee Pourron) Donley.
He is survived by his beloved wife of 55 years, Louise (nee Farley) Donley; loving children, William B. Donley III and Louise Suloff (Mark); his cherished grandchildren, Matthew and Zachary Suloff; and his loving brother, John Morgan, and loving sister, Lillian Morgan.

Bill was also predeceased by his stepmother, Catherine Donley; his brothers, James Donley, Robert Donley and David Grover, and his sister Dorothy DeLeo.

Bill drove trucks and was a night shift manager for Tischler Express and later with John Jeffrey Corp in Gloucester City. He attended Hope Christian Fellowship Church and was a member of the Teamsters Local 676 in Collingswood.

He was a certified bowling instructor at Westbrook Lanes Family Bowling Center in Brooklawn. Bill loved coaching bowling, especially the Saturday morning youth leagues at Westbrook, where he became a fixture in helping kids learn to bowl. He also helped coach the Gloucester High School Bowling team. He wore "Mr. Bill" as a badge of honor.

He was loved, greatly. Bill loved to tell jokes and had a great sense of humor even in hard times. He was a Philadelphia sports fanatic of the Phillies, Eagles and 76ers, and enjoyed attending local comic book and trading card shows with his family. He was also a huge fan of old cowboy movies, Clint Eastwood, Batman and Superman. He would always have a song to sing and especially loved to do an impersonation of Elvis Presley when singing "Happy Birthday." He did his impressions, sang and joked up to his near last moments. His last heard words were. "I love you."

Bill's Funeral Services were celebrated Hope Christian Fellowship, 246 King St. Woodbury. Interment was held privately.

Condolences and memories may be shared at www.mccannhealey.com under the obituary of William Bowen Donley Jr. Funeral arrangements entrusted to the McCann-Healey Funeral Home, 851 Monmouth St., Gloucester City.

Colleen Cunningham-Carey (August 14th)

Colleen Cunningham-Casey, 57, of Pennsauken, formerly of Gloucester City, passed away on August 3, 2025.

Born and raised in Philadelphia, she was the daughter of the late Edward and Annamarie (D'Amico) Cunningham. She is survived by her husband, Scott Carey Sr.; loving children Scott Carey Jr., Austin Carey and Colin Carey; her brother, Edward Cunningham; sister, Patricia Cunningham; aunt, Kathleen Jones; niece Denise Jones and great niece and nephews, Nevaeh, Mason, Adrianna and Josiah.

Relatives and friends are invited to her visitation on Friday, August 22, from 1 to 2 p.m., at the McCann-Healey Funeral Home, 851 Monmouth St., Gloucester City, where her Funeral Service will be celebrated at 2 p.m. Interment will private.

Condolences and memories may be shared at www.mccannhealey.com.

Karenanne Cutler (August 14th)

Surrounded by her family, Karenanne Cutler (nee Houlihan), 67, of Gloucester City passed peacefully on July 24, 2025.

She is predeceased by her husband of 38 years, David F. Cutler Jr.; her son, Ryan Cutler; and her sister, Maryanne Damminger. Karenanne is survived by her children, Kathryn Quandt, David F. Cutler, III (Christine), Jason Cutler and Kelsey Cutler; her grandchildren, Bailey Morgan, Aaliyah Kershaw, David F. Cutler, IV, Ethan Quandt, Benjamin Quandt, Hannah Quandt and Kierstin Boccaleri; her brothers, Ed Houlihan, Bernie Houlihan and Tim Houlihan; as well as many loving nieces and nephews.

Karenanne was a lifelong resident of Gloucester City. She enjoyed crafting, reading a great book, tending to her garden, trips to the beach and caring for her cats.

Relatives and friends attended her viewing in the McCann-Healey Funeral Home, 851 Monmouth St., Gloucester City, where her Funeral Service was celebrated at 12 PM. Interment will follow in New St. Mary's Cemetery, Bellmawr.

In lieu of flowers, please remember Karenanne with a donation to The National Multiple Sclerosis Society online at https://donate.nationalmssociety.org/.

Condolences and memories may be shared at www.mccannhealey.com.

Kathleen Hart (August 14th)

Kathleen C. Hart (nee Staepel), 68, of Westville passed away on August 2, 2025.

She was predeceased by her husband of 49 years, Robert Hart Sr. Survived by her children, Robert Hart, Jr. (Aimee), Theresa Hart (Brian Dromgoole), Joseph Hart (Amanda), Kathleen Wallace (Gregory), Christopher Hart (Laura) and Julia Hart (Richard Muller); grandchildren Robert III, Bridget, Elise, Connor, Kaitlyn, Daniel, Michael, Andrew, Anna, Emma, Maryanne, Julia and Zachary; brothers, Phillip Staepel and Robert Staepel; sisters, Linda Fitch and Joyce Staepel, as well as many nieces and nephews. Kathleen was predeceased by her parents Edward J. Staepel and Florence (nee Gorman) Staepel.

Relatives and friends attended her viewing in St. Mary's Church, Gloucester City, where her Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated. Interment followed at Eglington Cemetery, Clarksboro.

Condolences and memories may be shared at www.mccannhealey.com. Funeral arrangements entrusted to the McCann-Healey Funeral Home, 851 Monmouth St., Gloucester City.

Patricia A. McCollum-Bylone (August 14th)

Patricia A. McCollum-Bylone, 66, of National Park passed away on July 31, 2025.Born in Philadelphia, PA, she was the daughter of the late, Howard W Long Sr. and Lorraine (nee Baumester) Long.

She is survived by her beloved husband of 38 years, Charles J. Bylone; loving children, Theodore McCollum, Charles M. Bylone (Paddie), Daniel Bylone (Sarah) and Lindsay Bylone (Mike); cherished grandchildren, Ryan, Kylie, Bentley, Jordyn, Kane and Shayla; brother, Howard W. Long Jr. (Kathy); sisters, Eleanor Enright (Tom), Linda Dougherty (Dennis), Katherine Monk (the late: John) and Dianna Hodson (Frank); and many nieces and nephews including Tommy, Taylor and Alexa Enright.

Patricia was also predeceased by her infant son, Christopher McCollum, in 1984 and her daughter, Kristina M. McCollum, on April 28, 2023.

Relatives and friends attended her viewing at the McCann-Healey Funeral Home, 851 Monmouth St., Gloucester City, where her Funeral Service was celebrated. Interment was in Eglington Cemetery, Clarksboro.

Condolences and memories may be shared at www.mccannhealey.com.

Joesph Viggiano (August 21st)

Joseph L. Viggiano, 74, passed away peacefully on August 12, 2025, surrounded by his family.

Joe was a long-time resident of Mount Ephraim and was a retired ironworker for Local 405. He was a member of the Knights of Columbus, loved Philly sports, and made many laugh without really trying. He was a great storyteller and lots of fun to be around, especially at local establishments such as Mulligans.

He was loved dearly and will be sorely missed by his family and many friends.

Joe leaves behind his children Jennifer (Tommy), Monica (Dom) and Lenny (Tyler); sister Anna; grandchildren Tommy, Joey, Rocco, LJ, Roman and Giada, niece and nephew Christina and Steven (Amy), and former spouses and mothers of his children Peggy Maxwell and Debbie Auletto.

He is predeceased by his mother and father, Rose and Leonard, and his sister Esther.

Relatives and friends attended his viewing in the Gardner Funeral Home, 126 S. Black Horse Pike, Runnemede. His Funeral Mass was celebrated in St. Rose of Lima Church, Haddon Heights. Interment was at Calvary Cemetery.

Elizabeth Cunane (August 28th)

Elizabeth C. “Liz” Cunane, 74, of Lindenwold, formerly of Lindenwold and Gloucester City, passed away on Aug. 15, 2025.

She is the daughter of the late William H. and Elizabeth Cunane, and is survived by brothers Charles (late Peggy) and Frank (Barbara); sisters-in-law Annabelle and Marie, and many nieces, nephews, great-nieces and great-nephews. Elizabeth is predeceased by brothers William, George, and Peter.

A graduate of Haddon Township High School Class of 1969, Liz retired from Bell Tel after 34 years.
She was known for her fun spirit, contagious laugh, and camera always in hand. She had a special love for cats, generously caring for her own and for many strays.

Family and friends attended her viewing in the Jackson Funeral Home, Haddon Township, where her Funeral Service was celebrated. Interment was in Silverbrook Cemetery, Wilmington, DE.

In lieu of flowers contributions in her memory may be made to AWA, 509 Centennial Blvd., Voorhees, NJ 08043.

Theresa M. Alonso (August 28th)

Theresa M. Alonso (nee Bangle), 62, lovingly known as Terri, passed suddenly at home in Gloucester City on August 14, 2025.

Loving and devoted wife of 30 years to Joseph Alonso. Loving mother of Jamie Ritucci and her husband, Santino. Loving Mom-Mom of Valentino Ritucci, who she adored and cherished the time they spent together. Beloved daughter of Eugene "Gene" Bangle, Sr. (Peggy) and the late Laura Williams (surviving John Williams). Loving sister of Eugene "Gene" Bangle, Jr. (Selina - predeceased), William Bangle (Janice), Michael Bangle (Carol), Steven Bangle (Carol), Andrew Bangle (Donna) and Edward Bangle (Michelle). Also survived by many loving nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends who were like family.

A lifelong resident of Gloucester City, Terri was a graduate of Gloucester High School Class of 1981. Terri served as a cafeteria aide at Cold Springs Elementary School and was also part of the Nutri-Serve Food Management team at Gloucester Middle School.

She was a bright and uplifting presence in the school community, caring deeply for every child and bringing warmth and joy to all of her colleagues.

Terri was a cherished member of the New Apostolic Church in Cinnaminson. She treasured her time in Brigantine and Atlantic City, and especially loved being out on the boat. Terri's home was always filled with laughter and love during the holiday gatherings she hosted for family and friends. She had a gentle heart for animals, finding great joy in caring for her dogs and chickens.

Relatives and friends attended her visitation at the McCann-Healey Funeral Home, Monmouth St., Gloucester City, where her Funeral Services were celebrated. Interment will be private.

Condolences and memories may be shared at www.mccannhealey.com under the obituary of Theresa M. Alonso.