Gloucester City News Obituaries
October 2025

To see the obituaries in context on the newspaper page and to see any photos included, please ask to see the back issues, which may be in paper or microfilm format.

Tricia Ann Sullivan (Oct. 2nd)

Tricia Ann Sullivan, 55, of Brooklawn passed away on September 25, 2025.

She is survived by her sons, Dillon Massi, Ryan Levick and Paul Levick; her father, Eugene "Gene" Sullivan; her granddaughter, Julianna Isabella Massi; and her brother John Sullivan, Sr. (Sharon). Tricia was predeceased by her mother, Patricia Ann Sullivan (nee Moore).

Tricia was a graduate of Gloucester City High School and many years as a server at Ponzio's Brooklawn. A passionate Philadelphia sports fan and lover of rock and roll, Tricia never missed an opportunity to cheer on the Eagles and Phillies or sing along to her favorite classic rock songs.

Relatives and friends attended her visitation on Oct. 1 in the McCann-Healey Funeral Home, 851 Monmouth St., Gloucester City, where her Funeral Services were celebrated. Interment followed in New St. Mary's Cemetery, Bellmawr.

Condolences and memories may be shared at www.mccannhealey.com.

Carol A. Monforte (Oct, 9th)

Carol A. Monforte, 83, of Brooklawn, surrounded by family, passed away on October 1, 2025.

Born in Gloucester City, she was the daughter of the late Howard J. and Caroline (nee Wideman) Theckston. Carol is survived by her husband of 64 years, Louis A. Monforte; daughters, Caroline Tisot (Robert Sokolove) and MaryBeth Morrison (Steven); granddaughters Victoria Tisot, Katie Tisot and her grandson, Daniel Morrison. Carol was also predeceased by her brothers, Norman, Howard and Warren Theckston.

A homemaker, Carol loved spending time with her family and cherished her time with her grandchildren.

Relatives and friends attended her visitation in St. Mary's Catholic Church, Gloucester City, were her Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated. Entombment was in New St. Mary's Cemetery, Bellmawr.

Condolences and memories may be shared at www.mccannhealey.com. Funeral arrangements entrusted to the McCann-Healey Funeral Home, 851 Monmouth St., Gloucester City.

Doris Smith (Oct, 9th)

Doris E. Smith (nee Humphreys), 79, of Mullica Hill, formerly of Runnemede, passed away peacefully on September 29, 2025, at the age of 79.

She was the beloved wife of Warren Smith for 57 beautiful years. A devoted mother to Mark Smith (Carolyn) and Gary Smith (Connie), and the most loving "Mom-Mom" to her cherished grandchildren – Ashely, Megan, Kennedy, and Avery – who were truly the light of her life.

Doris is also survived by her dear sister, Mary Tyler, along with many nieces, nephews, and lifelong friends who loved her dearly. She is preceded in death by her parents, Charles and Wanda Humphreys, and her brother Chuck. Doris spent many years as a teacher, where her gentle spirit and kindness touched countless young lives. She adored the Philadelphia Phillies, loved scrapbooking and crafting, and found joy in the simple things – especially family trips to Ocean City, NJ, where so many treasured memories were made.

Above all, Doris was a woman of deep love and unwavering dedication to her family. Her warmth, laughter, and constant support will be missed more than words can say.

Family and friends attended her viewing in Trinity Lutheran Church, Runnemede, where her Funeral Service was celebrated. Interment was private at the family's request.

In lieu of flowers, donations in Doris's memory may be made to Trinity Lutheran Church, https://trinityrunnemede.org/donations.html.

Funeral arrangements entrusted to the Gardner Funeral Home, 126 S. Black Horse Pike, Runnemede.

Paul M. Kolsun III (Oct. 23rd)

Paul M. Kolsun III, 87, of Gloucester City passed away on October 8, 2025. He is predeceased by his parents, Paul M. Kolsun Jr. and M. Alice Kolsun (nee Tally).

Paul is survived by his sisters, Patricia "Trish" Kalbach (Keith) and Linda Broughton (Donald); nieces Kerri Kalbach (Amanda), Kimberly Carkeek (Sean) and Kourtney McClintock (Kyle); and it the great-uncle of Chloe, Riley, Natalie, Lucas, Zachary, and Cooper. Longtime companion of Joan White.

Paul was a graduate of Gloucester High School Class of 1970. He grew up around his family business, PAP Wholesale on the corner of Market and King. Paul enjoyed working alongside his family for over 40 years.

Later in life he worked many years for Heritage Wholesale in Thorofare. After his retirement, he worked part-time for the City of Gloucester, as part of Park Security. Paul was a longtime, dedicated volunteer of Gloucester City Fire Department 52 and 53. He was a life and exempt member of NJ State Firemen's Association as well as a member of the Glasstown Antique Fire Brigade and Repaupo Fire Museum.

Paul enjoyed spending his summers at Holiday Haven Campground, collecting model trains, and collecting and restoring fire trucks.

Relatives and friends are invited to his viewing on Sunday, Oct. 26, from 3 to 5 p.m. in the McCann-Healey Funeral Home, 851 Monmouth St., Gloucester City, followed by his Funeral Services being celebrated at 5 p.m. Interment will be private in New St. Mary's Cemetery, Bellmawr.

In lieu of flowers, please remember Paul with a donation to a charity of your choice.
Condolences and memories may be shared at www.mccannhealey.com.

Christopher James (Oct. 30th)

Christopher Fulton "Stix" James, 58, of Gloucester City passed away peacefully on October 15, 2025.

"Jamesy" was predeceased by his parents, William F. James and Rosemary James (nee Keoghan).

Chris is the beloved father of Shannon (Joseph) Aboushanab, Angela James and Elizabeth James; the cherished grandfather of Samir and Ramy Aboushanab; and the beloved brother of Therese (Mike) Smollock, late William James (surviving Virginia), late Michael James (late Jo-Ann), late Kathy James, Patrick James, late Steven James, Maria (Tom) Kerchersky, David James, and Marybeth (Scott) Jeffries. He is also survived by many loving nieces, nephews and cousins.

Chris was born in Camden and was a lifelong and proud resident of Gloucester City. He graduated in 1985 from Camden County Vocational & Technical Schools where he proceeded to prove his hard work ethic through working for the City of Gloucester as a Laborer for several years, and for InTest under the Mechanical Assembly department for over 15 years.

He was a former member of the Gloucester City String Band and the Broomall String Band. Chris was a diehard fan of the Buffalo Bills, enjoyed spending his time outside, with friends, and drumming away in the garage with a smile and a wave.

Relatives and friends attended his visitation at the McCann-Healey Funeral Home, Monmouth St., Gloucester City, where his Funeral Service was celebrated. Interment was private.

Condolences and memories may be shared at www.mccannhealey.com under the obituary of Christopher F. James.

Mary Jane Goheen (Oct. 30th)

Mary Jane Goheen, 82, of Gloucester City passed away at Cooper Hospital in Camden on Saturday, October 18, 2025.

Born in Camden, New Jersey, she was the daughter of the late Raymond and the late Henrietta (nee Dunn) Richards. Mary Jane is survived by her husband of 40 years, John Goheen. She is also survived by her niece, Heather; four nephews, Raymond, Ryan, Bobby and Todd; her great-nieces, Victoria, Julia, Gia, Deven, Riley, Bella, Emily Jane and Alexia; and her great-nephews; Bobby, Oliver and Royce. Mary Jane was also predeceased by her brothers, Robert and Ralph.

Mary Jane was an employee of the Delaware River Port Authority of Pennsylvania and New Jersey for over 40 years since graduating from Gloucester Catholic High School. She was past president of Professional Secretaries International, Camden Chapter. Mary Jane was a devoted parishioner of Saint Mary's Church in Gloucester City, where she was longtime director of St. Mary's Saints and Singers.

She served as a delegate to the New Jersey Governor's Library Study Conference and was a member of the Bishop's Family Life Commission of the Diocese of Camden. Mary Jane was one of four recipients of the YWCA Career Achievement Recognition Award in 1984.

Relatives, friends and former and current Delaware River Port Authority employees attended Mary Jane's visitation in St. Mary's Church, Gloucester City, where her Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated. Inurnment followed in New Saint Mary's Cemetery, Bellmawr.

Family requests in lieu of flowers memorial donations in Mary Jane's name to St. Mary's Church, 426 Monmouth St., Gloucester City, NJ, 08030.

Condolences and memories may be shared at www.mccannhealey.com under the obituary of Mary Jane Goheen. Funeral arrangements entrusted to the McCann-Healey Funeral Home, 851 Monmouth St., Gloucester City.

William Rouh Sr. (Oct. 30th)

William E. "Bill" Rouh Sr., 84, of Gloucester City passed away on October 21, 2025.

William is survived by his children, Annmarie (Dennis), William Jr. (Dena), Marcie and Christopher (Carla); his grandchildren who were the apples of his eyes, Taylor, Kyle, Patrick, Raymond, Caitlin, Carleigh and Gianna; as well as several nieces. He is predeceased by his parents, William H. Rouh and Lottie Fuse; his beloved wife, MaryAnn (nee Ellenbark; his daughter, MaryAnn; and his sisters, Lois, Margaret, Virginia and Annie.

Bill was committed to serving his country and his community. He served in the U.S. Air Force with Security Services and was stationed in Misawa, Japan, and Frankfurt, Germany, from 1961-66. He was a volunteer firefighter at Station 52 in Gloucester City, and was Treasurer of the Association in all four fire companies.