Gloucester City News Obituaries
January 2026

To see the obituaries in context on the newspaper page and to see any photos included, please ask to see the back issues, which may be in paper or microfilm format.

James M. Evans (Jan. 8th)

James M. Evans, 62, of Bellmawr passed away on December 27.

He is survived by his children, Harry Vansciver III, Sarah Evans and James Evans Jr.; grandson Harry Vansciver IV; wife Karen Lalena Evans; siblings John Evans and Cheryl (Lenny) Sproul; and many loving nieces and nephews.

James enjoyed watching sports and was an avid Dallas Cowboys fan. He also loved history, movies, and rock-n-roll.

Relatives and friends attended his visitation in the Ora Wooster Funeral Home, Clementon, where his Memorial Service was celebrated. In lieu of flowers, memorial donations to the family would be appreciated.

Rosemary L. Dick (Jan. 8th)

Surrounded by and in the loving care of her family, Rosemary "Roe" Dick passed peacefully at home in Bellmawr on December 21, 2025, at the age of 83.

Loving mother of Michelle Carney (Bill), Michael R. Dick (Crystal) and Raymond J. Dick (Natasha). Cherished GG of Ashley Morelli (Kyle), Kristina Brady (James), Ryan Carney (Kayley), Zachary Carney (Nicole), Dakotah Spisak, Jace Dick and Gracie Wilson and great-grandchildren Jaxon, Eva, Nora, Landon and Brinley. She was the longtime loving partner of Harold J. Minnett. Loving aunt of many nieces and nephews and second daughter, Danielle Susini. Predeceased by her husband Raymond E. Dick.

One of seven children to the late John J. Susini Sr. and Marion Susini (nee Sharp), Rosemary worked many years as a teacher's aide for Gloucester City public schools.

Relatives and friends attended her visitation in St. Mary's Church, Gloucester City, where her Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated. Interment was in New St. Mary's Cemetery, Bellmawr.

In lieu of flowers, please remember Rosemary with a donation to Alzheimer's Association online at https://www.alz.org/get-involved-now/donate.

Condolences and memories may be shared at www.mccannhealey.com under the obituary of Rosemary L. Dick. Funeral arrangements entrusted to the McCann-Healey Funeral Home, 851 Monmouth St., Gloucester City.

Barbara C. Donaghy (Jan. 15th)

Surrounded by her family, Barbara C. Donaghy (nee Saunders), 86, of Audubon, formerly of Gloucester City, passed peacefully on January 5, 2026, at Cooper Hospital in Camden.

She was the loving wife of the late Francis P. Donaghy Jr. Loving mother of Marge Gorman (Matthew), Bill Donaghy and Laura Galm. Beloved grandmother of Jennie, Rachel (Erin), Zachary (Brianna), Shane (Amy), Brian, Kyle and Holly. Cherished great-grandmother of Alyssa and Bryce. Barbara was eagerly awaiting the arrival of her next great grandchild, due June 2026, and will forever be their guardian angel. Dear sister of the late Jeanne Viggiano (surviving Bob). Also survived by her beloved nieces, Sandi (Rob) and Linda (Steve), and many great nieces and nephews.

Barbara was born in Philadelphia, PA on July 8, 1939, to the late William Coward Saunders and Jennie Craven Saunders (nee Smith). She worked many years delivering the Philly Inquirer in and around Gloucester City, as well as labeling newspapers for the Gloucester City News.

Barbara was a bookkeeper for Midlantic Bank and loved the time she spent as a seamstress where she made mummers costumes. Barbara was a longtime member of Logan Memorial Presbyterian Church in Audubon and an avid fan of the Philadelphia Flyers.

Relatives and friends are invited to her visitation on Saturday morning, Jan. 17, from 10 to 11:30 a.m. in the McCann-Healey Funeral Home, 851 Monmouth St., Gloucester City, where her Funeral Service will be celebrated at 11:30 a.m. Interment will follow in Locustwood Memorial Park Mausoleum, Cherry Hill.

In lieu of flowers, please remember Barbara with a donation to Angels Community Outreach online at https://angelsoutreach.org/donations/. Condolences and memories may be shared at www.mccannhealey.com under the obituary of Barbara C. Donaghy.

George Merryfield Jr. (Jan. 15th)

On January 7, 2026, one day shy of his 72nd birthday, George W. Merryfield Jr. passed peacefully in his sleep at his home in Woodbury.

Formerly of Gloucester City, George was predeceased by his parents, George W. Merryfield Sr. and Jane Merryfield (née Harris). George is survived by his sons, George W. Merryfield III (Megan) and Lewis Merryfield (Rachael); his grandchildren, Kyle, George IV, Josie, Nate, Annabelle, Olivia and Lewie; and his siblings, Anna Champion (Jim), Robyn Merryfield (Joe), Jane "Tina" Klein (Murray), Floyd Merryfield, Mary Merryfield, Susan Stilley and Lori DeLaurentis. He is also survived by many loving nieces, nephews, cousins, aunts, and friends who were like family – too numerous to measure.

George was the former owner and operator of Master Flooring and Remodeling in Norristown, PA. He enjoyed trips to the casino and trying his luck with scratch-off lottery tickets. His cell phone was his constant companion, and he was always happy to answer calls from family and friends.

George enjoyed visiting his favorite local gathering places – often stopping in simply to say hello and spend time with those he cared about. A devoted sports fan, he never missed watching the Eagles or the Phillies. He also found joy in listening to music, fishing, and taking pride in his well-loved collection of hats.

George was deeply devoted to his work with the We Can Foundation, a mission that became central to his life and purpose. He gave selflessly of his time and heart, walking alongside individuals and families facing difficult circumstances and offering them hope, dignity, and encouragement.

Through his unwavering compassion and commitment to service, George helped change and improve countless lives. His work with We Can was a true reflection of the kindness, generosity, and humanity that defined who he was.

Relatives and friends are invited to attend his Celebration of Life on Saturday, Jan. 17, from 12 noon to 2 p.m. in the Pine Grove Fire Hall, 827 Jersey Ave., Gloucester City. A Prayer Service for George will begin at 1:30 p.m. As a show of support for the two things George loved the most, please come dressed in your Eagles or We Can gear.

In lieu of flowers, please remember George with a donation to the We Can Foundation, c/o 573 Homewood Lane, Williamstown, NJ 08094.

Condolences and memories may be shared at www.mccannhealey.com under the obituary of George W. Merryfield Jr. Funeral arrangements entrusted to the McCann-Healey Funeral Home, 851 Monmouth St., Gloucester City.

Marie Frances Spencer (Jan. 15th)

Marie Frances Spencer (née Taylor), 89, a lifelong resident of Gloucester City, passed away on January 6, 2026.

Marie was the beloved daughter of the late Regina "Jean" and William Taylor, and the adopted daughter of the late James and Emily Hampton. She was the devoted wife of the late Daniel T. Spencer Sr. and the loving mother of Daniel Jr. (Valerie), Randall (Christine) and Steven. She was a cherished grandmother to Jennifer and Daniel III, and an adoring great-grandmother to Colin and Cooper. She is also survived by her former daughters-in-law, Kathy Williams and Linda Spencer, as well as her sister-in-law, Jackie Spencer, along with many nieces, nephews, relatives, and dear friends.

Marie was predeceased by her brothers William (Sis), Charles (Joyce) and Butch (Sue) Taylor; James (Mickie) and Randall (Gertrude) Hampton; her sisters, Grace (Thomas) Sinelli, Lucy DeFeo, Anna (Arthur) Little, Pearl "Sis" (John) Dolan and Mabel (John) Bullock; and by brothers and sisters-in-law William, Joseph (Anna), John (Mary), James (Jane) and Matthew Spencer.

A graduate of Gloucester City High School, Marie treasured her years as a cheerleader and often recounted those memories with joy. She dedicated herself first and foremost to her family and took great pride in her many years of service as a volunteer at St. Mary's Grammar School and with the Gloucester Catholic Parents Club. She remained a devoted parishioner of St. Mary's Church throughout her life.

Marie was also a longtime member of the Gloucester City Little League Ladies Auxiliary, where she served faithfully for many years as vice president. As her children grew, Marie returned to the workforce, beginning as a supervisor with Roy Rogers Restaurants at both the Deptford Mall and Maple Shade locations. Following the passing of her husband in 1987, she continued her professional career as a payroll clerk with the South Jersey Port Corporation and later as an accounts payable clerk with Camden Iron and Metal.

In her retirement, she devoted her time to volunteering with the St. Mary's lunch program, offering compassion and kindness to those in need. Marie took tremendous pride in her children and grandchildren, celebrating Danny and Steven in their String Band and musical pursuits, Randall in baseball, Jennifer in her years of cheerleading like her grandmother before her, and Daniel in his ice hockey career. She was a loyal supporter of the Philadelphia Phillies, a gifted cook and exceptional baker, and found her greatest joy during summer vacations with her family in Avalon.

Relatives attended Marie's viewing in St. Mary's Church, Gloucester City, where her Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated. Entombment with her late husband, Daniel, was in New Saint Mary's Mausoleum, Bellmawr.

The family requests memorial donations in Marie's name be sent to St. Mary's Church, c/o Good Samaritan Program, 426 Monmouth St., Gloucester City, NJ 08030. Memo: Marie Spencer.

Condolences and memories may be shared at www.mccannhealey.com under the obituary of Marie Frances Spencer. Funeral arrangements entrusted to the McCann-Healey Funeral Home, 851 Monmouth St., Gloucester City.

Julia Anne Harris (Jan. 22nd)

Julia Anne "Jule" Harris, 83, of Blackwood, formerly of Gloucester City, Paulsboro and Camden, passed away on January 6, 2026.

Jule was the fun aunt. She was energetic, childlike, wondrous, nurturing, pleasant and easy-going. She tended her house plants at home and spent hours in her vegetable garden, even selling her tomatoes roadside. She also enjoying pressing lady luck on casino trips with her brothers and sisters.

Jule is the daughter of the late Laster and Julia (nee Schwiering) Harris; the sister of the late Lesser Harris, William Harris, Marie Ezzi, Patricia Karlsen and Frank Harris. She is survived and will be deeply missed by her many nieces and nephews, as well as her lifelong best friend, Peggy Lee (nee McKernan).

Relatives and friends attended her Graveside Tribute with prayers at New St. Mary's Cemetery, Bellmawr.

Shea O'Donnell (Jan. 22nd)

Shea Andrew O'Donnell, of Gloucester City, passed away surrounded by his loving family on January 11, 2026 at Virtua Our Lady of Lourdes Hospital in Camden.

Born on Nov. 1, 1988, Shea was a lifelong resident of Gloucester City and a graduate of Gloucester City High School. He earned his associate's degree from Gloucester County Community College and was employed by UPS as a driver in Lawnside. Shea was known for his quick wit, easygoing nature, and the way he could always make people laugh – he always had a joke ready. Those who knew him will remember his humor, loyalty, and the deep love he had for his family and friends.

Sports were an important part of Shea's life. He played football growing up with the Gloucester City Mustangs, baseball with Gloucester Little League, basketball with the Carmen Palmiero League and swam for the Gloucester City Swim team. During his high school years, Shea was an outstanding football and track athlete at Gloucester High. Shea also proudly served his community as a patrolman and was a former Gloucester City police officer from 2013 to 2019.

Shea shared a very close friendship and bond with Mikey DePoder, Sal Russo and Anthony Russo. The O'Donnell family is deeply grateful to Mikey, Sal, and Anthony for always being there for Shea, day in and day out, offering unwavering friendship, love, and support in every way.

Shea was the cherished father of Ava O'Donnell and is also survived by Ava's mother, Laura Hetrick. He is survived by his loving parents, Michael and Denise O'Donnell (nee Francis); his brothers, Keith (Danielle) and Blaise (Madelyn); and was an adored uncle to Kierstynn, Bug, Maxine and Blaise Jr. He is also survived by many devoted aunts, uncles, cousins, extended family members, and friends. Shea was predeceased by his paternal grandparents, Thomas J. O'Donnell Jr. and Kathleen T. O'Donnell (née Delahunty) and by his maternal grandparents, Filmore Francis and Rosemary Francis (nee McDermott). Predeceased by his Godfather and Uncle Kevin O'Donnell and Uncles Paul Cipolone and Steve McNulty.

Shea's last selfless act in life was being an organ and tissue donor and he is giving to many people in need.

Relatives, classmates, and friends attended Shea's visitation in St. Mary's Roman Church, Gloucester City, where his Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated. Cremation and inurnment were be private.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations be made to the Ava O'Donnell Education Fund, care of McCann-Healey Funeral Home, P.O. Box 1071, Bellmawr, New Jersey 08099-1071. Make checks payable to Ava O'Donnell and the memo write: Education Fund.

Condolences and memories may be shared at www.mccannhealey.com under the obituary of Shea Andrew O'Donnell. Funeral arrangements entrusted to the McCann-Healey Funeral Home, 851 Monmouth St., Gloucester City.

Charles J. Reed (Jan. 29th)

Charles Joseph Reed, 93, of Gloucester City, New Jersey, passed away peacefully on January 9, 2026, at Virtua Our Lady of Lourdes Hospital in Camden.

Charles was raised in Lansdowne, PA, and was a longtime resident of Gloucester City and a graduate of Saint Mary's High School (now Gloucester Catholic). He also completed some college coursework at Akron University. Charles proudly served his country in the U.S. Navy during the Korean War. He entered the Navy right out of high school and served for three years, attaining the rank of EM2. During his service, he was awarded the Navy Occupation Service Medal, the National Defense Service Medal, the Korean Service Medal, and the United Nations Service Medal. Charles was honorably discharged on June 3, 1954.

Charles had a career in both skilled sales and skilled trades. He began his professional life in sales with Fuller Brush, a company based in Hartford, CT, Connecticut, with corporate operations in Lakewood. He later worked in sales with Clowntown and Family Record Planning (both portrait companies) in Brecksville, Ohio. In addition to his sales career, Charles was professionally trained and certified as a Mercury Master Mechanic. He took great pride in his work and devoted significant time and care to his trade.

Charles was also a master fabric craftsman and was employed by Buckeye Mobile Canvas, a company specializing in custom boat covers and sails. His precision, dedication, and craftsmanship were evident in everything he did. Earlier in his life, Charles enjoyed racing as an amateur race car driver during the early 1960s in Washington State and Ohio, where he loved racing his Porsche and Fiat.

A devout Roman Catholic, Charles took his faith very seriously. He was a devoted and active parishioner of Saint Mary's Roman Catholic Church in Gloucester City, where he was a daily communicant and faithfully led the rosary following daily Mass. Charles served as the church sacristan for many years and was deeply dedicated to ensuring the church was opened every morning at 7 a.m. and closed each afternoon, seven days a week.

He also served as a Eucharistic Minister, bringing Holy Communion to the sick and shut-ins throughout Gloucester City and the surrounding area, especially those at Gorman Manor and Gloucester Towers. Charles's Sunday routine began with early Mass and continued with visiting parishioners throughout the morning and early afternoon. No matter the season or weather, he was always there for the people he served.

After his military service, Charles developed a lifelong love of boats and sailing. He was an experienced boat captain who sailed to the Bahamas and throughout the Caribbean many times. He was instrumental in Gloucester City's acquisition of the Northwind sailboat and proudly served as its captain for many years. Charles took this responsibility seriously and was known as a dedicated, professional captain who deeply respected the trust placed in him.

Charles was the devoted father of Charles (Vida) Joseph Reed II of Bozeman, MT, Thomas (Connie) Gerard Reed of Cartersville, GA, Georgia; and the late Mary Geralynne Reed. Adored and cherished grandfather of Thomas (Anna) Gerard Reed II and Ashley (Thomas) Ann Riley, and by 12 twelve great-nieces and nephews, as well as many great-great nieces and nephews.

He was predeceased by his parents, Charles M. Reed and Thecla C. Reed (née Carr); his brother, Thomas F. Reed (survived by Kathleen); and his sisters, the Catherine (John) Guinan, Dorothy T. (Edward) Schone.
Relatives and friends attended his visitation at Saint Mary's Church, Gloucester City, where his Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated. Inurnment with his late mother, Thecla, with U.S. Navy Military Honors was at New Saint Mary's Cemetery, Bellmawr.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests memorial donations in Charles's memory be made to his beloved Saint Mary's Church, 426 Monmouth St., Gloucester City, NJ 08030. Please write
"Charles Joseph Reed" in the memo line.

Condolences and memories may be shared at www.mccannhealey.com under the obituary of Charles Joseph Reed.

Funeral arrangements entrusted to the McCann-Healey Funeral Home, 851 Monmouth St. Gloucester City.

Constance Coker (Jan. 29th)

Constance M. “Connie” Coker, 74, passed away peacefully at her home in Gloucester City on December 31, 2025.

Connie is survived by her beloved husband of 51 years, William “Bill” Coker; loving son, Edward Coker; cherished grandchildren, Mason, Conor and Matthew; brothers, Domenico Raddi and Nicholas Raddi; and sisters, Maria Ulissi and Helen Castalelo. Devoted mother- in-law of James McCormick. Beloved brother-in-law of Paul Coker and his children, Cindy Burkett, Peggyann Coker and PJ Coker. Connie was predeceased by her daughter, Stacie M. McCormick, on December 27, 2025; her father, Frank Dill, and her brother, Frank Dill.

Connie was retired from the Underwood Memorial Hospital (Inspira Medical Center) in Woodbury, where she worked as an Environmental Specialist. She enjoyed going to the beach and playing the slots at the casinos in Atlantic City.

Relatives and friends attended Connie’s visitation at the McCann-Healey Funeral Home, 851 Monmouth St., Gloucester City, where her Funeral Service was celebrated by Chaplin Scott Fobare of Suncrest Hospice. Interment will be private at a later date.

Condolences and memories may be shared at www.mccannhealey.com under the obituary of Constance M. Coker.

Ernest Marden (Jan. 29th)

Ernest K. Marden, 70 of Audubon, formerly of Haddonfield and Collingswood, passed away on January 8, 2026, at the age of 70.

Predeceased by his wives, Donna Marden (nee Savage) and Michele Burch; daughter, Jennipher Marden; and his parents, Ernest D. Marden and Anne M. Marden (nee Brown). Ernest is survived by his siblings, Timothy Marden (Patty), Robert Phelps (Pat Rutherford), Nancy Smith (Arthur) and Michael Phelps; grandchildren Noah and Elijah, as well as many nieces and nephews.

Relatives and friends attended his viewing at the McCann-Healey Funeral Home, 851 Monmouth St., Gloucester City, where his Funeral Service was celebrated. Interment was private in Lakeview Memorial Park, Cinnaminson. Condolences and memories may be shared at www.mccannhealey.com under the obituary of Ernest K. Marden.

James Bobo (Jan. 29th)

Surrounded by and in the loving care of his family, James “Bo” Bobo, 88, a lifelong resident of Gloucester City, passed peacefully at home on January 20, 2026.

Loving and devoted husband of 65 years to Betty Ann Bobo. Loving father of Michelle Barbarino (Robert) and Gavin Bobo (Linda). Cherished grandfather of Sean Savidge (Gina), Erik, Emily, Nick and Meghan. Also survived by many loving nieces and nephews. He is predeceased by his siblings, Robert, John, Virginia, Frances, Marie, Jean and Dona. Also survived by many loving nieces and nephews.

Bo was a proud graduate of Gloucester High School, Class of 1955. He went on to honorably serve his country in the U.S. Navy from 1957 to 1961. Following his military service, Bo began his career with the Gloucester City Police Department in 1961, where he proudly served the residents of Gloucester City until his retirement as Sergeant in 1989. After his law enforcement career, Bo worked for many years in maintenance and as a bus driver for Mary Ethel Costello School.

He enjoyed the outdoors, especially hunting, fishing, and gardening. Bo also enjoyed woodworking, Mel Brooks' movies, and was a true lover of music. He was a longtime member of the Salem County Sportsmen's Club. Relatives and friends attended Bo's viewing in the McCann-Healey Funeral Home, 851 Monmouth St., Gloucester City, where his Funeral Service was celebrated. Interment with U.S. Naval Honors was in Eglington Cemetery, Clarksboro.

In lieu of flowers, please remember Bo with a donation to Blood Cancer United at www.bloodcancerunited.org. Condolences and memories may be shared at www.mccannhealey.com under the obituary of James B. Bobo.

John Barrett Sr. (Jan. 29th)

John "Jack" J. Barrett Sr., 78, of Gloucester City, passed away on January 16, 2026.

Born in Camden, he was the son of the late William and Catherine (nee Valentine) Barrett. Jack was predeceased by his wife of 52 years, Rose (nee Crusco) Barrett on October 4, 2020. He survived by his son, Michael Barrett (Andrea Pallies); grandson, Edward Barrett; and his sister, Patricia Barrett. John was also predeceased by his son, John J. Barrett Jr., on October 6, 2018.

Jack proudly served in the U.S. Navy on the USS Carpenter during the Vietnam War. He went on to work as a bricklayer for the Bricklayers Union #12 in Linden. He later worked as security guard at Jefferson Hospital in Cherry Hill and also worked as a nozzleman for the Swim-Mor Pools & American Gunite for 20 years. Catholic Graveside Funeral Services and U.S. Navy Military Funeral Honors were celebrated in the Camden County Veterans Cemetery at Harleigh Cemetery, Camden.

In lieu of flowers, contribution in memory of John may be made to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital, www.stjude.org

Condolences and memories may be shared at www.mccannhealey.com under the obituary of John J. Barrett Sr.

Funeral arrangements entrusted to the McCann-Healey Funeral Home, 851 Monmouth St., Gloucester City.

John Eberle Jr. (Jan. 29th)

John "Jack" George Eberle Jr., 85, of Gloucester City passed away on January 3, 2026.

Born in Camden, he was the son of the late John G. Eberle Sr. and Laura (nee McCormick) Eberle. Beloved husband of the late Mary Ann L. (nee Hyk) Eberle (March 18, 2016). Jack is survived by his loving children, Jean M. Eberle, Karen L. Tomlin, Robert S. Eberle and Jacqueline Heuermann; cherished grandchildren, Jeremy, Joshua, Danielle, Rachel, Sadie and Peyton; and his great grandchildren, Aubrey, Kinsley, Jace, Jordan, Jeremiah, Savanna, Cole and Harper.

Jack proudly served his country in the U.S. Army and later worked as an Assistant Container Terminal Manager for the Delaware River Stevedore Corp. in Philadelphia.

Relatives and friends attended Jack's viewing in the McCann-Healey Funeral Home, 851 Monmouth St., Gloucester City, where his Funeral Service was celebrated. Interment followed privately in the William C. Doyle Veterans Memorial Cemetery, Wrightstown.

In leu of flowers memorial contributions may be made in memory of Jack to the Alzheimer Association at https://donorservices.alz.org or Travis Manion Foundation at www.travismanion.org

Condolences and Memories may be shared at www.mccannhealey.com under the obituary of John G. Eberle Jr.

Richard J. Cyzewski (Jan. 29th)

We are sad to announce the death of Richard John Cyzewski, beloved husband, father, grandfather, mummer, and friend to many, on December 31, 2025.

Richard was born in Philadelphia on August 15, 1930, to Paul and Rose Cyzewski. He attended Northeast High School, and was a star player on their basketball team. One of his first jobs was at the iconic Stetson Hat Company where he met their most famous customer, John Wayne.

Richard proudly served in the U.S. Marine Corps during the Korean War. His difficult to pronounce last name was changed to Ski by a Parris Island boot camp Colonel. It became Richard's life-long nickname. After proudly surviving boot camp, he was stationed at the Pentagon as a staff car driver, responsible for providing specialized transportation services for high-ranking officers, distinguished visitors, and command staff. His most memorable passenger was Neil Armstrong, who Ski described as the nicest guy he met in the Corps.

The love of Richard's life, his soulmate for eternity, is Margaret (Maggie). This September will be their 60th wedding anniversary. During their early years they owned a boat yard, enjoyed boating in a small cabin cruiser, traveled, and had lots of fun. In 1971 they welcomed their daughter, Colleen. Richard lovingly nicknamed her his "Little One" and to his dying day would move mountains for her. She gave him two grandsons, Cullen and Aidan, who filled his heart with love, joy, and pride.

Richard drove a tractor trailer for 35 years. He began his career with Branch Trucking and later worked for Western Kraft, Bellmawr, where he retired. He loved driving and worked hard to provide for and spoil his family. Richard was a longtime member of Teamsters Local Union 676, where he served as a past secretary.

His extended family are the members of the Saturnalian Fancy Brigade. He joined their club in 1971, honored years later as a lifetime member, and in 1987 inducted into the Fancy Brigade Assoc. Old Timers Hall of Fame. On May 19, 2024, the Sats held a special dedication celebration in which they named their clubhouse the "Richie 'Ski' Cyzewski Hall."

He will be remembered as a gentleman who was kind, funny, loyal, hardworking, faith filled, and respected. Richard was preceded in death by his father, Paul Cyzewski, his mother, Rose Cyzewski, and his son-in-law, Brian Steele. He is survived by his wife, Margaret Cyzewski; daughter Colleen Steele; grandson Cullen Steele and grandson Aidan Steele.

Relatives, friends and fellow mummers attended Richard's viewing at Annunciation Church, Bellmawr, where his Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated at 11 AM. Interment was in New St. Mary's Cemetery, Bellmawr.

Donations in his memory can be made to a charity of your choosing.

Condolences and memories may be shared at www.mccannhealey.com under the obituary of Richard Cyzewski. Funeral arrangements entrusted to the McCann-Healey Funeral Home, 851 Monmouth St., Gloucester City.